ABOUT

Lake Tahoe is the largest Alpine lake on the California–Nevada border. Formed about two million years ago as part of the Lake Tahoe Basin, it was shaped during the ice ages. The lake is known for its amazingly clear water and the panorama of surrounding mountains. The lake is usually referred to as Tahoe by the locals.

Lake Tahoe attracts visitors from the world over to witness its quiet beauty. Snow and ski resorts are a significant part of the area's economy and reputation, but don't discount the summer months which are ideal for hiking, biking, swimming and many more outdoor activities.

SKI RESORTS

SKI RESORTS

Lake Tahoe is home to some of the most famous ski resorts worldwide. Beautiful views, exciting slopes, and an average daily maximum winter temperature of 45° F (7.2°C) make Lake Tahoe a perfect destination for winter sports. Every Lake Tahoe ski area has its unique personality and attractions. The concentration of Lake Tahoe ski resorts in California and Nevada (a total of 15) may make it difficult to choose the best one for you. Nevertheless, more popular resorts we recommend include:

Lake Tahoe North

- Palisades Tahoe (formerly called Squaw Valley Alpine Meadows),
- Northstar
- Diamond Peak
- Homewood

Lake Tahoe South

- Heavenly
- Sierra-at-Tahoe – temporarily closed due to fires

They all offer sunny skies, excellent snow conditions and gorgeous scenery. Some resorts offer more family fun off the ski hills than others.

NORTHSTAR-AT-TAHOE

Northstar Ski Resort sits at the north side of Lake Tahoe, on an extinct volcano. A staple for ardent skiers, Northstar California offers unmatched park-style skiing, on-mountain champagne toasts, and a virtual mountain assistant called Emma, an AI assistant eager to answer your every mountain query. With more than 3,000 acres for 100 impeccably groomed runs accessed by 20 lifts, Northstar attracts many. There are quite a few beginners and intermediate-level runs here for ski newbies, making it a family-friendly ski resort. Northstar is also known for its snowboarding terrain parks, including The Straits for a variety of jumps and Pinball for boarders who like jibs. The tradition of après-ski at Northstar is one of pure freedom. They have dedicated the entire lower level of the village to moments created around the après scene.

DIAMOND PEAK

Located in Incline Village, Nevada, Diamond Peak has a little something for everyone, although the stunning views of Lake Tahoe alone are reason enough to visit this fantastic destination. The mountain is teeming with opportunities for beginners with its gentle slopes and wide runs, while experts can experience the challenging terrain of Solitude Canyon. There are 655 skiable acres accessed by six lifts, with 30 runs, including fantastic tree skiing and open glades. The summit is at an elevation of 8,540 feet and it has a vertical drop of 1,840 feet, the fourth-longest drop in the Lake Tahoe area.

HOMEWOOD

Homewood Ski Resort spans more than 1,260 acres on the west shore of Lake Tahoe and boasts beautiful views of the lake from every slope. Sixty breathtaking runs are immaculately groomed and protected from high-ridge winds by Ellis Peak, helping it to create some of earth's most delicate powder. Homewood is also home to two terrain parks for all levels of expertise, from beginners to future X Games competitors, and boasting stunning lake views.

TAHOE PALISADES

Palisades Tahoe (formerly called Squaw Valley Alpine Meadows) are two resorts combined into one, whose sprawling terrain amounts to a mind-boggling 245 ski runs on 6,000 acres of skiable terrain, pleasing to skiers and snowboarders of various skill levels. There are options for cross-country skiing or dog sledding for those who prefer to stay off the slopes. Tahoe Palisades brings an exciting challenge to any level of skier or snowboarder. From easy-riding progression parks to wide-open bowls, it has all. It's known for the longest snow season of any Lake Tahoe ski resort and for the powder that lingers for days. Tahoe Palisades is true to its roots of putting the skier and skiing first.

HEAVENLY

High above the sapphire-blue waters of Lake Tahoe, Heavenly Mountain Resort is in the class by itself. The resort features 34 miles of wide-open, groomed slopes, double-black-diamond canyons and the most outrageous tree skiing in North America. Straddling the border of California and Nevada, skiers can shred the gnar on a piste in Nevada and finish off in California. The views alone will take your breath away, add to that the immaculate skiing and snowboarding conditions on 4,800 acres of ski terrain, including 97 different trails accessed by 28 ski lifts and your perfect day just got better. Heavenly also offers diverse shopping opportunities, exciting nightlife, great entertainment in the Heavenly Village and nearby South Lake Tahoe's casinos and restaurants.

3. Emerald Bay State Park
4. Spooner Lake & Backcountry Nevada State Park

SUGAR PINE STATE PARK

Ed Z'berg Sugar Pine Point State Park is on the west shore of Lake Tahoe, along Highway 89, 10 miles south of Tahoe City. With two miles of unspoiled lakefront, the park is an example of what the lake was like so many years ago. A dense forest of juniper, pine, fir, and aspen blankets the park's 2,000 acres.

LVH

BLISS STATE PARK

This breathtakingly beautiful park on the western shore of Lake Tahoe is just 17 miles south of Tahoe City on Highway 89 and a few miles north of Emerald Bay and covers 1,830 acres. The park has a wonderful interpretive visitor center with wildlife displays, campgrounds, beaches and hiking trails.

EMERALD BAY STATE PARK

Inspiration Point overlooks the great sheltered cove of Emerald Bay, with its towering pine trees and water that gently laps the shore. Inspiration Point is a must spot to visit on any trip to the region. If you stand at 600 feet (180 meters) above the biggest alpine lake in North America you will definitely appreciate the peace provided by the incredible vista!

SPOONER LAKE & BACKCOUNTRY NEVADA STATE PARK

Nestled in the Lake Tahoe Basin, this state park is a widespread recreational and natural oasis with a lake surrounded by aspens and more than 12,000 acres of forested, and open space. The park features 50 miles of hiking, equestrian and mountain biking trails and primitive roads.

LAND

Table of Contents

Every destination has a unique geographical configuration. That's part of the allure of travel. Whether your vacation takes you to exotic mountainous terrains, or areas replete with sand dunes, the dynamics of the land can add a welcome depth to your vacation. Whiz along coastal highways, lush forests or through arid deserts. These routes will lead you to the landscapes distinctive to your vacation choice!

ROCK CLIMBING

Lake Tahoe has some of the best rock climbing in California. Between North Lake Tahoe's Donner Summit and South Lake Tahoe's Lovers Leap, there's plenty of classic rock climbs to choose from, all with Sierra granite.

GRANITE PEAK WALL CLIMBING

The climbing wall is an exhilarating man-made rock wall inspired by the iconic rock formations in the Sierra Nevada mountain range. The permanent wall utilizes auto-belays and is 25 feet tall with 15 defined climbing routes varying in difficulty, so all ability and experience levels are welcome!

MOUNTAIN BIKING

Lake Tahoe offers multiple places for mountain biking. Easy rides around the lake basin or extreme terrain for adventure seekers. Tahoe houses the world famous Flume Trail, enjoyed by all levels of mountain bikers.

BLUE STREAK ZIP LINE

Enjoy incredible views of Lake Tahoe as you glide through the sky on Heavenly's two parallel 3,300-foot-long zip lines. With top speeds of 50 m/ph, this is a great way to experience the most spectacular views in the area with a starting elevation of about 10,000 feet.

HORSEBACK RIDING

South Lake Tahoe offers some of the most serene horseback riding trails for a most unforgettable trip! No need to be put off if you don't have any equestrian experience. Trail horses are calm, gentle creatures and tour guides are helpful in providing the perfect horse-rider combination for first-timers.

ALL-TERRAIN VEHICLE (ATV) TOURS

Get up into the Sierra Nevada Mountain Range to experience Lake Tahoe off roading. You will have a choice of two amazing locations for a two-hour ATV/Razor ride: the Rubicon Trail in California and the Pine Nut Mountains in Nevada. High elevation lakes, wilderness and picturesque scenery will greet you along the rugged mountainside trails on either destination. Why not do both?

FISHING

A very popular sport among visitors and locals is fishing on the clear emerald water. The best fishing is in deep water from a boat, but fishing is also possible from the shore. No matter which option you choose you will be able to drop your line and dream of nabbing the big one.

WINE COUNTRY TOUR FROM SOUTH LAKE TAHOE

Visit the wineries near Lake Tahoe on this day trip to the El Dorado AVA (American Viticultural Area), a wine appellation outside the town of Placerville in the Sierra foothills.

ZEPHYR COVE TENNIS CLUB

Zephyr Cove Tennis Club is one of Lake Tahoe's premier tennis clubs open to the public. It offers six lightened hard courts, a pro shop, clinics, private lessons, a ball machine and more.

EDGEWOOD TAHOE GOLF COURSE

Rated as one of the top public golf courses, Edgewood has welcomed some of the biggest names in the game and will fulfill all your expectations. Every part of the golf course has one-of-a-kind challenges, natural marvels, and memorable experiences.

OLD BROCKWAY GOLF COURSE

Old Brockway Golf Course is a scenic nine-hole course offering spectacular mountain vistas and panoramic views of Lake Tahoe. The charming landscape is sprinkled with towering Jeffrey pines, meadows, and streams.

LAKEFRONT STAR GAZING TOURS

See planets, galaxies, star clusters, and more through the lens of a powerful telescope! Enjoy a completely different world from ours and learn more about the constellations. Keep your warm drink close while sitting and appreciating the view.

HIKING

Lake Tahoe is a heaven for hikers and nature lovers, with so many trails, amazing viewpoints, secluded parks, beaches, and much more! Fresh air and the smell of untouched nature will fill you with a renewed energy you can get by spending a calm day in nature.

RUBICON TRAIL

The Rubicon Trail is a 22-mile-long route, part road and part 4x4 trail in Sierra Nevada due west of Lake Tahoe. Running alongside and above the shore of Lake Tahoe from D.L. Bliss to Eagle Point on Emerald Bay, the Rubicon Trail offers spectacular views of the cobalt blue lake; the distant mountains; and shallow, aquamarine-colored bays.

- Length: 22 miles

EAGLE LAKE & FALLS TRAIL

The Eagle Lake Trail, beginning at spectacular Eagle Falls, has several options for trail length. A good choice is the scenic trail to Eagle Lake. This is one of the most popular hikes on the southwest shore of Lake Tahoe and frequently busy, but it's definitely worth doing.

- Length: 5.5 miles

FALLEN LEAF LAKE TRAIL

This short hike leads to a scenic inland lake with a pleasant shoreline and views of the surrounding mountains. The trail to the lake is just a simple walk, but you can extend the hike and follow the path along the shoreline to the right.

- Length: 7.7 miles

CASCADE FALLS TRAIL

The short hike to Cascade Falls is the perfect trail for many reasons. The mountainside path is scenic the entire way, the falls are stunning, and the view over Cascade Lake is incomparable. This is just a two-mile round-trip hike with very little elevation gain, so it's not overwhelming for most children and families.

- Length: 2 miles

It may be cold outside, but winter can be a real heart warmer for special times. Many travelers just wait for the snow to fly and temperatures to plummet to get to those places where they can enjoy their favorite winter activities like skiing, heli-skiing, snowboarding, skating, tobogganing, or snowmobiling. Depending on Lake Tahoe's resort, you can find a variety of other exhilarating activities, including a Mountain Coaster, scenic gondola rides, loads of opportunities for tubing, extreme adventures like avalanche training or winter survival and much more. We'd be remiss if we didn't mention cuddling up under a blanket in a sleigh being pulled by beautiful horses or husky dogs while the moon lights the way. Imagine sitting in front of a roaring fire with a mug of hot cocoa embellished by coffee liqueur and whipped cream.
