ABOUT

Cannes is the envy of the French Riviera. Spellbinding and glamorous, this city follows the glitz and pageantry of Hollywood with a dollop of French refinement. The epitome of the good life and modern-day high culture, this port city has been the "Coup de Coeur" of the upper echelons for more than a century. Marvel at ambrosial hillsides dotted by magnificent 19th century villas teeming with neoclassical grandeur.

Cannes presents an authentic French "joie de vivre" with an internationally renowned trendsetting cosmopolitan air. The city's walk of fame, Hotel Carlton, and iconic golden sands have entered the popular imagination as the place of cinema royalty. Cannes may very well be to the postmodern era what Florence was to the Renaissance era. The world's high fashion, cinema, and gastronomy intersect in this resort town. An ever-larger fleet of super yachts dock in the port each year, steps from one of the world's most luxurious main streets, La Croisette. Behind the rich veneer lies a city replete with historical intrigue. Serpentine medieval alleys house modern bistros and high-end contemporary galleries in historical Le Suquet. Offering the world's hottest cultural itinerary, incredible gastronomy, and glorious natural beauty, Cannes is an undisputed leader in exclusive living.

From Mougins, Cannes La Bocca, to La Californie, Cannes presents many shades of luxury. Enjoy complete seclusion in the hilly peripheries of a Mediterranean oasis, or parade down the glitzy catwalk of Rue d'Antibes. Each of Cannes' neighborhoods exudes a distinct flavor, either urban, pastoral, historical, or cultural. La Belle Epoque, Provencal, and Californian architectural styles stand shoulder-to-shoulder. Yet for all its diversity, you may be sure of one thing – the unreserved beauty of each of these areas.

CANNES LA BOCCA

An area often falling below the radar, the beach of La Bocca is a quiet alternative to the hustle and bustle of Croisette. Situated west of the city center, this stretch of shoreline is a go-to for families seeking a leisurely day in the sun. Featuring dramatic boulders and evenly-spaced kiosks, Plage La Bocca offers plenty of amenities. On the periphery of the glitz and glamor, La Bocca is where the locals live, allowing guests to soak up the everyday spirit of Cannes.

LE SUQUET

The historic center of Le Suquet, known for its steep cobblestoned winding streets, is a key tourist attraction. Once the medieval residential area of the fisherman who inhabited Cannes, the compact old quarter surprises with a host of jazz bars, speakeasies, and fine restaurants. Landmarks include a clock tower and church facing east at the top of the hill, offering lovely city and ocean views.

LA CROISSETTE

Lined with Umbrella pines and Cypress trees, La Croisette brings you front and center to Cannes' beach glamor and devil-may-care, sophisticated spirit. The famed La Croisette stretches the entire length of the city center, the promenade garnished by rows of exclusive hotels, high-end retail, bars, and ice cream kiosks. On this two-kilometer boulevard, you'll encounter the famed Palais des Festivals et des Congres.

AREAS

CALIFORNIE PEZOU

Californie Pezou is an upmarket, residential area scattered with lavish villas tucked away on mimosa-filled hillside estates with Bay of Cannes views. Purely residential, this prestigious area is to Cannes what Beverly Hills is to LA. Architecturally eclectic with all things extravagant, it is home to some of Cannes' most lavish properties. Known for domineering south-facing views over the bay and the city below, it's no wonder this is one of the most sought-after neighborhoods in the region.

MOUGINS

This stunning bohemian village perched in the hills presents a wonderful pastoral retreat. It's surrounded by the pristine Valmasque forests on a fragrant terrain plush with umbrella pines, olive groves, and sprinkled with Cypress trees. The medieval origins of the area are still intact, and its luscious panoramic views and history have inspired the lives of many well-known artist residents. Jean Cocteau, Edith Piaf, Winston Churchill, Catherine Deneuve, and Jacques Brel are but a few who have resided or lived in Mougins. Serene and calm, the village is lauded for its proud culinary heritage.

VALLAURIS

Found at the crossroads of Cannes, Nice, and Juan Les Pins and Antibes, Vallauris has risen in prominence as Picasso's place of residence during his mid-late career. Small, quiet, and residential, Vallauris packs an incredibly robust cultural itinerary. It's home to a national museum, Picasso's public war and peace sculpture, and a museum of ceramics, marking the region's most representative art medium. Flush with workshops, and galleries this quaint town is a lovely pit stop on the way to Antibes.

3.14 PLAGE

Illuminated by the generous Mediterranean sun, 3.14 Plage offers an atmosphere conducive to well-being and relaxation. Like the 3.14 hotel, this is a "concept" beach with a zen attitude. Totally redesigned to take advantage of the exceptional environment offered by the Bay of Cannes, the decor invites guests to experience authentic moments in a natural setting where all five senses are awakened. As for the cuisine, it is faithful to the DNA of 3.14 Plage – a locavore, organic and gluten-free. In the new open kitchen, the chefs Bruno Laplace and Frederic Nortier imagine dishes with a Mediterranean spirit. The menu reveals a farandole or medley of sunny dishes, emphasizing freshness and healthiness without sacrificing flavor. With creations signed by the pastry chef, Olivia Kakou, the gourmet experience is par excellence.

With touches of white, green, and blue, and bioclimatic pergolas, this is an ideal setting for a day of reverie and indulgence.

BEACH CLUBS

CARLTON CANNES BEACH CLUB

The legend of the Côte d'Azur hotel industry, located in the heart of the Croisette, is the Carlton Cannes Beach Club. An ode to the Riviera and its pastel shades, an ode to idleness and Mediterranean flavours. Designed by the French architect Tristan Auer, Carlton's beach marks a return to the Carlton's Belle Époque roots. Everything is done to recall the gentle way of life on the Côte d'Azur, from the sun-drenched deckchairs to the presence of an aromatic garden composed of thyme and rosemary, embellished by olive trees that support the culture of farniente. At any time of the day, the Carlton Beach Club radiates its sweet dolce vita touch: a sociable atmosphere, well-chilled cocktails and sun-drenched cuisine for a relaxing experience right by the sea.

VILLA DOMERGUE AND GARDENS

The villa and grounds are influenced by Italian style and were built in 1934 on land Jean-Gabriel Domergue bought at the end of Avenue de la Californie. Domergue designed the building and its interior design down to the last detail while his sculptor wife created the terraced gardens with ponds and waterfalls. Jean-Gabriel Domergue died in 1962 and Odette Maudrange-Domergue left the property to Cannes Town Hall in 1973. The gardens are magical and a must-see while in Cannes.

THE UNDERWATER MUSEUM OF CANNES

Off the coast of the island of Sainte-Marguerite, you'll find one of the world's only underwater art installations – the underwater "Eco Museum," by award-winning British artist Jason deCaires Taylor. The six sculptures in this permanent installation are constructed using pH-neutral, environmentally-sensitive materials to instigate natural growth and the subsequent changes intended to explore the aesthetics of decay, rebirth and metamorphosis. The location is now cordoned off from boats, making it a safe place to dive. Located just off the shore it is easily accessible for anyone who wants to see it.

MAGNELLI MUSEUM - CERAMICS MUSEUM AT VALLAURIS CHATEAU

Here you have three museums in one: The Château de Vallauris, formerly the Abbaye de Lérins priory, was rebuilt in the 16th century and is one of the region's very few Renaissance-era buildings. It is home to the "War and Peace" National Picasso Museum in the Romanesque chapel and the Magnelli Museum and the Ceramics Museum. Alberto Magnelli (1888–1971) was a contemporary of Picasso, a painter from Florence and pioneer of abstract art. Upon the artist's death, Susi Magnelli, his widow, donated the collection to the museum in Vallauris. The magnificent Renaissance-era staircase leads to the Ceramics Museum on the first floor. Split into several rooms, this museum helps visitors understand how ceramics and pottery in Vallauris developed through its key periods.

MUSÉE PICASSO

In Antibes, the Grimaldi Castle was turned into the Picasso Museum in 1966. In 1946, Picasso, who was living nearby in Golfe-Juan with Françoise Gilot, accepted an offer to set up his studio in the Castle. Picasso created many works, sketches and paintings here, including Les Clés d'Antibes (The Keys of Antibes), covering an entire wall surface. When he decided to move back to Paris, he left 23 paintings and 44 sketches in the castle's custody. Various donations and purchases as well as the custody pieces conferred by Jacqueline Picasso, have significantly enriched the collection.

FERNAND LÉGER NATIONAL MUSEUM

After more than half a century of existence, the Fernand Léger National Museum in St. Paul de Vence is a place of reference for the work of this artist. Throughout the year a rich program of exhibitions, lectures, film screenings and educational workshops are offered to visitors. The building has a huge mosaic facade, originally planned by Léger for decorating the stadium in Hanover, but never realized. On the evening of May 13, 1960, a unique event inaugurated the museum Fernand Léger in Biot. More than 5,000 guests attended the opening of the first monographic museum in the region. Under the patronage of Picasso, Braque and Chagall, the inauguration brought together celebrities from the literary and artistic worlds, film stars and politicians.

MARC CHAGALL MUSEUM

The Marc Chagall Museum is located on the Cimiez hill, in Nice. The building, opened to the public in 1973 under the strict supervision of Chagall, who was living in the village of Saint-Paul de Vence. The artist donated the artworks which form the core of the collection and was directly involved in the creation of the building's decorative apparatus. The strong connection between architecture and collection and Chagall's involvement is also visible in the large decorative windows of the auditorium and in the mosaic overlooking the museum's pool. The museum's collection is made of donations by Chagall himself; whereas the centerpiece of the collection is the famous Bible Cycle (aka Biblical Message), consisting of seventeen paintings – depicting the Genesis, the Exodus and the Song of Songs – made by Chagall in the early 1950s. Over time, the museum's collection has been expanded through acquisitions and bequests making it one of the world's largest collections exclusively focused on Chagall's works.

CANNES YACHTING FESTIVAL

According to the Yachting Festival organizers, this is the most eclectic show in the world. Close to 600 boats brought in by more than 400 exhibitors are on hand for sailing enthusiasts to view. The Cannes Yachting Festival is held at two port locations: Porto/Pierre Canto – a "brokerage" area for pre-owned boats from 22 meters up. It is also the site for the "toys" and serves as the sail area with 100 large sailing boats. The Vieux Port, on the other hand, is for the nautical motor and yacht industry exhibit where you'll see large motorized yachts. This makes it the largest sailing exhibition in the world. Covered maritime shuttles connect the two ports about every 15 minutes. There is also the trade show with displays for luxury and lifestyle brands in the Luxury Gallery, inside the Palais des Festivals. All in all, this festival is a must-attend event if you're a yacht owner or a yachting enthusiast.

CYCLING & CANNONDALE MOUNTAIN BIKING

From dusty trails, rocky paths, the red cliff of the Esterel and the pine forests lining the coast, you will have plenty of terrain and scenery to enjoy in this area. There are several world class bike parks in the Alpes-Maritimes. The trails there are designed and maintained for you to enjoy; some are with lift access. You have an option of renting an electric mountain bike, Cannondale, equipped with front and rear suspensions for greater comfort and a more sporty ride. Here are some of the most scenic paths to explore:

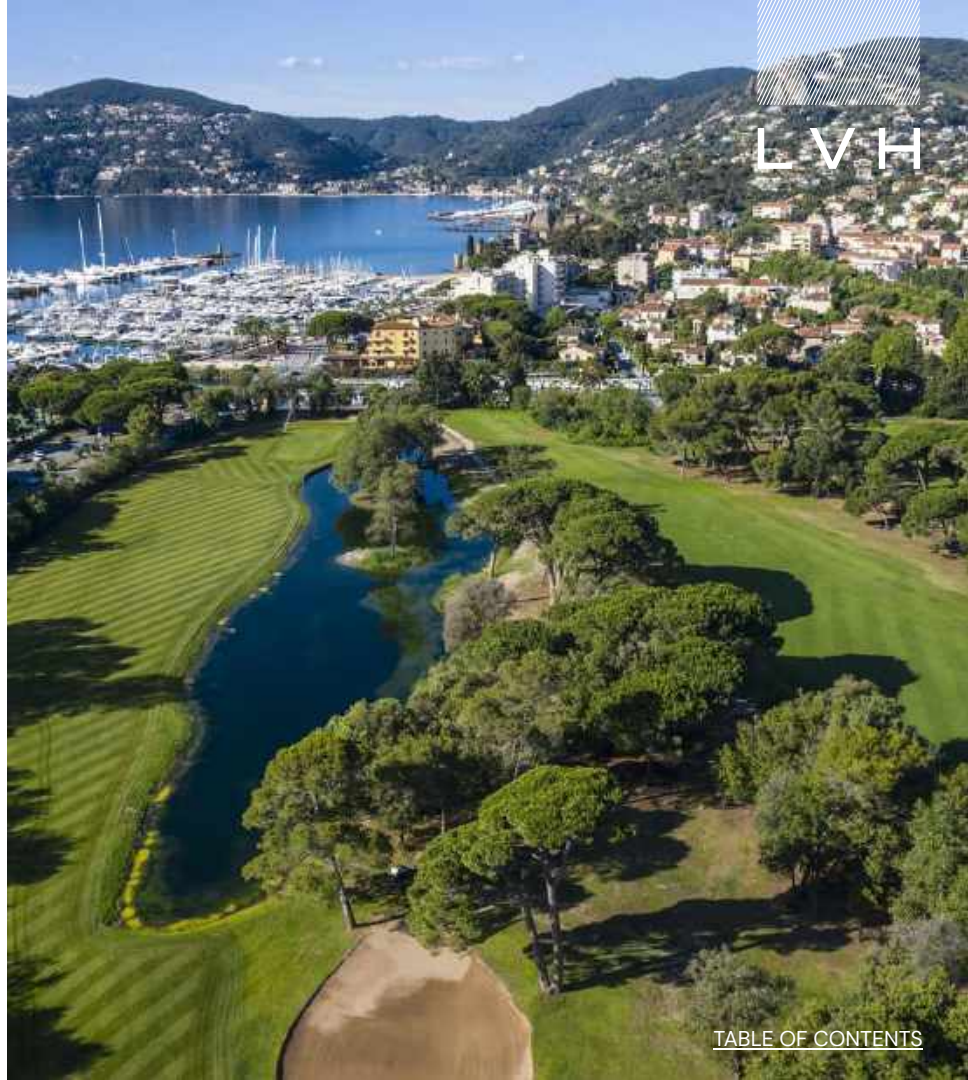

- Circuit des Mimosas, in Cannes Area – (January to March when mimosas are in full bloom)
- Circuit des Monges, Theoule-sur-mer
- La Croix des Gardes, Cannes

GOLF

The variety of golf courses on the Côte d'Azur makes this region a first-choice destination, offering everything needed for a perfect golfing experience. Armed with this ace-in-the-hole, the "Pass Côte d'Azur Golfs" you can have the key to the gates of 20 golf courses in the Alpes-Maritimes and the Var departments, offering tremendous variety, all within two-hours' drive. Here are some of the French Riviera's unique golf courses:

- The Golf de Valescure, Saint-Raphaël – the oldest golf course in the Var department, built in 1895
- Cannes-Mougins Golf Club – founded in 1923 by a group of illustrious gentlemen such as Aga Khan, Prince Pierre of Monaco and Baron Edouard de Rothschild. This is the most famous 18-hole golf course in France. It's in the middle of a forest, and closer to the Mediterranean and a jewel of the Riviera.
- Old Course Cannes Golf Link
- Claux Amic Golf Course, Grasse – this golf course is located on a charming old private hunting estate dating back to the 17th century.

A VOYAGE/FLIGHT TO THE PORQUEROLLES ISLAND THE VILLA & FONDATION CARMIGNAC

The Villa and Foundation Carmignac set the bar high for contemporary art. The collection of more than 300 works is a refuge in the heart of a remarkable archipelago. In this authentic provençal farmhouse, financier and art collector Edouard Carmignac wanted to share his love for contemporary artwork. In June 2018 the Villa Carmignac, on the island of Porquerolles, opened its doors to the public. Works of art here rub shoulders with and marry the nature of the Port-Cros National Park. To the sound of cicadas, walk barefoot through the extraordinary garden where works of Tom Sachs, Jean Denant or Alexandre Farto AKA Vhils are revealed. Make sure you put this initiatory voyage to the island on your itinerary.

ST. TROPEZ

As a high-fashionable jetsetter or trendsetter arrange a trip by car, helicopter or yacht to this prestigious tiny resort town. It is the Hamptons of Europe. Yet, despite its well-earned hedonistic reputation, St. Tropez possesses a certain mystique that has been there long before a young ingenue named Brigitte Bardot came along in the mid-1950s and splashed the whole town with limelight. Scrape away the gilded patina of new money, and this artist enclave still shimmers beneath the plane trees on the Place des Lices, in the scared walls of the fortified Citadel, and along the narrow cobbled streets that have bewitched visitors for centuries.

LÉRINS ISLANDS AND ABBEY VISIT

The influx of tourists, the events, the buzz, the nightlife of The French Riviera can sometimes be overwhelming. You may look for a place to escape the fuss and all the flurry of activity of the beautiful Cote d'Azur. Just off the coast of Cannes, only a 15-minute trip by boat, is a group of islands where the surrounding is serene and tranquil: the Lerins Islands (Iles de Lerins). They have a unique history matched with beautiful panoramas and spectacular natural features. Spend an afternoon enjoying nature and wine. Like the rest of the French Riviera, the islands have the perfect Mediterranean climate and more than 300 sunny days per year. You can choose between:

- ❑ Ste Marguerite – with a military fortress now shelterin a greek artefacts museum and well-known private beach le Gurita
- ❑ St Honorat – with an active 5th century abbey where there will be an option to taste the wine and liquors the monks produce.

BESPOKE PERFUME CREATION AT GRASSE

Grasse France might be the sweetest smelling city in Europe, widely known as the perfume capital of the world. Known for its leather tanning work in the Middle Ages, this hilly French town would eventually become the center of the French perfume industry after it began manufacturing perfumed gloves in the 16th century and farming a number of flowers used for fragrances. Grasse still enjoys an international reputation in the perfume industry and is the home of dozens of fragrance companies. Even the flowers used for making the world-famous Chanel N°5 are grown and harvested here. In addition to the perfume industry, Grasse also provides travelers a break from the crowded Riviera coastal towns and offers a glimpse of the real Riviera away from the tourist route. One of the highlights is visit to Galimard perfumery workshop where you got to create your bespoke perfume!

STUNNING FRENCH VILLAGES

Not far from the grandeur what is Cannes lies a set of picturesque village know as village perché (perched villages). Most of them are centrifugal and roosted on hilltops, hence the umbrella name.

- ❑ Biot – This quaint medieval hilltop village enchants visitors with its narrow cobblestone streets, quiet alleyways, and pleasant little squares. Built on the slopes of a steep hill it features many pedestrian staircases that lead up to viewpoints and reward visitors with lovely panoramas.
- ❑ St Paul de Vence –one of the most beautiful and the most visited village in France. It has been inhabited since 400 B.C., making it one of the oldest towns of the French Riviera. It has a population of about 3,500 (300 inside the old walled town). The village captivates visitors by the mesmerizing natural beauty and the art by numerous 20th century masters it harbors within its walls.
- ❑ Gourdon – the archetype of a perched village, sitting like an eagle's nest at the end of a rocky spur, enjoying a truly exceptional panoramic view over more than 80 kilometres of coastline. It also forms a remarkably harmonious ensemble of white stone-built medieval houses, nestling around the feudal castle, all of which are beautifully restored and maintained.

FERRARI F8 SPIDER

When it comes to Ferrari vehicles, they are easy to describe, especially when it comes to the Ferrari F8. The car is long, quite low, and the sharp and broken lines indicate perfect aerodynamics. Inside the cabin, look forward to a sporty but luxurious atmosphere with an elegant leather interior. The ergonomic design of the cabin puts you in focus and gets you ready for a drive to remember. The F8 Spider is as much about prestige and elegance as it is about performance. However, the subtraction of the roof amplifies the experience to new heights!

ASTON MARTIN DBS

The Aston Martin DBS, a super sports car from the prestigious British brand, will take you on a long and exhilarating drive. The DBS Superleggera has managed to break the brand's codes while espousing the DNA of Aston Martin, which develops agile and dynamic luxury cars. Combine performance and comfort throughout your stay on the French Riviera aboard this luxury car. Glide along the roads of the French Riviera without abandoning your comfort.

MCLAREN 720S SPIDER

With its curves and technology directly inspired by McLaren Formula 1, the 720S Spider has left nothing to chance to make your driving experience exhilarating. Its luxurious, hand-crafted interior and the panoramic view will allow you to enjoy the scenery of the French Riviera without leaving your car. To experience this technological marvel, reserve your McLaren 720S Spider.
