ABOUT

Nesting at the foot of La Concha Mountain and nuzzled by the Mediterranean Sea, Marbella stretches 16.7 miles along the Spanish coast. Marbella embodies culture, leisure, and glamor. It is one of the most exclusive cities in the Mediterranean and the pride of Costa del Sol. Deemed the pearl of the Andalusian coast, Marbella is synonymous with jet-set living. Fascinating history and kaleidoscopic cultural influences manifest in a dazzling local culture, cuisine, and identity that has enthralled elites for centuries. Marbella is graced with a famously temperate climate and a majestic setting where the foothills of the Sierra Blanca meet 17 miles of the peninsula's most exclusive beaches and the famed Puerto Banus marina. Discover spellbinding fine dining, exciting nightclubs, and high-end boutiques that give Ibiza a run for its money, or take a trip through time within the old town's enchanting plazas and cobblestoned streets.

Visiting Marbella is a unique experience, from shopping in its luxurious boutiques to dining in its distinguished restaurants, spending days filled with excitement in its beach clubs, and doing any kind of sport, the possibilities are endless! If relaxation is your priority, the city has 20 thalassotherapy centers and spas, plus many health and beauty centers. Although Marbella is recognized internationally for its nightlife and perception of all things luxurious, it is also an ideal holiday destination for those looking to make the most of their time outdoors.

BEACH CLUBS

The Costa del Sol is famous for its long, sandy beaches and more than 300 days of glorious sunshine a year, which makes it the perfect place for a beach holiday. You can head down to the beach for a paddle, swim, water sports, or lunch, but if you want the VIP experience, find yourself a beach club! There are many stunning beach clubs around Marbella. There are many different styles to choose from, but they normally combine a lovely restaurant and cocktail bar, white, comfortable sunbeds, music, and a cool vibe. There are beach clubs to suit everyone and are they are usually open from April to October, although some keep their restaurants and bar areas open year-round.

FINCA CORTESIN

Finca Cortesin isn't in Marbella but classy as it is, it needs to be on this beach club list. It's an elegant and sophisticated affair where you relax immediately upon arrival, feel thoroughly loved throughout your stay, and leave feeling utterly serene. Tasteful seating and sunbeds are either clustered around the infinity pool or facing out to sea on this attractive and less developed stretch of coast. The restaurant serves casual seafood and rice dishes to Finca Cortesin's five-star standard.

Nowadays, Marbella is known for its glitz and glamor as a prestigious Mediterranean resort. However, its history is filled with rich culture and ancient tradition. This article is your quick guide to understanding how Marbella came to be known as what it is today. Marbella is home to many historical landmarks and monuments, with many significant buildings in and around the center. Known for its Arab heritage, on whose grounds once was a Roman city, (whose presence can still be seen today) as well as a Paleolithic settlement. There are several ancient sights worth visiting and we'll name some of them.

IGLESIA DE LA ENCARNACIÓN

Nestled amid the hustle and bustle of the city's quaint Medieval center lies the monumental Iglesia de la Encarnacion. Constructed at a time when reconquering Marbella from Moorish rule, this church was erected on the ground floor of a mosque to efface the traces of the previous occupiers. This beautiful 15th century church is an easily accessible destination close to ancient castle walls, offering a well-earned moment of serenity and peace. Replete with a gorgeous gold leaf altar and ornately decorated interiors, this church is lauded for its "wow" factor.
