This charming restaurant spares no expense in its meticulous design, transporting guests back to the glamorous era of Old Hollywood. As you step through the doors, you'll be swept away by the elegant ambiance and treated to a menu fit for a king, featuring classics like Steak Diane and oysters-stuffed filet mignon. Impeccably dressed waiters will cater to your every need, adding to the sophisticated atmosphere. And when the meal is over, indulge in a perfectly crafted Manhattan at the bar, aptly named Casablanca, while being serenaded by live piano music. Melvyn's truly captures the essence of Old Hollywood, where indulgence and elegance reign supreme.

THE PURPLE PALM | MEXICAN

Step into a world of Moroccan splendor and rich history at The Purple Palm, an exceptional restaurant that demands a visit when in town. Named after the infamous Jewish mobsters of the 1930s, this gem is nestled within the luxurious Colony Palms resort, once a secret hideaway for Al Meriweather and his gang. Venture inside the recently renovated interior, where designer Martyn Lawrence-Bullard has traded in photo-realistic palm tree wallpaper for a more fitting and stylish pattern. And let's not forget the stunning outdoor space, offering a picturesque view of the pool and serving as the perfect backdrop for its mouthwatering selection of hearty dishes.

LE VALLAURIS RESTAURANT | FRENCH

Established in the heart of Palm Springs since 1973, Le Vallauris located at the foot of San Jacinto Mountains has been the highest rated restaurant in the Coachella Valley since its inception. The exquisite cuisine at Le Vallauris is prepared by Executive Chef, Jean-Paul Lair, who has graced the restaurant for over 25 years. The Historic Landmark was built in 1927 as a home for the Robertson family, who managed Palm Springs' first hotel, The Desert Inn. Many grand parties were held in the house for guests such as Duke Ellington, Nat King Cole, Louis Armstrong, and many more.

MISTER PARKER'S | CONTEMPORARY

Indulge in a culinary retreat at the sultry and appropriately named Mister Parker's of the Parker Hotel. As you slip past the velvet drapes, prepare to be seduced by the provocative atmosphere (think mirrored ceilings, a gleaming all-white baby grand piano, and tantalizing artwork). And let's not forget about the decadent menu, featuring stars like pistachio-crusted scallops, Steak au Poivre, and shoestring parmesan fries. Needless to say, reservations are highly coveted in this culinary haven.

WORKSHOP KITCHEN | AMERICAN

Uptown Palm Springs shines as a foodie haven thanks to chef Michael Beckman's Workshop Kitchen + Bar. The menu highlights locally sourced delights like heirloom carrots, gravlax tartine, and Iron House ranch rib eye. Even the cocktails, like the scotch-infused Carrot Penicillin, are a flavor revelation. The food takes center stage in this unparalleled dining experience in a sleek, minimalist space.

MR. LYONS | STEAKHOUSE

From the flawlessly crafted retro shrimp cocktail to the buttery soft filet mignon and the delectable beef Wellington Rossini, every dish at Mr. Lyons is a masterpiece. And while the main attractions steal the show, the tantalizing sides truly steal our hearts. Delectable options like the lobster mac 'n' cheese, crispy smashed potatoes, and golden onion rings are feasts in their own right. As you settle into the elegant marble flooring, sink into the plush velvet seating, and admire your fellow diners, take a sip of a perfectly crafted martini to kick off your evening at this exquisite dining destination.

CORK TREE RESTAURANT | CALIFORNIAN

Cork Tree creates a fine dining experience with its upscale and wholesome cuisine, comprehensive wine list, and intimate dining areas. Locally sourced products are used for dishes like duck breast and smoked mushroom risotto and hibiscus braised short ribs. Private rooms are also available at the Cork Tree for guests looking for more intimate dining.

COPLEY'S ON PALM CANYON | FUSION

American cuisine infused with the taste of the tropics and Europe is served at the award-winning Copley's On Palm Canyon. Dine on the patio surrounded by stunning mountain vistas or in the inviting indoors. Chef Andrew Copley is known for innovative dishes like miso-glazed Scottish salmon or saffron-scented seafood spaghetti. After dinner, try the black ice martini made with dark rum, Irish cream, Frangelico, and a shot of espresso.

MORGAN'S IN THE DESERT | FRENCH

Award-winning Chef, Jimmy Schmidt, is known for his innovative menu options, such as pan-roasted maple leaf duck breast. Morgan's is a steak lover's heaven with thick, quality cuts of choice beef. An extensive wine list with endless pairing options, has made regulars out of countless patrons.
