

A wide-angle photograph of the London skyline across the River Thames. The London Eye is the central focus, its circular structure and spokes clearly visible. To its left, modern skyscrapers like the Gherkin and the Shard are partially visible. To its right, older stone buildings with red roofs line the riverbank. The entire scene is reflected in the calm water of the river. The sky is a pale blue with soft, wispy clouds. Overlaid on the image is the text 'LVH' at the top, 'EXPERIENCE LONDON' in the center, and 'UNITED KINGDOM, EUROPE' at the bottom. On the right edge, there is a vertical column of rectangular boxes, some of which are filled with a light blue color, and a large white 'L' shape at the bottom right.

ABOUT

London is one of the world's most mesmerizing cities. Immersed in history, London's rich heritage and antiquity are everywhere. The city's buildings serve as powerful, imposing, and unyielding milestones in London's life story – the Tower of London, Westminster Abbey, Big Ben and The Palace of Westminster, and St. Paul's Cathedral are instantly recognizable landmarks. There are plenty of modern architectural marvels like the Shard or the City's 30 St. Mary, known as the Gherkin, the Tate Modern extension, and the Sky Garden. Contemporary architecture never drowns out London's seasoned, centuries-old narrative, far from it. Its architectural grandeur rises up all around the West End. Ancient laneways are peppered with historic monuments. Classical remains dot the City; and charming pubs and high-end shops punctuate the historic quarters, while leafy suburbs and river banks encapsulate the picture-postcard city.

This city is deeply multicultural, representing 270 nationalities and 300 languages. By that alone, London remains one of the world's most cosmopolitan cities, and diversity infuses daily life, food, music, and fashion. These all culminate into impressive tourist attractions and captivating things to do. Britain's bustling capital offers something for everyone, including shopaholics, foodies, adventurers, historians, and kids. Should you hit one of the top museums, enjoy a picnic in one of the expansive parks, watch a show in London's West End, Shakespeare's Globe, or Covent Garden, tour a royal palace, wander around a breathtaking garden, ride a horse through a grove, take a flight on the London Eye, or enjoy a traditional Afternoon Tea. In the end, you are left feeling fulfilled.

AREAS

London is broken up into 33 boroughs. This makes up what is known as Greater London. Within those 33 boroughs, there are roughly 48 neighborhoods as some straddle between two boroughs. Each neighborhood truly has its own personality which is what makes London so unique. Rather than thinking in terms of boroughs and neighborhoods, London can be seen in terms of East, West, North, South, and Central.

EAST LONDON

Known for its buzzing art scene, trendy hangouts, and an overall up-and-coming vibe East London is home to some of the coolest neighborhoods in the city. There are always things on in the area from bustling street markets to chic cocktail hours. The first thing that comes to Londoners' and tourists' minds alike when you say East London is – Shoreditch. The area is filled with independent shops, thrift stores, pop-ups, and of course, the infamous Brick Lane. You'll usually find young professionals here paving their way in the creative industry.

WEST LONDON

On the opposite end of the spectrum from East London is West London. West London is nearly five times wealthier than anywhere else in the UK. Known for its beautiful houses, West London is the chic area of the capital, and there's always something to do here. From popping into the Natural History Museum to taking a stroll around London Mews. Here are the best neighborhoods in the area:

- Kensington
- South Kensington
- Notting Hill
- Chelsea
- Knightsbridge
- Belgravia
- Marylebone
- Mayfaire
- Westminster
- St James's
- Soho

RESTAURANT GORDON RAMSAY 🌟🌟🌟 | FRENCH CHELSEA

Restaurant Gordon Ramsay is the flagship of the Gordon Ramsay Group. Established by Gordon Ramsay in 1998, the restaurant has held three Michelin stars since 2001. It is a must for the culinary connoisseur, Restaurant Gordon Ramsay offers exquisitely simply French cuisine, infusing the senses with subtle flavors. Join the well-heeled Chelsea set at the celebrity chef's flagship outpost. It's one of the rare places in London to boast three Michelin stars. The elegant interior, impeccable service, and delicious French menu more than live up to the famous chef's reputation. The cuisine is modern French, using the very finest seasonal ingredients and employing both classic and modern techniques.

PÉTRUS BY GORDON RAMSAY 🍷 | FRENCH KNIGHTSBRIDGE

Named after the famous Pomerol wine estate in Bordeaux, which produces superlative wine from 100% Merlot vines, Michelin-starred restaurant Pétrus by Gordon Ramsay represents fine dining at its best. At the heart of the elegant room is its striking glass-walled wine store, which features over 700 bins, including Château Pétrus going back to 1948, while red walls and roses further emphasize the theme. Cooking has a classic French heart, with the Ramsay hallmarks of modernity and unfussy execution. The sauces deliver great depth, textural contrasts play an important part, and dishes exhibit consummate balance and seasoning. Opt for the 'Prestige' menu of 6 signature dishes to fully experience the kitchen's talents.

ALAIN DUCASSE AT THE DORCHESTER 🌟🌟🌟 | MODERN FRENCH MAYFAIR

At the Alain Ducasse's elegant London outpost, the charming and professional team patently understands that making the diner feel at ease is of utmost importance. The menu includes many of the much-loved signatures, however, there are also plenty of new dishes to keep things fresh. A nice touch is that diners can, should they wish, pick several dishes off the tasting menu in order to effectively create their own à la carte. The kitchen sources the very best of British produce and dishes are well-balanced and visually striking with bold, generous flavors that live long in the memory. Sauces are a highlight, there are some amazing wine pairings – and it's hard to resist the signature, Rum Baba.

MICHELIN-STARRED RESTAURANTS

GYMKHANA 🌸 | INDIAN MAYFAIR

Set in the heart of Mayfair yet inspired by the clubs of Colonial India, this special restaurant is set over two floors: the ground floor with its individual booths is perfect for lunch – or head downstairs via a mirrored staircase for dinner in the intimate basement with its vivid chili-red color scheme, wood paneling, hunting trophies – and even Grandmother Sethi's old barometer. Northern Indian-influenced menus offer a wide choice, and from the beautifully spiced kebabs and tikkas to the feather-light biryani with its flaky golden pastry dome, you'll find a delicious contrast of textures and flavors combined with a sophisticated edge. Don't overlook the side dishes which are a highlight. Service is knowledgeable, professional, and attentive.

HÉLÈNE DARROZE AT THE CONNAUGHT 🌸🌸🌸 | HAUTE FRENCH MAYFAIR

The newly renovated Hélène Darroze at The Connaught is more feminine and less formal, considerably warmer, and more relaxing. That being said, there's still a well-drilled service team on hand to ensure everyone is looked after. When it comes to the cooking – created under the watchful eye of Hélène's head chef – the focus remains steadfastly on the main ingredient; always of extraordinary quality, be it lobster from Cornwall or grouse from Wales. The signature Baba dessert with a choice of Armagnacs aged by her brother Marc, is a must.

HAKKASAN 🍷 | CANTONESE MAYFAIR

Founded in 2001, Hakkasan celebrates Chinese cuisine through traditional techniques, the finest ingredients, and contemporary flair. Each kitchen, in Mayfair and Hanway Place, is led by a talented chef whose passion lies in creating uniquely rooted yet modern dishes. Sample Chef Tong Chee Hwee's contemporary take on Cantonese cuisine at elegantly designed Hakkasan restaurant, a celebrity haunt in Mayfair. The dim sum are particularly scrumptious. Other highlights include the roasted silver cod with champagne and honey and the black truffle roasted duck.

SKETCH (THE LECTURE ROOM & LIBRARY) 🌟🌟🌟 | MODERN EUROPEAN MAYFAIR

There are few more joyously colorful and lavishly decorated restaurants than The Lecture Room & Library. The building is steeped in history, serving as the headquarters of the Royal Institute of British Architects and the London atelier of Christian Dior. As you're whisked past the braided rope and up the stairs to the first floor of Mourad Mazouz and Pierre Gagnaire's dining Imaginarium you'll feel your expectations rise with every step – and once seated in your eminently comfortable armchair, those hopes will be met by an unfailingly attentive team. The restaurant is not afraid to eschew modern minimalism in favor of extravagant furnishing with an unabashed joie de vivre. The highly organized kitchen does an extraordinary job in executing original dishes bearing all the Pierre Gagnaire hallmarks: the main 'plate' comes surrounded by a number of complementary dishes and before long, your table is covered with an assortment of vessels, with each element excelling in terms of structure, composition, elegance and, above all, flavor. Completing the experience is a sommelier with outstanding knowledge in old and new wine regions.

TRISHNA 🍛 | INDIAN MAYFAIR

Set in the heart of London's Marylebone Village, Trishna delivers a contemporary taste of Indian coastal cuisine and an extensive wine list that focuses on emerging regions and fine wines from niche producers and boutique wineries from all over the world. The informal and pared-back aesthetic of the interiors, offset with antique mirrors, marble table tops, and original wooden paneling offer a sociable neighborhood dining atmosphere, with terrace doors that open onto Blandford Street, creating a semi-alfresco ambiance throughout the restaurant. The coast of southwest India provides the kitchen with most of its influences and the menu is full of vibrant, exciting dishes, including original creations from the tandoor, mouth-watering curries, and satisfying biryani. However, the undoubted star of the show is a version of the dish made famous by the original Trishna in Mumbai: brown crab, in this case from Dorset, with lots of butter and a kick of red chili; it is so wondrously rich that the taste stays with you for days. The various tasting menus often provide the most rounded experience.

UMU 🍱🍱🍱 | JAPANESE MAYFAIR

Umu is authentic Kyoto-style kaiseki in the heart of Mayfair. From its discreet entrance to its elegantly dressed room, Umu has always been a restaurant for that special occasion. The restaurant is influenced by the traditions and delicate cuisine of Kyoto, where the philosophy of kaiseki (a traditional multi-course Japanese dinner) is preserved and celebrated. The Japanese 'umu' translates roughly as 'of nature,' and the elegant dishes on offer here have been crafted by Yoshinori Ishii to showcase the true nature of the carefully selected ingredients he uses. The ingredients are of irreproachable quality and their natural flavors are always brought to the fore. Look out for the lightly grilled tuna back and belly with three sauces or wild Cornish lobster with homemade shichimi pepper tofu miso bisque on the à la carte menu. Some dishes are simple; others are presented with a flourish at the table – but all are prepared with considerable care and respect.

THE DINING ROOM AT THE GORING ❀❀❀ | TRADITIONAL BRITISH MAYFAIR

In the luxurious setting of a five-star London hotel, The Dining Room is beautifully elegant – a place where traditional and delicious British food triumphs. The holder of a Michelin star and three AA Rosettes, The Dining Room offers an impeccable yet fun dining experience. Savor Michelin star British cuisine with three-course lunch at the Royal Family's restaurant of choice, The Goring Dining Room set in a magnificent Edwardian hotel, The Goring. The Goring is a model of British style and imperial opulence and its ground-floor dining room is the epitome of grace and decorum. It appeals to those who adhere to tradition and bon ton. The food is as exquisite as the well-adorned setting. Think Rhug Estate lamb or Cornish wild halibut slow-cooked with nasturtiums. All the dishes are displays of impressive understanding of the balance between flavor, and texture.

RESTAURANT STORY 🍷 | MODERN BRITISH MAYFAIR

The setting – on an island in the middle of two roads – may be slightly unusual but that’s all part of the experience and, once seated, you’ll enjoy being ensconced in your own little bubble watching the world go by. Tom Sellers tells his story and the story of British food through an ever-evolving tasting menu of seasonal dishes, visually impressive, they are crafted with care and precision; ingredients are at the luxurious end of the scale and modern techniques bring out the best in every item. Imaginative, playful touches come through in dishes such as the ‘Paddington Bear’ pre-dessert of pain perdu and citrus marmalade. The menu is tailored so that returning guests receive a different experience from first-timers. The restaurant gained its first Michelin star five months from opening in 2013 and its second Michelin star in 2021.

LA DAME DE PIC LONDON 🌸🌸 | FRENCH MAYFAIR

Anne-Sophie Pic's London outpost is a charmingly run restaurant in the impressive Beaux-Arts style Four Seasons Hotel. It is an airy, high-ceilinged room with lots of white, plenty of light, and some attractive modern art. Cooking is rooted in classic French techniques yet delivered in a light, modern manner and dishes are elegant, refined, and original, with tremendous attention given to finer details. The kitchen sources excellent quality produce and the delicate combinations of these ingredients are exciting and intuitive, with no superfluous elements on the plate. The well-structured wine list highlights wines from the Rhône Valley – home of Maison Pic restaurant, the Valence institution, owned by the Pic family.

CHILTERN FIREHOUSE | WORLD CUISINE

MARYLEBONE

The restaurant's part of a five-star hotel in Marylebone's grade II listed Victorian fire station. When it opened in 2014, it was outrageously exclusive and nobody without an Oscar could get in. A few years on, it's (marginally) easier to get a table. The sprawling dining room is a stylish marriage of upmarket brasserie (studded leather banquettes, antique pendant lighting, Bentwood bar stools) and Victorian fire station, with the original glazed wall tiles, fire doors, and firemen's poles left intact. Chiltern Firehouse celebrates contemporary, ingredient-focused cooking, with an underlying American accent. Executive Chef Richard Foster in collaboration with renowned Chef Patron Nuno Mendes has created a fresh menu of reimagined classics and bold new flavors, focusing on North and South American dishes, placing the emphasis on seasonality and healthy eating. The atmosphere remains glamorous and contagiously exuberant and it's all run with understated efficiency. Outside, you'll also find a secluded dining terrace, with monochrome striped awnings, plush seating, and an outdoor fireplace crackling with heat in the colder months.

HARRY'S BAR | ITALIAN

MARYLEBONE

Tucked within easy reach of Oxford Street, Harry's Bar brings a slice of the "dolce vita" to London's Marylebone. Whether you're looking for dinner, lunch, or weekend brunch, you'll find unfussy, timeless Italian favorites served in elegant surroundings evocative of Italy's glamorous 1950s heyday. As well as the main dining room, with luxurious banquettes and bright, colorful artwork, there's a stunning, wood-paneled bar serving exceptional Italian wines and classic cocktails with Harry's twist – just look at the Infinite Negroni and Harry's Limoncello Spritz. Should you prefer to do your dining al fresco, you are all set. The beautiful outdoor terrace is the perfect place to soak up the vibrant atmosphere of St. Christopher's Place at your leisure during the warmer months. Either way, you'll find the best in traditional Italian cooking and a traditional Italian welcome to match at our restaurant in Marylebone.

LE RELAIS DE VENISE L'ENTRECÔTE | FRENCH MARYLEBONE

Situated some steps away from Marylebone Lane, making a reservation for lunch or dinner at Le Relais De Venise will allow you to enjoy this elegant residential yet lively area of London. The atmosphere here is the same as in the Paris restaurant, with the same decor and obviously the same menu: a crunchy walnut salad followed by a good quality grilled beef steak and golden French fries accompanied by the signature famous sauce. Delight on their menu is gourmet desserts – the restaurant's renowned profiteroles, tulipe au chocolat, or fruit tarts.

ROYAL CHINA CLUB | CANTONESE MARYLEBONE

This luxurious Marylebone flagship of the smart Royal China group, despite doubling in size, still feels intimate. Instead of one large dining room, the restaurant is split into two, while five new private dining rooms benefit from natural light. The new look is slick without being intimidatingly stylish: gold leaf on the ceiling, red lacquer on the wall, and enough black leather seating. The Royal China Club is known for the “exceptional standard” of its dim sum during the day and its Cantonese classics, including seafood, in the evening. The fare is classic, but with premium ingredients: fresh abalone tossed with caviar, pan-fried scallops with foie gras, or a grilled Wagyu fillet in teriyaki sauce.

34 MAYFAIR | EUROPEAN MAYFAIR

Tucked behind Grosvenor Square sits the fanciful 34 Mayfair where the lavish menu is as lovely as the art-deco-inspired interiors. Considered the hidden gem of Mayfair with its elegant terrace, the restaurant has been delighting diners since 2011. Upon entering you can get easily seduced by the soft lighting, Upper East Side-style elegance, and unflustered calm; yet there is also a whiff of nonconformism about this restaurant. Whether it's the mischievous etchings by Tracey Emin in the eponymous private room upstairs – The Emin Room; or the eclectic collection of paintings from the next strain of young British artists adorning the walls, it's difficult to pinpoint. Open all day, the restaurant offers lovingly prepared dishes for lunch, dinner, and weekend brunch, ensuring there is a menu with variety to suit all tastes and occasions.

BAGATELLE | MODERN FRENCH MAYFAIR

Bagatelle London, situated on fashionable Dover Street in the heart of Mayfair, is part of an international group of restaurants that first opened in New York's Meatpacking District in 2008; now it has many outposts across the globe in places like Los Angeles, St. Tropez, Punta del Este, St Barthélemy and Dubai. Well known for attracting celebrities, the London venue is spread over two floors with an upstairs fine dining restaurant and a downstairs lounge and bar. Interiors are much as you'd expect from a restaurant group with such a luxurious heritage. Plush blue velvet booths line the room, intricate chandeliers hang from the ceiling and Damien Hirst artworks scale the walls. Classically trained French chef Dale Osborne leads the kitchen. The very finest seasonal produce is sourced from trusted suppliers for a menu that showcases dishes like yellowfin tuna tartare with brunoise-cut avocado or T-bone steak cooked over an open charcoal grill. Diners can also opt for sharing dishes – a signature poulet entier roti à la truffe or seafood platters. The impressive wine list covers a lot of ground and the cocktail list ensures meeting cocktail connoisseurs' taste.

JEAN-GEORGES AT THE CONNAUGHT | MODERN CUISINE MAYFAIR

The Jean-Georges at The Connaught is infused with style, energy, and charm. Overlooking fashionable Mount Street in the heart of Mayfair, the restaurant offers all-hours, informal gourmet dining in a relaxed, contemporary neighborhood setting. The eclectic, imaginative menus are inspired both by Jean-Georges Vongerichten's experiences of the Far East and his signature use of Southeast Asian flavors, whilst also featuring his distinctive take on British and Connaught classics, from fish and chips to traditional afternoon tea, influenced by his earlier working life and love of London. Sourcing the best of British ingredients, the menus will also reflect the simple farm-to-table, a fresh-from-the-market approach long pioneered by Jean-Georges, and found at his restaurant at The Mark and ABC Kitchen in New York.

LE PETITE MAISON | FRENCH/NÎÇOISE MAYFAIR

Le Petite Maison is an elegant Mayfair favorite that has become a worldwide brand. The food all comes courtesy of Chef Patron Raphael Duntoye, who has created a menu of Southern-French Niçoise-style dishes, lavished with olive oil rather than butter, and emphasizing fresh Mediterranean vegetables and fish, rather than heavy stews and soups. Thus, you can expect the likes of a deeply moreish plate of warm prawns in olive oil and lemon; some tender yellowtail carpaccio with a touch of avocado; and some sweet peppers that seem to melt on the tongue. The classic glamour of the Côte d'Azur is captured in the contrast between snowy linen and splashes of Mediterranean color, including large bottles of olive oil and fresh produce scattered artistically around the tables.

NOBU | JAPANESE-PERUVIAN FUSION

MAYFAIR

Nobu is Chef Nobu Matsuhisa's original London restaurant since 1997. The menu draws heavily on Matsuhisa's classic Japanese training as a sushi chef in Tokyo, as well as on South American influences gained during his extensive travels. The resulting "new style" of Japanese cuisine has become both his trademark and the foundation of his success. With its own street entrance on Old Park Lane, the 150-cover restaurant includes a separate sushi bar and enjoys commanding views across Hyde Park through full-height windows. Designed with simple elegance by United Designers, the interiors make subtle use of light woods and natural stone to reflect the diverse influences of Nobu's cuisine, incorporating the purity and quality materials inherent in traditional Japanese design.

THE CHURCHILL ARMS | PUB

Dripping in flowers and crammed with Churchill memorabilia, The Churchill Arms is one of London's most recognizable and famous watering holes. It's hard to believe that a pub this well-kept was first built way back in 1750 – but it's true, the pub was frequented by Churchill's grandparents. The Churchill Arms is one of London's prettiest historic pubs. Nowadays, it's known for serving real ales and authentic Thai cuisine. The outside is decorated with over 100 flower pots, 48 window boxes, and 42 hanging baskets. The Churchill Arms' stunning floral displays have earned them a Chelsea Flower Show win. They're one of the only pubs to ever claim that prestigious title. Inside, it's just as eccentric – nearly every available surface is cluttered with baskets, pictures, and beer mats – there are even life-size cutouts of the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge suspended from the ceiling.

CAHOOTS | COCKTAIL BAR

Welcome to Cahoots, where spirits are high and drinks never run dry – a playground for London’s scoundrels! Cahoots is a 1940s-themed bar in the heart of London’s Soho. Set inside an abandoned train station, the scoundrels of this station speakeasy serve up spiffing cocktails, jolly-good rations, and live swinging entertainment seven days a week. Made up of three spaces: The Underground, Ticket Hall & Control Room, step back in time and enjoy each quirky space as you indulge in High Spirits, Scoundrels & Swing!

45 BAR | COCKTAIL BAR

Bar 45 is in The Dorchester Collection's new hotel in Mayfair, 45 Park Lane. The bar features a long, black granite bar with an autumnal amber and red color scheme throughout. The dynamic atmosphere of the eponymous BAR 45 makes this the ideal Central London venue for cocktail sipping and people-watching. The cocktail menu at Bar 45 includes specialty infused vodka and gin creations, a warm-hearted recommendation is Pepito's Revenge, made from tequila and lime with an overriding basil flavor, and the Umami Cocktail, although impossible to accurately describe, is certainly worth a try.

BULGARI LOUNGE | LOUNGE

Offering the comfortable glamour and considered taste of a beautifully appointed modern Italian living room, the design of The Bulgari Lounge pays homage to Bulgari's heritage as the master of colored gems. Alongside Executive Chef Adriano Cavagnini's delicious Salato menu of Italian favorites and hotel lounge classics, The Bulgari Lounge presents a residency with eminent pastry chef and chocolatier Gianluca Fusto, the Italian architect of modern pastry. Covering everything sweet on the menu, 'Dolci' include cakes – Torte, and Il Cioccolato, Bulgari's signature handcrafted chocolate gems. All Torte, Mono Porzioni and Il Cioccolato are available to enjoy in The Bulgari Lounge or to take away. The patisserie serves indulgent Italian mignons and delicious healthy dishes as well.

CONNAUGHT BAR | COCKTAIL BAR

Drop by the Connaught Bar in Mayfair and step into another world. Conversation flows over sparkling glasses and candle lit tables. Behind the bar, mixologists conjure up new concoctions and time-honored classic cocktails. Before you savor that first sip, take in the surroundings. Textured walls in platinum silver leaf and a cool grey bar set a stylish tone. Designed by David Collins Studio, the bar evokes English and Irish Cubist art of the 1920s, with a touch of timeless elegance. From day to night, the Connaught Bar is infused with a relaxed, inviting energy. To accompany your drinks, choose from light menus of bar snacks and evening canapés.

NIGHTJAR | COCKTAIL BAR

Nightjar's reputation for breathing new life into forgotten cocktails and bringing a fresh perspective to classic recipes and presentations is world-renowned. Alongside the cocktail menu is an extensive spirit list, including vintage spirits. The owners of this bar are a quartet of Frenchman who kickstarted the cocktail revolution in Paris a decade ago. Come here for cocktails, whether Gallic-tinged riffs on classics (where a recipe might conventionally use soda, the French will swap out crisp champagne) or the chance to try some premium vintage drinks. They also have delicious contemporary tapas and a nightly schedule of the very best vintage jazz, blues, ragtime, and swing that London has to offer.

PUNCH ROOM | COCKTAIL BAR

Sat within The London Edition hotel in the heart of Fitzrovia, this smart reservation-only joint is one of the coziest cocktail dens in London. Walk straight through the vaulted marble lobby towards the neon sculpture, take the wood-paneled door and pick a set in one of the squishy armchairs by the roaring fire. It has the feel of an old English parlor, with a mid-century makeover. There's no better way to cap off your evening in Fitzrovia than with a craft cocktail at the Punch Room. Designed to be an intimate space away from the Soho crowds, the bar boasts 30 specialty punches – including the signature gin-infused EDITION house punch. A curated soundtrack of soul, blues, ragtime, and doo-wop is complemented by impromptu live performances.

AMERICAN BAR | COCKTAIL BAR

The American Bar is the longest surviving cocktail bar in London and one of the most renowned in the world. Serving classics with a twist, new and vintage creations – the American Bar is an icon in cocktail history and has played host to legendary bartenders – historic figures such as Harry Craddock, author of The Savoy Cocktail Book. The American Bar first opened in 1893 and has since served countless well-known faces, from Winston Churchill to Ernest Hemingway. It remains at the forefront of the industry, winning World's Best Bar at Tales of the Cocktail Spirited Awards 2018 and the World's 50 Best Bars 2017.

THE ADAM & EVE | PUB

The Adam & Eve is a bustling Central London hub, between Oxford Circus and Tottenham Court Road train and tube station. It is a historic pub sitting at the edge of greenbelt land in North-West London. It has made a name for itself by serving seasonal, locally sourced modern British food with a traditional pub welcome. Situated over two floors with a charming Victorian walled garden to the rear, it is the perfect pit stop for a bite to eat or a refreshing pint of beer, serving a menu of Great British pub classics, seasonal small plates, and sharers, not forgetting the best thirst-quenching cocktails in Soho.

HOVARDA

Hovarda ('vagabond' in Turkish) is an enchanting spot, its glamorous dining room decked out in aquatic blue and gold tones, its waiters dressed in crisp white shirts. A new Aegean-inspired bar and restaurant that serves cocktails and wines alongside a line-up of live music and international DJs. Head to the place for laid-back vibes alongside a drinks menu of re-invented classics and well-known cocktails created by award-winning mixologist Cihan Anadolglu. Martini fans, shouldn't miss the many varieties of martinis inspired by Greece, Turkey, France, and Italy such as 'The Greek' – made with lemongrass infused Mastiha, grapefruit, and olive brine while 'The Turkish' includes chili-infused Raki, ginger, lime juice, and Turkish honey. On top of the spirits, the wine cellar boasts an expansive range of wines including a list made from Greek grape varietals, and a selection of European vintages.

THE ROYAL OPERA HOUSE

The Royal Opera House is an important performing arts venue in Covent Garden. It is home to The Royal Opera, The Royal Ballet and the orchestra of the Royal Opera House. The large building is often referred to as simply Covent Garden, after a previous use of the site. The first theater on the site, the Theatre Royal (1732), served primarily as a playhouse for the first hundred years of its history. In 1734, the first ballet was presented. A year later, the first season of operas, by George Frideric Handel, began. Many of his operas and oratorios were specifically written for Covent Garden and had their premieres there. You can enjoy a wide range of world-class shows, or take a backstage tour of this historic London theatre.

HAROLD PINTER THEATRE

The Harold Pinter Theatre opened in 1881 as the Royal Comedy Theatre and staged hugely successful shows, such as The Rocky Horror Show's West End debut. The name changed in 2011 to The Harold Pinter Theatre in honour of Pinter's work for the Comedy Theatre. The theatre recently produced Pinter at the Pinter, a series of one-act plays in celebration of Pinter himself. Located in Westminster, the Harold Pinter Theatre is famous for its immense history, luxury horseshoe-shaped balconies and of course, for its intimate shows. The theatre is extremely rich with history and is better known as the comedy theatre, which the venue was called for more than 100 years.

LONDON COLISEUM

The London Coliseum is a theatre in St Martin's Lane, Westminster, built as one of London's largest and most luxurious family variety theatres. Opened on 24 December 1904 as the London Coliseum Theatre of Varieties, it was designed by the theatrical architect Frank Matcham for the impresario Oswald Stoll. It is the home of the English National Opera, the London Coliseum is a beautiful theatre in the West End. It is one of the largest theatres in London and, in addition to the ENO, regularly hosts musicals and visiting companies, including the English National Ballet.

THEATERS

THE NATIONAL THEATRE

As the largest publicly funded theatre in London, the National Theatre is the granddaddy of the capital's scene. It shows 25 major productions a year, with numerous smaller performances and festivals at regular intervals. The Olivier Theatre – its main stage – is a beautiful hall modeled on the ancient Greek theatre of Epidaurus.

THEATERS

THE OLD VIC

The Old Vic is London's independent not-for-profit theatre, a world leader in creativity and entertainment. This not-for-profit theatre based in Waterloo is one of London's most iconic. ## LONDON EYE – FERRIS WHEEL

The London Eye is a large metal Ferris wheel. It is also known as the Millennium Wheel and is one of the largest observation wheels in the world. Since mid-January 2015 it has been known in branding as the Coca-Cola London Eye, after an agreement signed in September 2014. The London Eye is the world's tallest cantilevered observation wheel with a height of 443 feet tall. It has 32 capsules that represent 32 London boroughs. It can carry 800 people in one single rotation.

HOUSE OF MINALIMA

House of MinaLima is a gallery and store situated in the heart of Soho – it showcases the graphic art of the Harry Potter and Fantastic Beasts films as well as other works, all exclusively designed by MinaLima. Graphic designers Miraphora Mina & Eduardo Lima accepted a once in a lifetime job in 2002: helping to design the world of Harry Potter for the now-iconic film franchise. The duo worked on the style and graphics of all the Potter films, as well as the ongoing Fantastic Beasts series.

TOWER OF LONDON

The Tower of London is one of the most iconic sites in the capital and an absolute must-see for anyone planning a visit to London. The Tower of London with kids is especially entertaining. Although it represents more horrid and gruesome parts of history as it's packed with stories of torture, imprisonments, hauntings and murder, you'll find everything from suits of armour to some of the most famous jewels in the world – the crown jewels. You will also here stories of the six ravens recounted to you by the Tower's watchful Beefeaters and even get to meet them.

ROYAL MUSEUMS GREENWICH

There is a plethora of engaging things to do with kids at Royal Museums Greenwich. From amazing planetarium shows to pirate adventures on board Cutty Sark, there's so much for families to discover. Tour the universe at London's only planetarium and experience the wonders of the night sky with expert commentary from real astronomers. Daily shows in the Peter Harrison Planetarium are suitable for all ages. From Ted's Space Adventure for toddlers, to Moons Beyond Counting for slightly older astronauts, these shows will teach even the biggest sci-fi fan a thing or two about space.

THE WIZARDING WORLD – HARRY POTTER STUDIO

Immerse yourself in the spellbinding world of Harry Potter on this trip to the Warner Bros. Studio Tour London. Travel to the fabled Harry Potter studios by air-conditioned coach from central London, and on arrival, trace the footsteps of Hogwarts' student wizards at leisure. Discover the iconic Hogwarts Great Hall and explore the Forbidden Forest, all before boarding the original Hogwarts Express at Platform 9-3/4 and wandering down Diagon Alley. Located at the Studios where all eight films were produced, the Studio Tour showcases the British talent, imagination and artistry that went into making the impossible a reality on screen
