CERRITOS BEACH

Beach Los Cerritos is located about 45 minutes north of Los Cabos, just before the artists' colony of Todos Santos. This is a beautiful beach famed for its surfing conditions which are great here on a year-round basis. Both rentals and lessons are available.

MONUMENTS BEACH

Monuments beach or Playa Monumento is a small beach, but a mecca for Baja-bound surfers and has the closest surf to Cabo San Lucas, just a few miles out of town. Incredible sunset views have led to many developments here, most recently The Cape: A Thompson Hotel, a hip new luxury resort featuring surfer chic retro decor.

DIVORCE BEACH

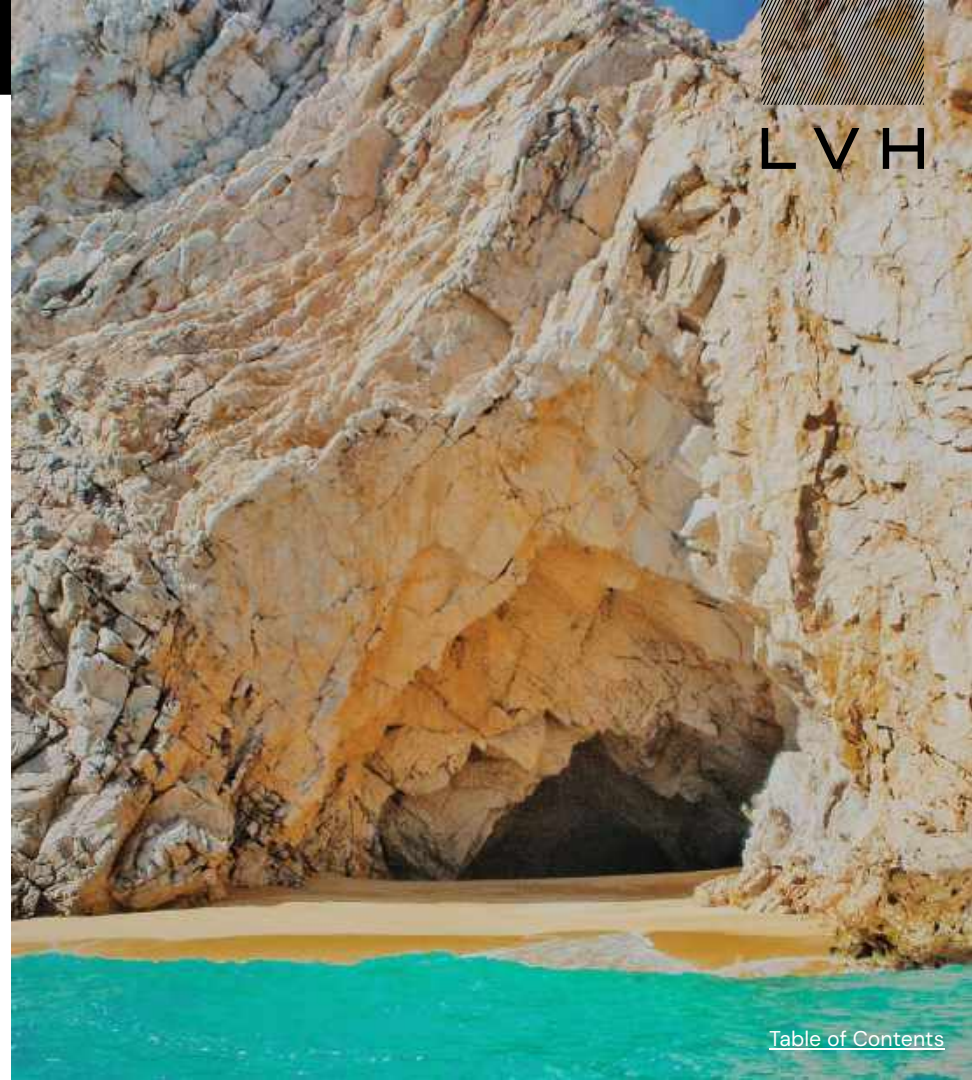

Playa del divorcio or Divorce beach, like Lover's beach, is as close as one can get to Land's End, the peninsula's southernmost point, without a boat. Divorce beach is accessible through a break in the rocks and is distinguished by crashing Pacific Ocean waves. There are no vendors or services on either beach, so pack accordingly. Warning: do not swim on the Pacific side due to strong rip currents and occasional rogue waves.

BEACHES

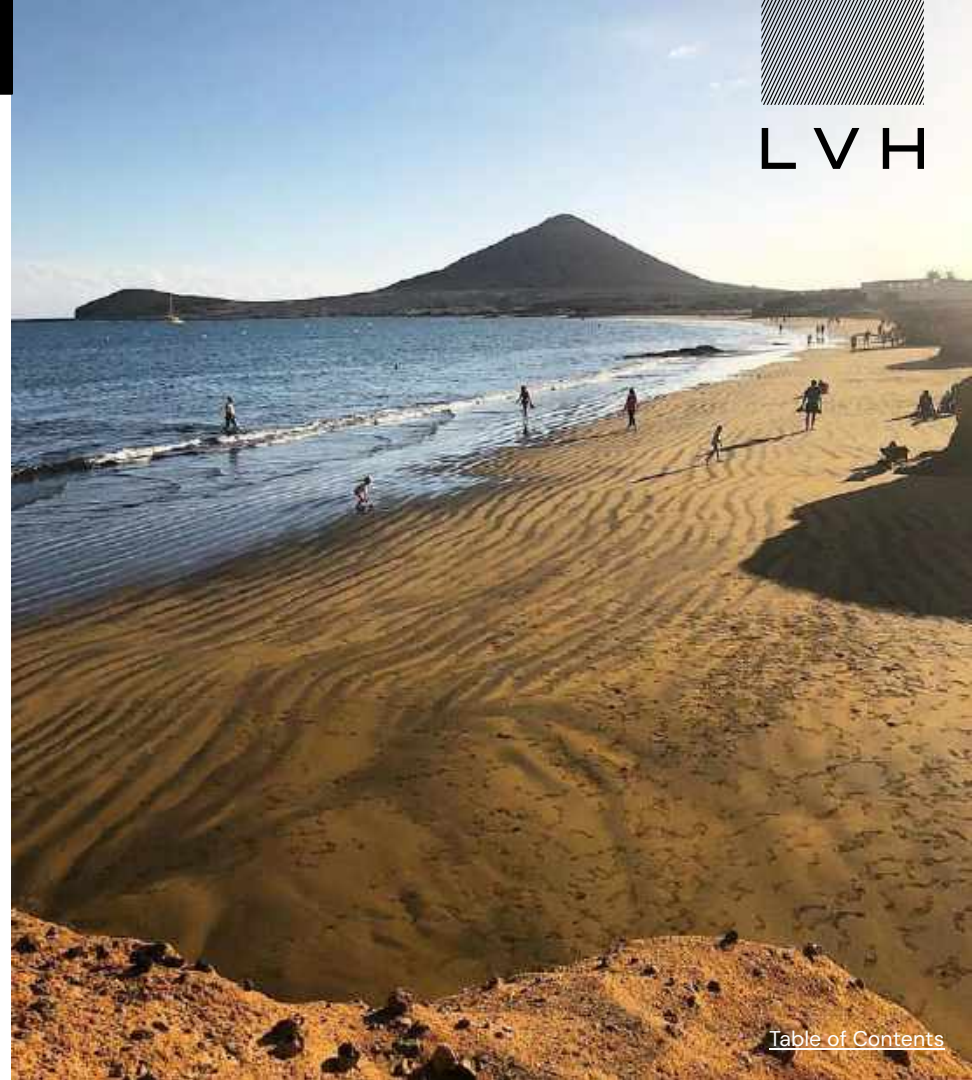

LOVER'S BEACH

Playa del Amor, or Lover's beach, is probably the most frequently photographed beach in Los Cabos, given its privileged location amid the granite rock formations at Land's End. Lover's beach is only accessible by water, so you'll have to take a water taxi, or arrange a rental kayak or other water-based transportation if you wish to explore this pristine paradise.

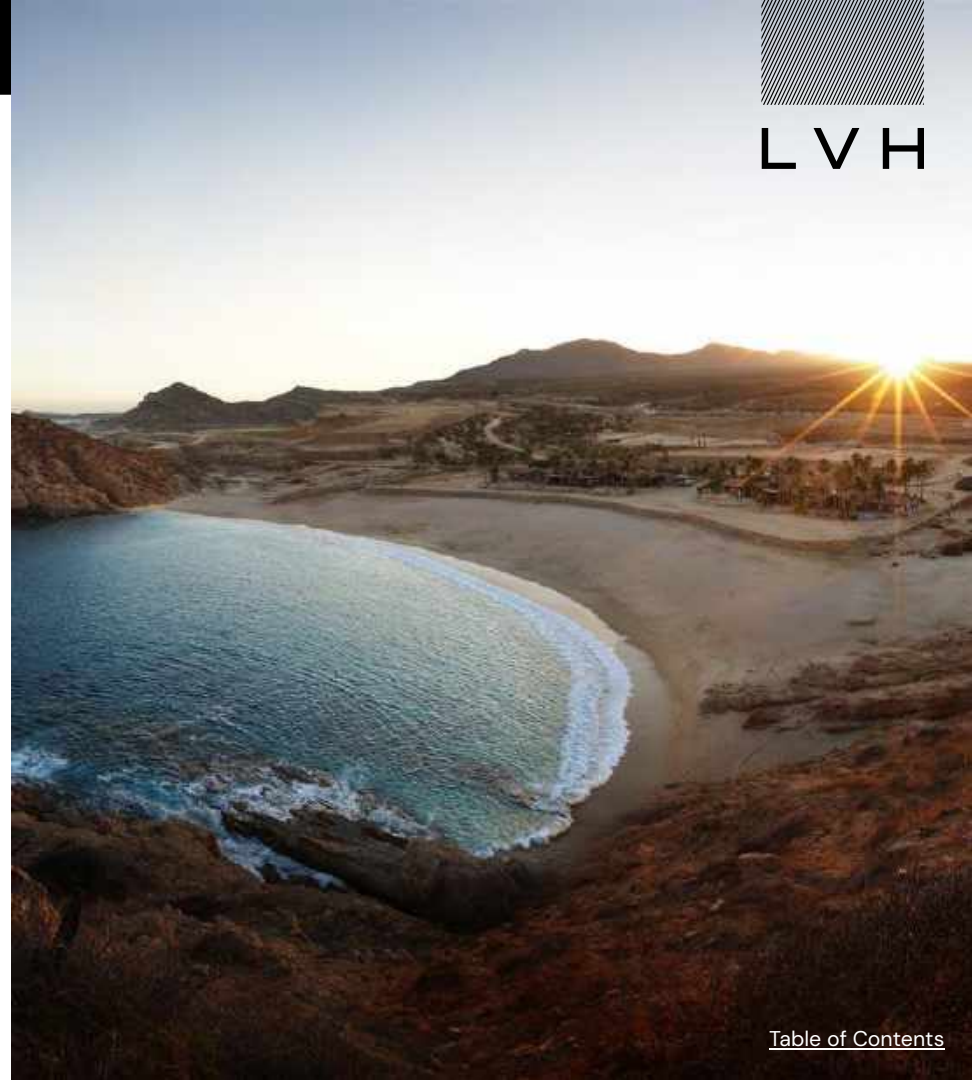

MEDANO BEACH

Playa El Medano, or Medano beach, is the center of tourist activity in Cabo San Lucas. The area is home to a succession of luxe high-rise resorts, many of the all-inclusive variety, and boasts plenty of palapa-shaded cantinas and excellent al fresco dining options. The beach itself is almost always full, particularly during spring break, and is the go-to location for water-based rentals such as kayaks and wave runners. There are a number of terrific restaurants located beachside, and diners can dig their toes in the sand while enjoying everything from seafood and Mexican specialties to American favorites.

SANTA MARIA BEACH

Topping the list of best swimming beaches in Cabo is Santa Maria beach. This exquisitely lovely horseshoe-shaped beach is worth a visit. The Bahia Santa Maria is a protected marine area and a tranquil and relatively secluded place where you can encounter a colorful array of sea life. What is more, this is a blue flag-certified beach ideal for sunning, swimming and snorkeling.

CHILENO BEACH

Though it isn't Cabo's most popular beach, Chileno beach, in the Los Cabos Corridor, is an ideal beach in many ways. With palapas to rest under and great snorkeling, boating, it also has tide pools for small children to play in. Chileno offers something for every member of the family and is usually busy on the weekends. Try to make it out on a weekday when crowds subside substantially and you'll get much more privacy. Chileno beach also has its own reef, making snorkeling and scuba diving an incredible experience.

Daily tasting menus showcase the freshest local and seasonal ingredients. The chef sources organic produce from his local farm, and grass and grain-fed beef that are wet-aged and seasoned with natural un-iodized sea salt from Guerrero Negro. The wine program is the best in Los Cabos, with a sommelier for advice on pairing options from a list of more than 300 wines. Wine-themed events happen monthly, and live entertainment is also a big draw, with the outdoor courtyard having a stage and spacious dance floor.

RESTAURANTS

AGUA | MEXICAN

This refined seaside eatery is distinguished by its superb food, impeccable service, and romantic moonlit views of the Sea of Cortéz. Menus change seasonally (and sometimes daily) to reflect the finest available ingredients, shown to best advantage in traditionally-inspired Mexican dishes. Many specialties are made tableside, including handmade tortillas, guacamoles, ceviches and moles. Start at the bar for sunset cocktails, framed between an infinity pool and a dramatic meeting of sea and sky.

RESTAURANTS

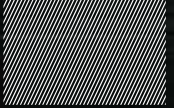

SUNSET MONALISA | NOVEL MEDITERRANEAN

This is one of the most picturesque and romantic restaurants diners will find anywhere, with tables perched seemingly atop the Sea of Cortéz and breathtaking views of Land's End. Pasta and fresh local seafood are the specialties. In fact, the restaurant has its own fishing boats. Both the food and the drinks are excellent, but it is the majestic, awe-inspiring atmosphere that makes any visit to Sunset Monalisa a memorable experience.

MANTA | MEXICAN, PAN-PACIFIC

Inspired by the simplicity and elegance of the desert, Manta was conceived as a black box focusing on views from one of the most desirable and secluded playas in Cabo. Its name has a thoughtful double meaning: a manta ray symbolizing the kitchen's focus on seafood, while manta, the Spanish word for canvas, conveys the idea of freedom in artistic expression. Manta celebrates Pacific coast cultures taking inspiration from Mexico, Peru, Japan, and beyond.

RESTAURANTS

ART WALK

San Jose del Cabo Art Walk is a popular weekly event held every Thursday evening from 5–9 p.m., from November to the end of June. The Gallery District has become the cultural center of Los Cabos with many high-end fine art galleries displaying original artwork made by the top folk artists and artisans of Cabo and Mexico. Along with an abundance of galleries, the Gallery District is home to some of the area's top restaurants.

DAY OF THE DEAD FESTIVAL

Day of the Dead or La Catrina as it is known, is a festival paying homage to deceased loved ones. Altars in their honor are put up in homes and cemeteries and decorated with purple and orange cut paper; candles and incense; sugar paste candies and flowers such as cempasuchil; marigolds, the flower of the dead; terciopelo; nubes and carnations. Visitors will see locals observing other traditions as well such as dressing as catrins and catrinas, and painting their faces like colorful, elaborate skulls.

The five-day festival offers VIP passes for screenings, awards ceremonies and parties. There's also an audience choice award.

TODOS SANTOS ART FESTIVAL

One of the main reasons for the influx of travelers to Todos Santos is the town's annual art festival. Founded years ago, the festival offers a week-long series of events, shows and workshops involving the residents, cultural centers and schools. Besides enjoying art exhibitions, musical performances and lectures, you'll also be able to learn about artists who inhabited the town long ago. J&J HABANOS

The walk-in humidor at J&J Habanos (AKA La Casa del Habano) smells like a cigar aficionado's idea of heaven, not surprising since the store is the most reliable place in Los Cabos to buy Cuban cigars. COBALTO MEXICAN POTTERY

Cabo is home to some of the best angling action in the Americas allowing the town to brand itself as the unofficial "Marlin Capital of the World." Year-round, you might find Marlin biting at the end of your line with Striped Marlin appearing in winter and blue and black varieties in the warmer months. Head further offshore, and the Billfish bite is sensational, with Sailfish and Swordfish joining Marlin giving you the chance to complete a "Grand Slam."

WATER SKI & WAKEBOARD

A great way to have fun, these watersports cater to all experience levels making them ideal activities for warm summer days. Wakeboarding is a surface water sport just like water skiing. 65' POWER CATAMARAN

The new Horizon PC65 provides increased fuel capacity and stronger power to satisfy blue water cruisers. With a hull design by Angelo Lavranos and Horizon's in-house team, the PC65 inherits the stability, safety, and comfort that characterizes the PC series. The PC65 incorporates a spacious salon area with L-shaped seating and a galley equipped with a bar. Four guest staterooms are on board, with a full beam on-deck master stateroom and three guest staterooms below deck. The Horizon PC65 is offered in sky lounge and open bridge versions to suit a variety of cruising lifestyles.

PRIVATE 46' TRIMARAN

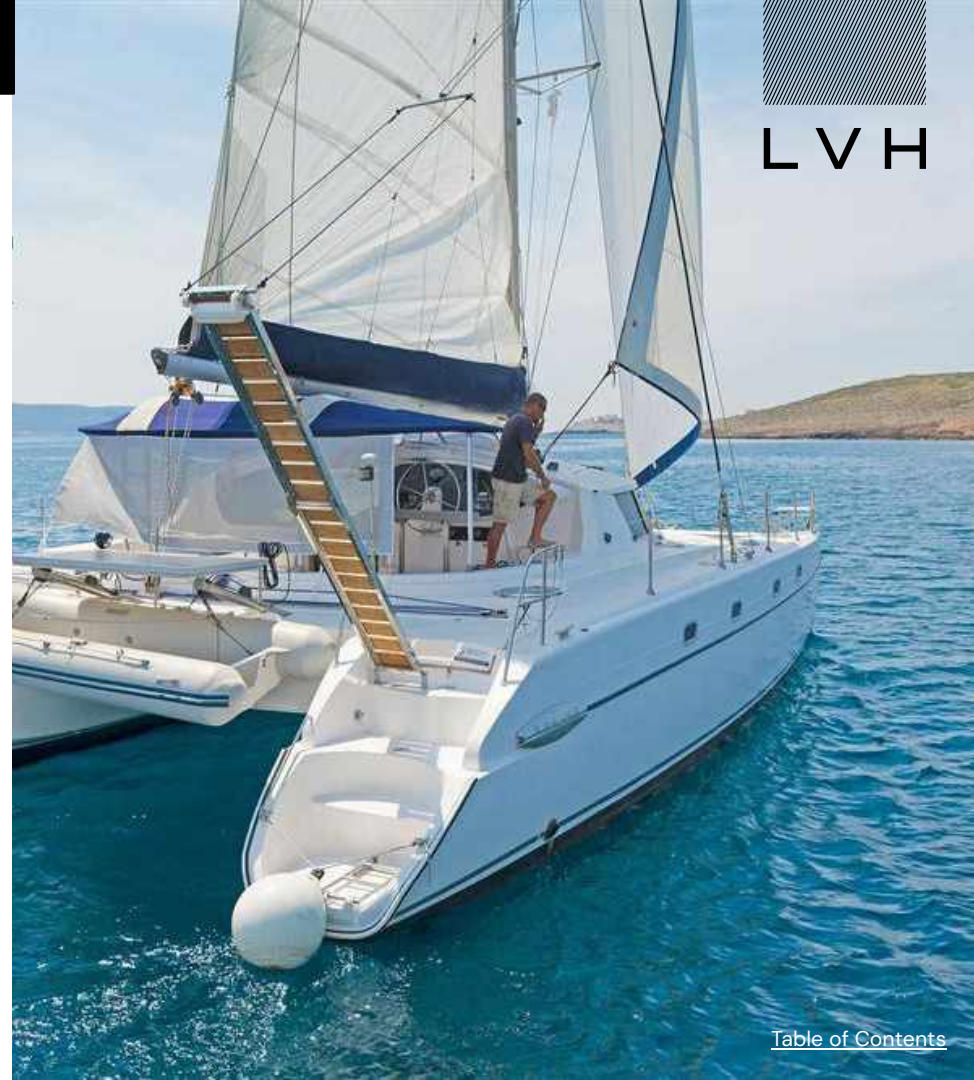

The wide-body trimaran style of this exclusive private boat gives a bit more stability than a typical two-pontoon catamaran, and more deck space for its size. This vessel can accommodate up to 55 passengers! You also have comfortable bench seating if you prefer to chill out with a cocktail. Remember to watch for whales from December through March, when mighty humpbacks are a common sight!

43' BELIZE CATAMARAN

The Belize 43 is a safe bet from the Fountaine-Pajot shipyard. Thanks to its length (13 meters) and streamlined shape, it cuts through the water, which is very pleasant when at the helm of this boat. Famous for its sailing performances due to a generous 111m² of sail, the Belize 43 is a fast catamaran equipped with clever tricks for greater sailing ease. Inside, the full cupboard in the galley proves to be very practical and the dining area is very convivial. In the hulls, the two cabins are very pleasant and offer plenty of storage space.
