ABOUT

Ibiza is one of the Balearic Islands, a Spanish archipelago in the Mediterranean Sea. Internationally renowned for the legendary nightlife of Ibiza Town and Sant Antoni, major European clubs have their summer outposts here. Not to be overshadowed by its boisterous nightlife, Ibiza is also home to quaint windswept villages, yoga retreats, and pristine beaches. From the Platja d'en Bossa lined with hotels, bars, and shops to the sandy coves nestled behind pine-clad coastal hills, the island is full of surprises and contrasts.

BEACHES

Ibiza's stunning shorelines are a testament to the island's natural beauty. From glamorous urban beaches to stunning secluded coves flanked by red cliffs and embraced by forested hills, the island offers beaches for any preference. With only 28 miles setting apart the farthest two shores on our shortlist, you're never too far from a secluded coastal oasis. It's at the edges of the remote island, where the land meets the sea, where the true convivial and laid-back Balearic spirit lies. A congregation point for all, from locals to visitors, from photographers to sunbathers, Ibiza's magical coastlines attract a spirit of spontaneity and a lust for life.

BEACHES

BENIRRÁS

Zen-seekers often settle on this northern slice of sand. On Sundays, crowds gather for sunset and a tribal drumming session, when fires are lit and souls are stirred.

CALA D'HORT

This arc-shaped golden beach boasts uninterrupted front row seats to one of Ibiza's most beautiful natural spectacles, the island of Es Vedra, a rocky limestone formation jutting out of the sea as if it were superimposed on the water.

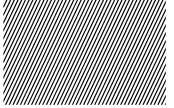

BEACHES

TALAMANCA

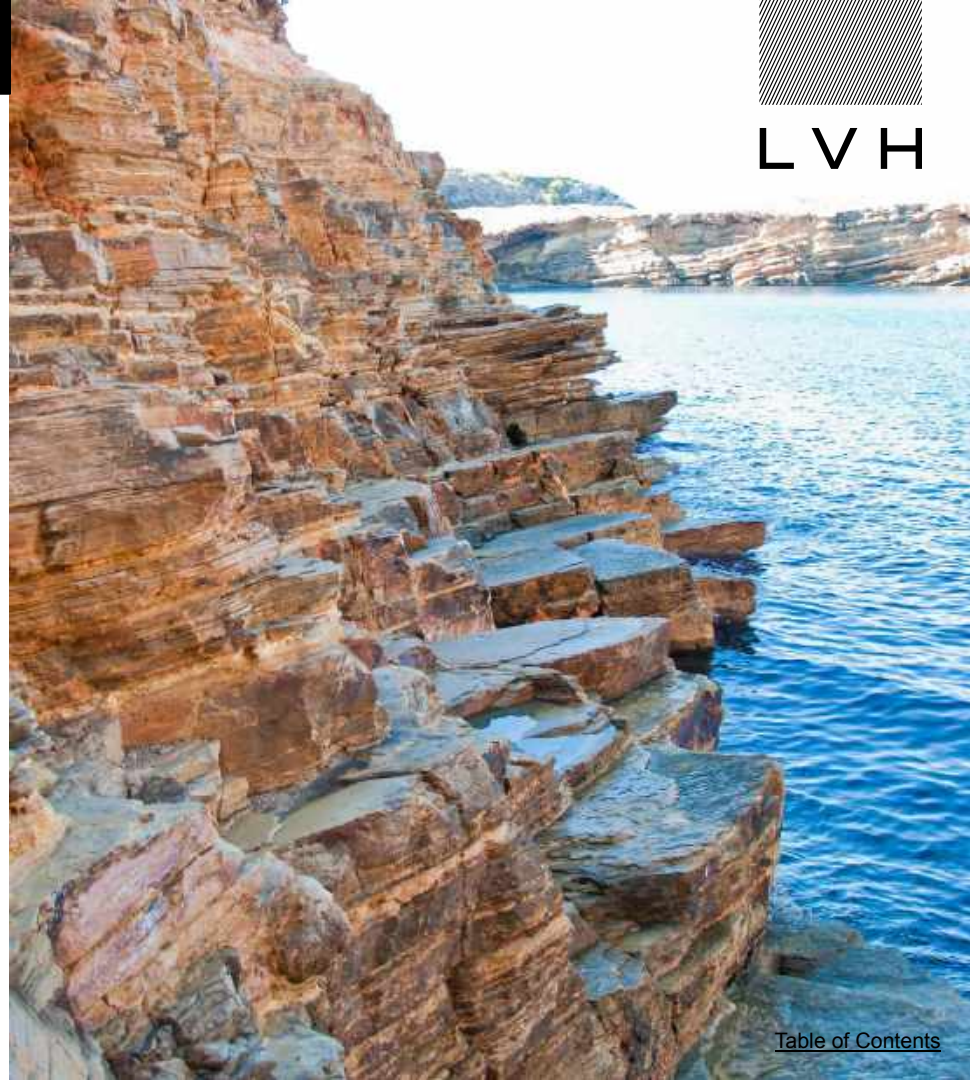

Safe, shallow, calm, and clear waters are the focal point in the pretty bay of Talamanca, the closest beach to Ibiza Town. The long wooden promenade running the length of the golden shore is peppered with restaurants and beach bars. Talamanca is an ideal spot for either a day on the beach or just a quick lunchtime snack.

PUNTA GALERA

One of the most breathtaking sights in Ibiza, Punta Galera is a fantastic bay surrounded by stone formations jutting out from the cliffs like large, flat shelves. Beneath the rocks, the sparkling azure Mediterranean Sea glistens, beckoning sunbathers to cool off by diving off the rocks. A surrounding rock pool is popular with snorkelers, accounting for an authentic Ibiza experience you shouldn't miss.

SOL D'EN SERRA

Reaching Sol D'en Serra is a real treat. Navigate through a rocky roadway leading into a tiny cove overlooking incredible views of the surrounding cliffs. The pebbly beach, offering the serenity of complete seclusion, stands as one of the Mediterranean's finest coastlines.

CALA BASSA

Cala Bassa boasts some of the most transparent, sparkling water you'll find on the island, in addition to the softest golden sand. Large rock formations on either side of the beach are representative of the rocky and rustic terrain of Ibiza, popular with daredevil free-divers. Plenty of trees around the beach provide respite from the afternoon heat, perfect for picnics and family days out.

SAN MIGUEL

A sleepy little resort-style beach on the north coast, San Miguel carries a lost-in-time vibe. Retro-styled sun loungers and sun umbrellas are seemingly plucked from the island's 80s era of excess. Old hotel facades and tourist shops still feature old wares from 1988, so the beach is a charmer for vintage enthusiasts!

LAS SALINAS

Arguably the most iconic of Ibiza's coastlines, Las Salinas is a long expanse of golden sand surrounded by a nature reserve. Incorporating dunes, pine forests, and spectacular salt flats, you'll have no problem staying afloat in these waters!

BEACHES

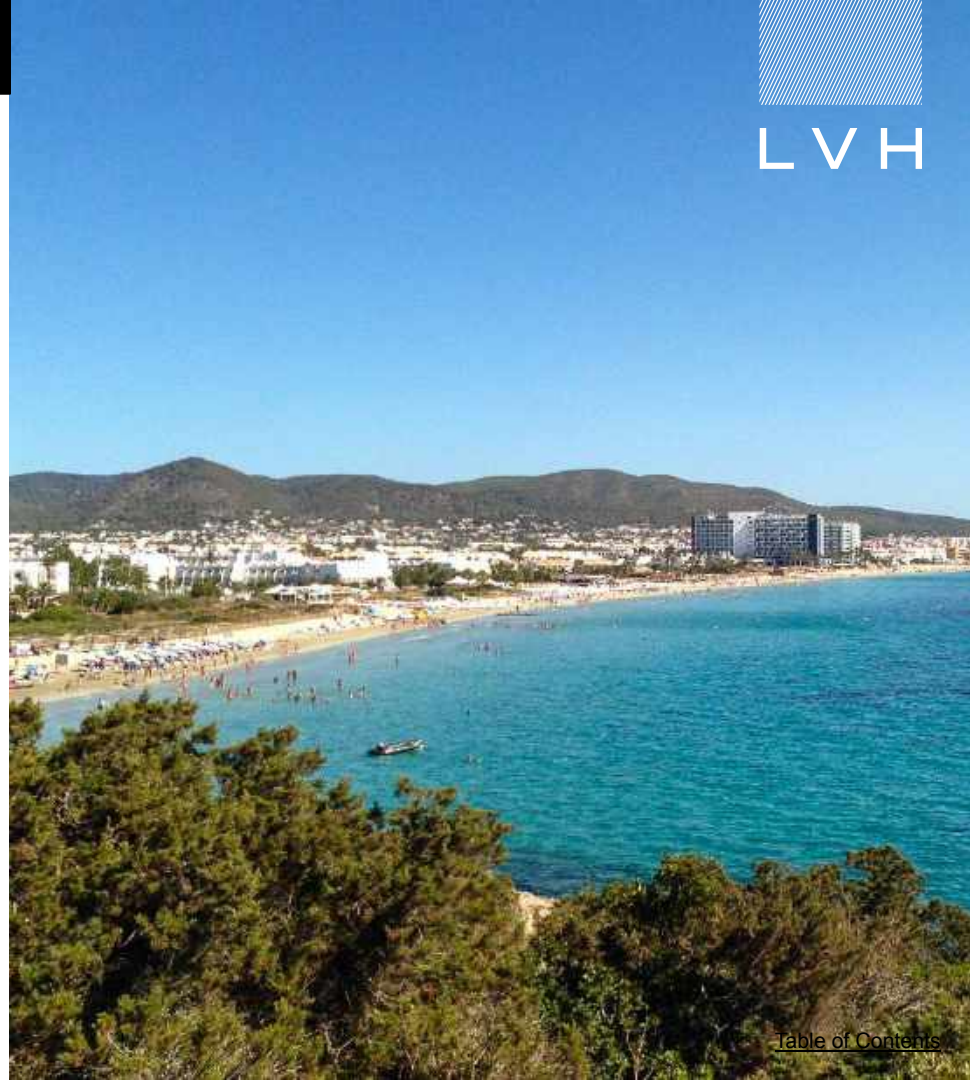

CALA TARIDA

The exceptionally long and wide Cala Tarida stuns with its fine white sand along the island's west coast. Regarded for the stunning hues of the water, from blue, turquoise, and emerald green, this shore offers a bit of something for everyone. Here beach volleyball, water sports, and diving are serious affairs.

PLAYA D'EN BOSSA

Playa D'en Bossa is the island's longest beach, with endless sandy shores smattered with sunbeds and parasols. Cool beach bars and Bali beach beds combine with excellent culinary options at Playa D'en Bossa. With laid-back music playing courtesy of the resident DJ, this shoreline encapsulates the summer spirit of Ibiza.

CIPRIANI DOWNTOWN IBIZA | ITALIAN

Set over two floors in the east wing of the Ibiza Gran Hotel, with stunning views of the harbor, Cipriani Downtown Ibiza brings simple luxury, relaxed sophistication and timeless elegance to the island. The design of the restaurant and lounge is deeply rooted in tradition but at the same time immersed in a modern sensibility. Inaugurated in 2012, it is open only throughout the summer season and features an indoor restaurant with Cipriani classic cuisine and an outdoor terrace offering a grill concept.

ZUMA | JAPANESE

Co-founded and created by Rainer Becker in London, Zuma brings the flavor of its award-winning contemporary Japanese cuisine and the informal izakaya dining concept to the Balearic Islands. The Zuma Ibiza pop-up restaurant for Summer 2022 is set on the rooftop of the Ibiza Gran Hotel. With the sushi bar and open kitchen in the center of the space and the blues of the marina and the Mediterranean Sea serving as their backdrop, guests may enjoy a menu with bold, intense flavors prepared in one of the three kitchens: the main kitchen, the sushi counter and the robata grill, a concept that stems from northern Japan's fisherman's cuisine. Expect Zuma's favorite signature dishes, such as black cod marinated in miso, tiger prawns with yuzu and grilled sea bass with chilli and ginger, all crafted with the highest-quality ingredients.

RESTAURANTS

ROTO | MEDITERRANEAN

A trip to Ibiza is not complete without visiting Roto, a leisure and dining space on a spectacular platform rising from one of the Marina Ibiza docks and hovering over the sea. Roto offers quality cuisine in an intelligent setting in a relaxed atmosphere. RESTAURANTS

BOTTEGA IL BUCO | ITALIAN

Bottega Il Buco is the latest extension of Donna Lennard's acclaimed NYC restaurants, Il Buco and Il Buco Alimentari & Vineria in NoHo, inspired by and created with her original Bond Street partner, Alberto Avalle of Umbria. Set in the heart of Santa Gertrudis, a rustic setting is teeming with delicious gourmet products. Bottega shares the Il Buco philosophy of sourcing the best ingredients both locally and in Avalle's native Italy. An ancient grain Sicilian focaccia is the staple of Bottega with a variety of toppings that change with the seasons. With a no-fire kitchen, the focus is on salumi, cheeses, and tinned fish from the Iberian Peninsula and Italy and beautiful fresh salads, ceviches and crudo of the local catch.

RESTAURANTS

BAMBUDDHA | MEDITERRASIAN FUSION

A slice of Southeast Asia in the Mediterranean, Bambuddha presents an utterly incredible concept. Styled as a temple, the restaurant explores the relationship between sensual and gustatory pleasure. LE BAR

A quaint little spot set amid the labyrinth-like streets and the hustle and bustle of Dalt Vila – Ibiza's 'old town' is welcomed to the island's cocktail scene. The interior space is intimate but boasts a lively ambiance. Cute, mismatched chairs and cushions complement wooden tables. Eclectic lamps hang jauntily from low-beamed ceilings. Outside, the tiny terrace is home to a couple of tables encompassed by little woven thrones straight from the pages of a fairytale. Diminutive in size but majestic in stature, Le Bar's cocktail menu is premium but punchy, featuring classics plus some innovative creations.

BAR 1805

Bar 1805, a French canteen that perfectly encapsulates the bohemian spirit of the white isle. It is a perfect combo of a French bistro and Absinthe bar that works. Since 2012 this unique French bistro has celebrated the creation of Absinthe as well as artists, writers and philosophers who were inspired by the fabled green liquid. The bar is named in honor of Henri-Louis Pernod, who launched the mysterious green liquid's first recognizable brand, Pernod Fils, in 1805. Relax with a cocktail in hand on the cushioned bathtub benches or kickback for dinner at one of the romantic tables on the outside terrace under the moonlight, with unbeatable views of the lit-up Town Cathedral of Dalt Vila.

LA ESQUINA

La Esquina is owned by the team behind the famous La Bodega, with a few tables scattered on the pathway outside that are fantastic for absorbing the lively atmosphere on busy, balmy nights. Inside, it's all authentic brushed brick, stainless steel and sparkling, low-hanging lamps setting a romantic scene once night falls.

LAYLAH IBIZA | Cocktail Bar

Laylah Ibiza is a stylish venue designed as a meeting place for bad-hats – where the good vibes start rolling long before club doors open. Situated just a short stroll from Pacha and Lío nightclubs, Laylah Ibiza is a rendezvous joint for kindred souls before hitting the dancefloor. Natural materials like dark wooden floors, sleek copper tables, sensuous lighting and an abundance of lush flora make up the interior and exterior of the place. The hypnotic music simply adds to its ambiance, thanks to the impressive roster of wanderlust DJs. A cocktail menu crafted by expert mixologists is served.

S'ESCALINATA EIVISSA

From complex cocktails, fresh juices, icy cold beer and sangria to the finest Italian-style coffee, S'Escalinata offers something to quench all thirsts. If you've worked up an appetite while sightseeing, the homemade focaccia menu is almost impossible to resist, as are the healthy salads and sharing plates – with all ingredients sourced locally.

PARADISE LOST

Paradise Lost is a tiny rum and cocktail bar named after Milton's epic poem Paradise Lost about temptation in the Garden of Eden. It offers a refuge from the world and a utopian place of perfectly mixed drinks, relaxed, friendly people, a proper eclectic Balearic playlist, an eccentric overgrown interior plus a comfortable and cozy cobbled terrace right in the heart of downtown.

PETIT VERMUT EIVISSA | Tapas Bar

Petit Vermouth is the first vermutería in Ibiza, where you can savor this famous drink accompanied by exquisite preserves and a great atmosphere. Distinct on the outside, thanks to rustic wooden doors and stools for perching over stacked, colorful crates, inside Petit Vermut is a more industrial affair, with fully stocked shelves of goodies and little tables flanked by steel chairs. The place is perfect for sipping a sweet or dry Vermouth (straight up, on the rocks or with a spritz of soda from the retro atomizer bottles on every table). Still, it is worth sampling a few of their traditional Catalan tapas. Try the anchovies with pickles or a selection of cockles and mussels for an authentic, flavorsome sensation.

PERSHING YACHT TERRACE

Pershing Yacht Terrace at 7 Pines Resort Ibiza is utterly unique, the world's first lounge and bar born from the exclusive partnership between 7 Pines and Pershing Yachts. Hanging on the cliff of Ibiza's west coast, the Pershing Yacht Terrace showcases a striking design inspired by the nautical world and reminiscent of a motor yacht. The iconic Pershing 9X Yacht inspired the shape of the main Ibiza bar. The use of teakwood floor and the bar shape emulate its sleek lines. Combined with unobstructed views of the sea and Es Vedrà pointing to the horizon is an invitation for a voyage at sea. It is the first high-end bar in the island's west that serves an extensive list of signature cocktails, a carefully curated selection of fine liquors, and an impressive wine list from the 7 Pines Resort Ibiza wine cellar.

NIGHT CLUBS

NIGHT CLUBS

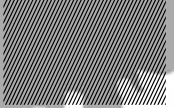

This Balearic Island resounds with hedonism and excitement. Once you've hit the town, there can be no doubting Ibiza's status as a world party capital. Each night presents a new adventure, the island's small coastal towns seemingly bursting at the seams with life and excitement. A dance music haven, there is no excuse to take the night off early while you're here. The lines between indulgence and permissibility feel consistently challenged on these windswept islands. Ibiza's exciting nightlife is permanently youthful, provocative, and glamorous.

SHOPPING

As a leader of the good life, it is only natural that Ibiza offers extensive retail options. Between the small family-owned boutiques in the serpentine streets of the old city to world-class international shopping centers, the island has it all. Handcrafted items, embroidery, and authentic decor pieces are abundant at the hippie market of Las-Dalias. For more extravagant and glamorous choices be sure to visit the exclusive boutiques at the Marina Botafoch shopping area. From beachwear to high fashion, Ibiza has all your shopping bases covered.

KIDS

Table of Contents

With all its premier nightclubs, bars, restaurants, it may be easy to forget Ibiza's most remarkable features are its natural assets. The island's pristine beaches, mountains, and woodlands offer children an environment of wonder and stimulation. With outdoor recreation options to spare, Ibiza's status as a child-friendly haven may be its most well-kept secret of all.

ADVENTURE PARK

There's no lack of happiness and excitement at Adventure Park. The park is designed with three different available levels: green, blue, and red so no matter how old children are they'll be able to partake in the journey!

LVH

IBIZA KARTING

Let the kids take control for a while and enjoy a day of adrenaline and speed on wheels! Karting is available for kids from four years of age. This is an activity mom and dad would enjoy, too.

SURFING LESSONS

Take advantage of kids' fearless instincts and give them a chance to try surfing. The feeling of succeeding in something is great to boost a child's confidence and what better place to try a new water activity, than Ibiza?

LANDMARKS

Ibiza's terrain has witnessed the rise and fall of humanity's most formidable civilizations. Small yet incredibly significant, the island has seen many empires come and go from the Byzantines, Moors, Norwegians, and most recently, the Catholic church. The island unveils some fascinating history at the following landmarks. Be humbled by the past that unravel beneath your feet.

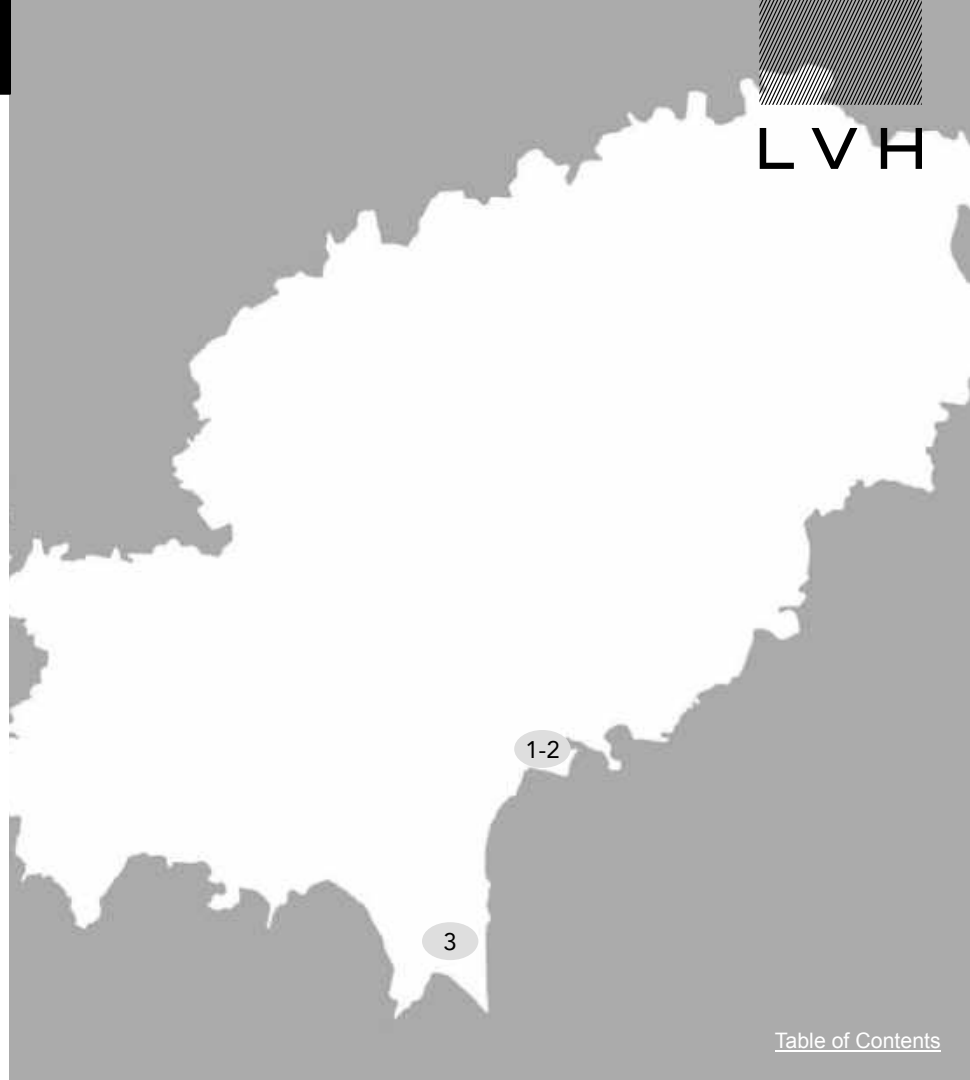

LANDMARKS

LVH

1. Dalt Villa
2. Ibiza Cathedral
3. Las Salinas Salt Flats

DALT VILLA

The highest and oldest part of Ibiza Town is guarded by strong renaissance fortifications built by Charles V in the 16th century. The walls were constructed to fend off the threat of attacks by Barbary pirates as well as invasions by sovereign forces like the French.

IBIZA CATHEDRAL

Inside the walls are steep alleys you'll have a lot of enjoyment exploring. These are packed with galleries, boutiques and local amenities like bakeries. Occasionally they'll open out onto charming old squares like Plaza de Sa Carrosa and Plaza de la Vila.

LAS SALINAS SALT FLATS

These salt flats are one of Ibiza's most famous landmarks. On the southernmost tip of the island, the salt fields have been in use for more than 2,000 years. As the water evaporates during the hot summer months, a sparkling layer of pure salt is left on the bottom of the lakes. It's one of the most beautiful spots for sunset photos. At the end of the salt fields you'll find the beautiful beach of Las Salinas.
