ABOUT

As the central hub of the Hawaiian Islands, Oahu is the most visited. Regarded as "The Gathering place" by native Hawaiians, the island has always been a spot of intercultural exchange and cohesion, merging the Eastern and Western native peoples. As the most populated region and home to the bustling capital of Honolulu, Oahu exceeds its historic distinction as a gathering place.

A place of sweeping contrasts, Oahu represents the ultimate intersection of ancient tradition and modern amenities, bustling city life and laid-back coastal surf villages. Offering tropical freshness and a lively nightlife no compromises need to be made in Oahu! Historical sites from Pearl Harbor and Iolani Palace keep will keep your cultural itinerary full, while its exquisite coastlines will have you sunning days away. Browse through luxury shops in the ritzy Waikiki area, and round off an afternoon at a sumptuous oceanfront eatery. Plentiful poolside cabanas are the ultimate venues for nursing a choice cocktail. Hire a chartered yacht and sail through the Pacific, or book a private helicopter tour for breathtaking airborne views. For a bit of exercise, venture out onto some of the world's most scenic hiking trails. By the end of your vacation, you'll feel satiated knowing you've experienced all this magical island has to offer.

- Tokyo – Honolulu ~ 7h 40'

KAHANAMOKU BEACH

Kahanamoku beach is a curved section of shoreline at the western end of Waikiki. The sand is golden and the water, crystal clear. It's protected by the breakwater and pier, and if you're in the mood to snorkel there's a stunning section of coral running between them.

BEACHES

WAIKIKI BEACH

One of the most famous beaches in the world, Waikiki beach is nestled on Oahu's south shore. It has more than four million visitors each year and offers amazing views of Diamond Head. Waikiki beach is great for snorkeling, swimming, riding the waves, and enjoying soaking up the rays. It's also home to some fine restaurants for an apres beach dinner or cocktails.

Table of Contents

KAHALA BEACH

Kahala Beach is a well-hidden alcove where you can relax among tranquil, sandy shores without having to share the space with crowds. In fact, it's possible you won't find anyone else at all on this beach since it's mostly used by area residents. You might want to dive here since you're likely to spot quite a number of fascinating aquatic specimens that aren't often interrupted by a lot of human traffic. Note: Don't jump in directly from the seawall, since it isn't deep enough to do so safely.

BEACHES

HANAUMA BAY

Among the most popular things to do in Oahu is visiting Hanauma Bay Nature Preserve. It's one of the best areas to experience top-notch snorkeling. Located 30 minutes east of Waikiki, this stunning cove was once a volcanic crater but is now home to clear blue waters and lively reefs teeming with vibrant sea creatures.

LANIKAI BEACH

Consistently rated the best beach in Oahu, this strip of shoreline is just gorgeous and a perfect place to stop and have a swim, especially if your children are along. It is much quieter than Waikiki or Hanauma Bay and is a great spot for kayaking or stand up paddle boarding. There is an offshore reef that keeps the water calm making it ideal for safe swimming.

SUNSET BEACH

Situated on the historic north shore Sunset beach is a beautifully long expanse that has enamored both locals and tourists for decades. During the summer, the blindingly blue ocean waters are calm and crystal-clear, making it a terrific destination for swimmers, snorkelers and families.

RESTAURANTS

RESTAURANTS

The undisputed culinary epicenter of the Hawaiian islands, Oahu's vibrant dining scene is very well regarded. A lightning rod for gastronomic ingenuity, some of the world's most celebrated chefs have flocked to the island to set up their fine dining outposts. The island's culinary reinvention can be traced back 25 years as ground zero for the sweeping Hawaiian regional cuisine movement. A wild array of cultural influences is reflected in Polynesian cuisine, stemming from a fascinating immigration history. Puerto Rican, Portuguese, and even Korean traditions play a part in the distinct local fare. With such a history, it's no wonder Oahu features a robust and daring culinary scene.

BAR LEATHER APRON | COCKTAIL BAR

The bar at this intimate cocktail spot on the mezzanine of a downtown Honolulu office building seats only six, so making reservations is recommended. It's worth it to enjoy bespoke cocktails utilizing only the finest liquors and ingredients. Owners Tom Park and Justin Park have cultivated a reputation for their signature cocktails including the E Ho'o Pau Mai Tai made with raisin-infused five-year-old El Dorado rum; 12-year-old El Dorado rum; coconut water syrup; spiced orgeat; vanilla; ohia blossom honey; lime; absinthe; and Kiawe wood smoke.

RUMFIRE | BEACHSIDE LOUNGE

When the sun sets and the nightlife begins, head to Rum Fire. Centered in the middle of Waikiki in the Sheraton Hotel, Rumfire is one of the more modern tiki bars, with vibrant red colors, flame-featured lighting, and tropical rattan furniture. Hugely popular thanks to great music and incredible views of Waikiki beach, this hotel nightclub is a sure bet any night of the year.

SKY WAIKIKI

Sky Waikiki sits 19 stories above the city, just below Top of Waikiki, the strip’s iconic revolving restaurant. From the couches on the welcoming open-air lanai, you’re treated to nearly 360-degree scenic views of Diamond Head, Waikiki beaches, and the classic coral Royal Hawaiian hotel. It’s one of the best spots to take in a Waikiki sunset. The club exudes contemporary LA chic every night, and resident DJs spin on Friday and Saturday nights.

PEARL HARBOR AVIATION MUSEUM

Pearl Harbor Aviation Museum is a non-profit founded in 1999. Part of Senator Daniel Inouye's vision for a rebirth of Ford Island, the museum hosts a variety of aviation exhibits with a majority relating directly to the attack on Pearl Harbor and World War II.

MUSEUMS

BISHOP MUSEUM

The Bernice Pauahi Bishop Museum, designated the Hawaii State Museum of Natural and Cultural History in the historic Kalihi district of Honolulu, devotes itself to history and science. Founded in 1889, it is the largest museum in Hawaii and has the world's largest collection of Polynesian cultural artifacts and natural history specimens.

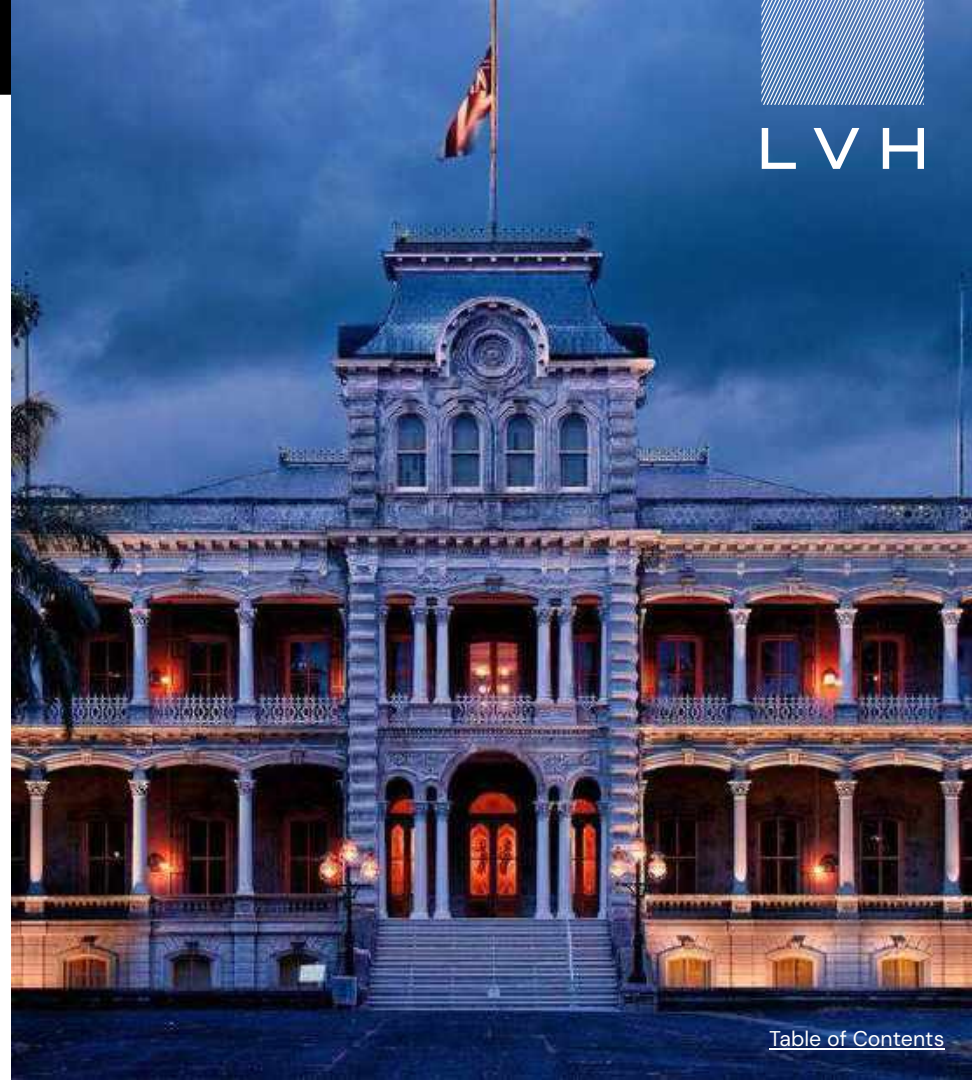

HAWAII STATE ART MUSEUM

The No. 1 Capitol District Building, on the site of the former Armed Services YMCA Building, now houses the Hawaii State Art Museum (HiSAM) and the Hawaii State Foundation on Culture and the Arts (SFCA). View some of the best contemporary art from across the state in HiSAM's exhibits. This is the venue for the Art in Public Places Program of the SFCA. Most of the collection is on display in public buildings, including libraries, schools, and state offices. Art in the collection are primarily contemporary works by artists with a connection to Hawaii.

IOLANI PALACE

Iolani Palace was the royal residence of the rulers of the Kingdom of Hawaii beginning with Kamehameha III under the Kamehameha Dynasty and ending with Queen Lili'uokalani under the Kalākaua Dynasty, founded by her brother, King David Kalākaua. It's a magical venue all lovers of architecture and culture will appreciate.

HONOLULU MUSEUM OF ART (HoMA)

One of the world's premier art museums, the Honolulu Museum of Art presents international caliber special exhibitions and features a collection that includes Hokusai, van Gogh, Gauguin, Monet, Picasso and Warhol, as well as traditional Asian and Hawaiian art. KIDS

A famously family-friendly destination, Oahu offers plenty of recreation and activities for children of all ages. Plentiful tours, and parks, allow children to experience their lush outdoor surroundings. From getting up close with some exotic animals to touring vast plantations, abundant activities are available to spark children's active imaginations.

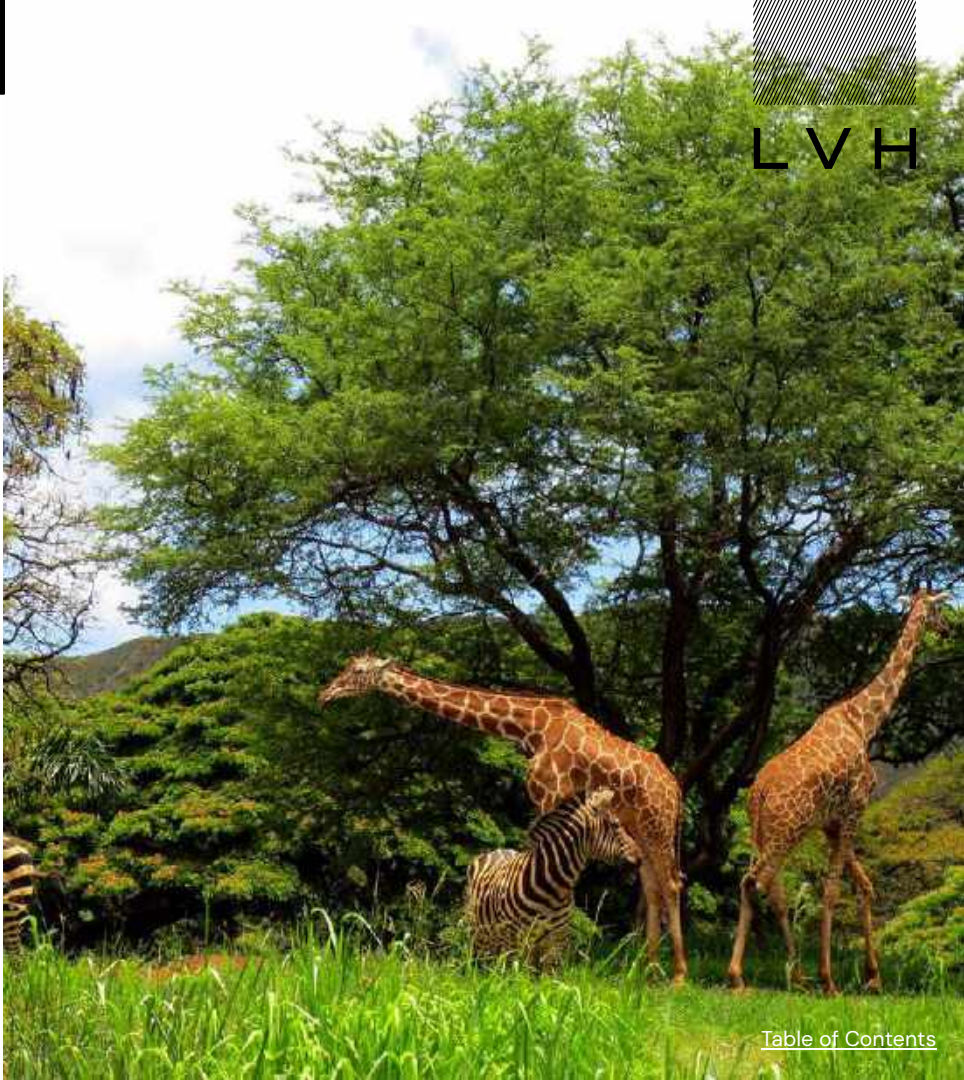

DOLE PLANTATION

Originally operated as a fruit stand in 1950, Dole Plantation opened to the public as Hawaii's "Pineapple Experience" in 1989. Today, Dole Plantation is one of Oahu's most popular visitor attractions and welcomes more than one million visitors a year. Learn everything about growing and harvesting this sweet, favorite delight of billions.

HONOLULU ZOO

The Honolulu Zoo is the only zoo in the United States to be established by grants made by a sovereign monarch and is built on 42 of the 300-acre royal Queen Kapi'olani Park. There are more than 1,200 animals in specially-designed habitats living at the zoo.

HULA LESSONS

Far more than just an enchanting style of dance, “Hula is the language of the heart, therefore the heartbeat of the Hawaiian people,” said King Kalākaua. It has long been held as a sacred way of communicating between peoples, the land, and the spirit of this place. Hula, in both its traditional (hula kahiko) and modern (hula ‘auana) forms, can be a beautiful and empowering way to move the body and connect with Hawaii’s rich history.

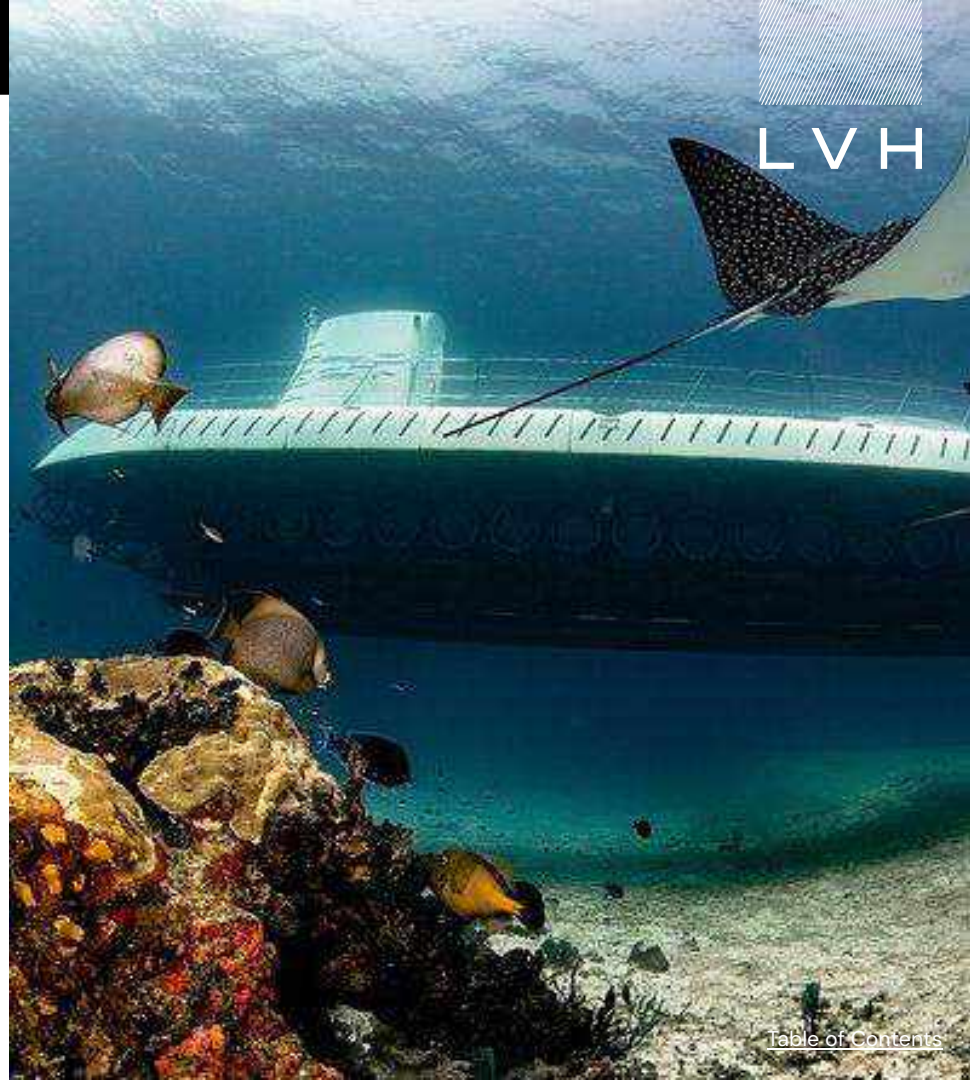

POLYNESIAN CULTURAL CENTER

The Polynesian Cultural Center is a theme park and living museum in Laie, on the northern shore dedicated to all things Polynesian. The center is Hawaii's number one visitor attraction, and has six island villages representing the unique island cultures of Polynesia.

SUBMARINE TOUR

Climb aboard a 48-passenger submarine and adventure through the underwater passages of famous Waikiki beach. Through its portal windows, see fish, coral, turtles, sunken ships, airplanes and more! It's truly an amazing experience to be a part of this otherworldly landscape.

LVH

TRADITIONAL LUAU EXPERIENCE

Mom and Dad can enjoy a welcome Mai Tai and everyone can feast on authentic Hawaiian fare, including fresh seafood, kalua pork, and tropical fruit during this experience. Families can watch the sunset together and enjoy entertainment from Hawaiian musicians, Hula dancers, and fire twirlers.

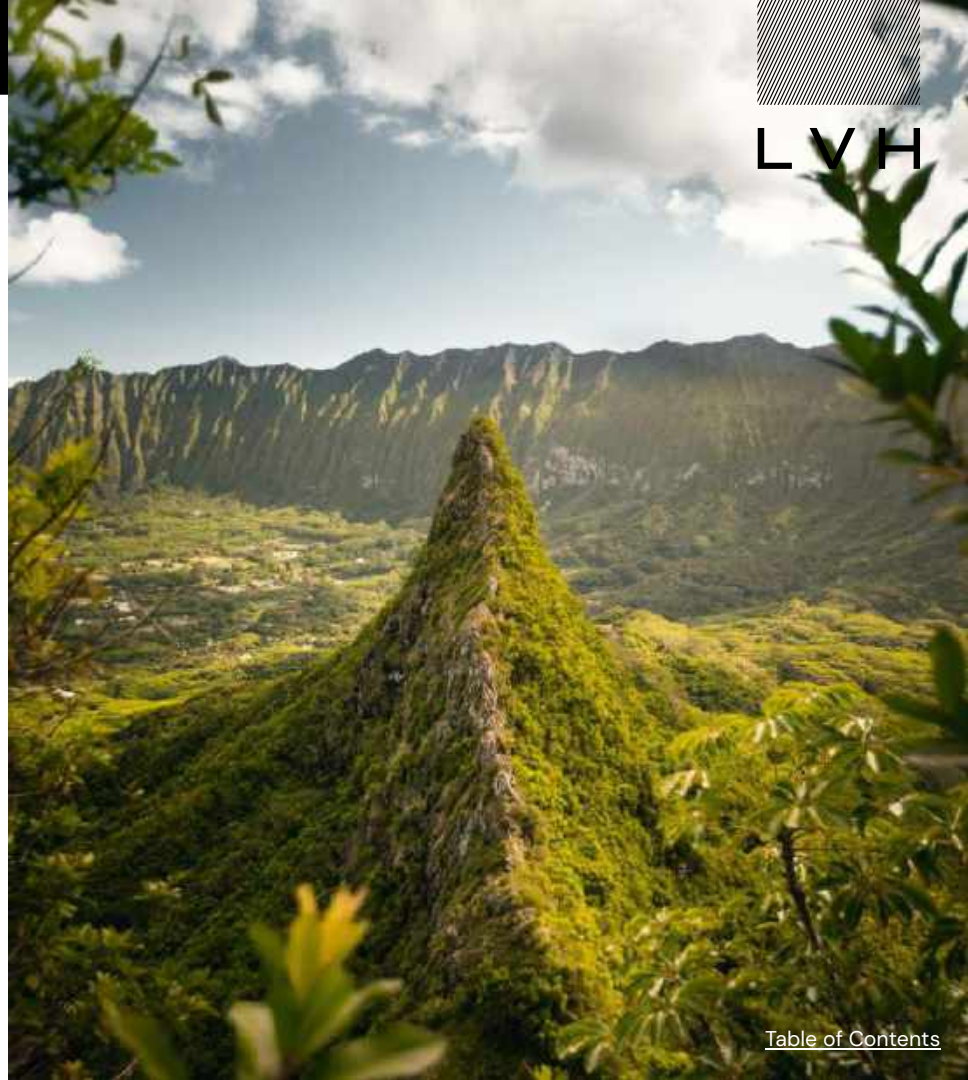

LVH

LAND

Every destination has a unique geographical configuration. That's part of the allure of travel. Whether your vacation takes you to exotic mountainous terrains, or areas replete with sand dunes, the dynamics of the land can add a welcome depth to your vacation. Whiz along coastal highways, lush forests or through arid deserts. These routes will lead you to the landscapes distinctive to your vacation choice!

DIAMOND HEAD STATE MONUMENT

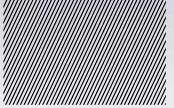

The unique profile of Diamond Head (Lē'ahi) sits prominently near the eastern edge of Waikiki's coastline. Hawaii's most recognized landmark is known for its historic hiking trail, stunning coastal views, and military history.

GOLF

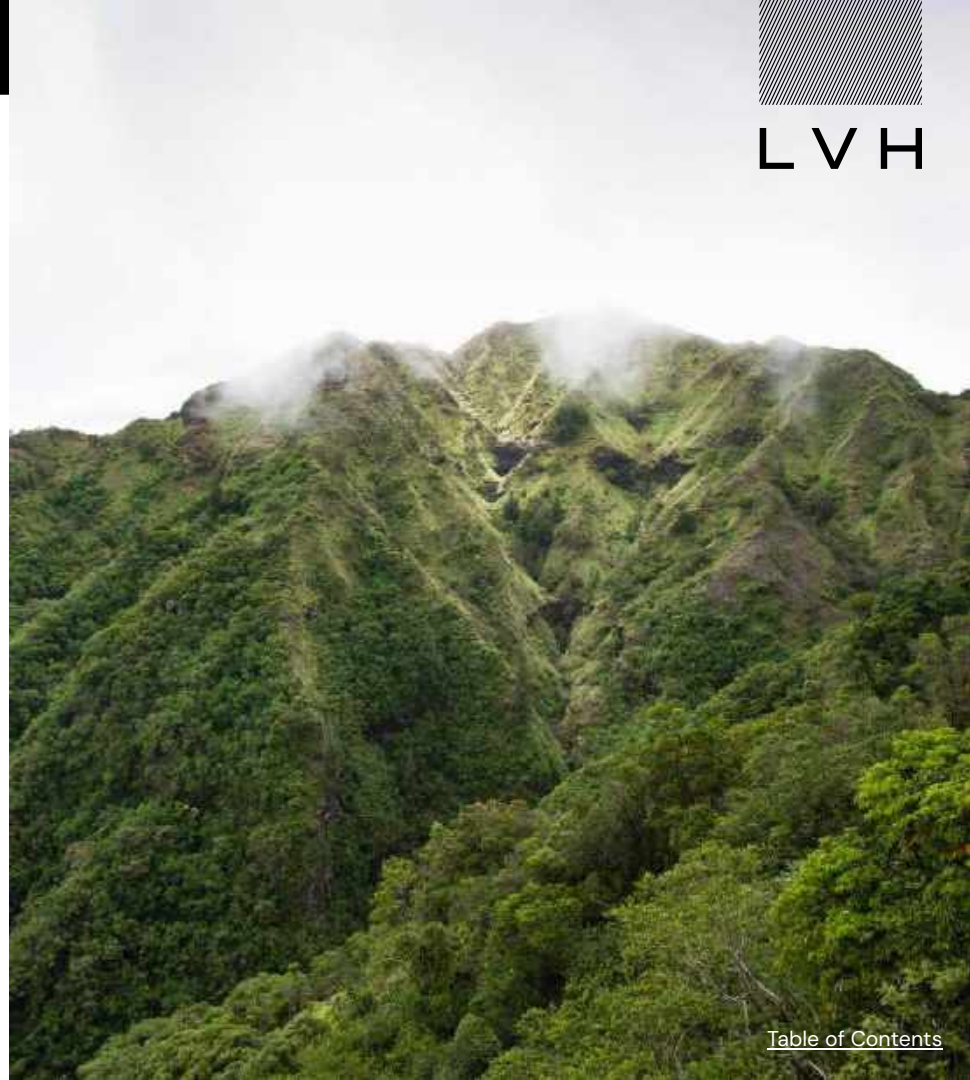

Did you know that there are more than 30 golf courses on Oahu? Most are municipal, semi-private, or public. If you are a golfer, can you imagine anything finer than golfing on a beautiful Hawaiian island? Whether you choose the windward side of the island, the leeward side, or north shore, you will enjoy diverse landscapes and scenic ocean views as you tee off on any of these greens.

HONOLULU WATERSHED RESERVE

Honolulu Watershed Forest Reserve is one of the most well-known national parks. It is part of 600 square miles of highlands covered with unique natural forest. The park is a must see place for everyone, but especially for those who enjoy various outdoor adventures.

KAIWA RIDGE (LANIKAI PILLBOX) TRAIL

Kaiwa Ridge (Lanikai Pillbox) Trail is nearly two miles of heavily trafficked path near Kailua with a moderate difficulty rating. Trek through fields of beautiful wild flowers and stop to chat with other hikers and runners along the way. Dogs are allowed, but must be kept on leashes.

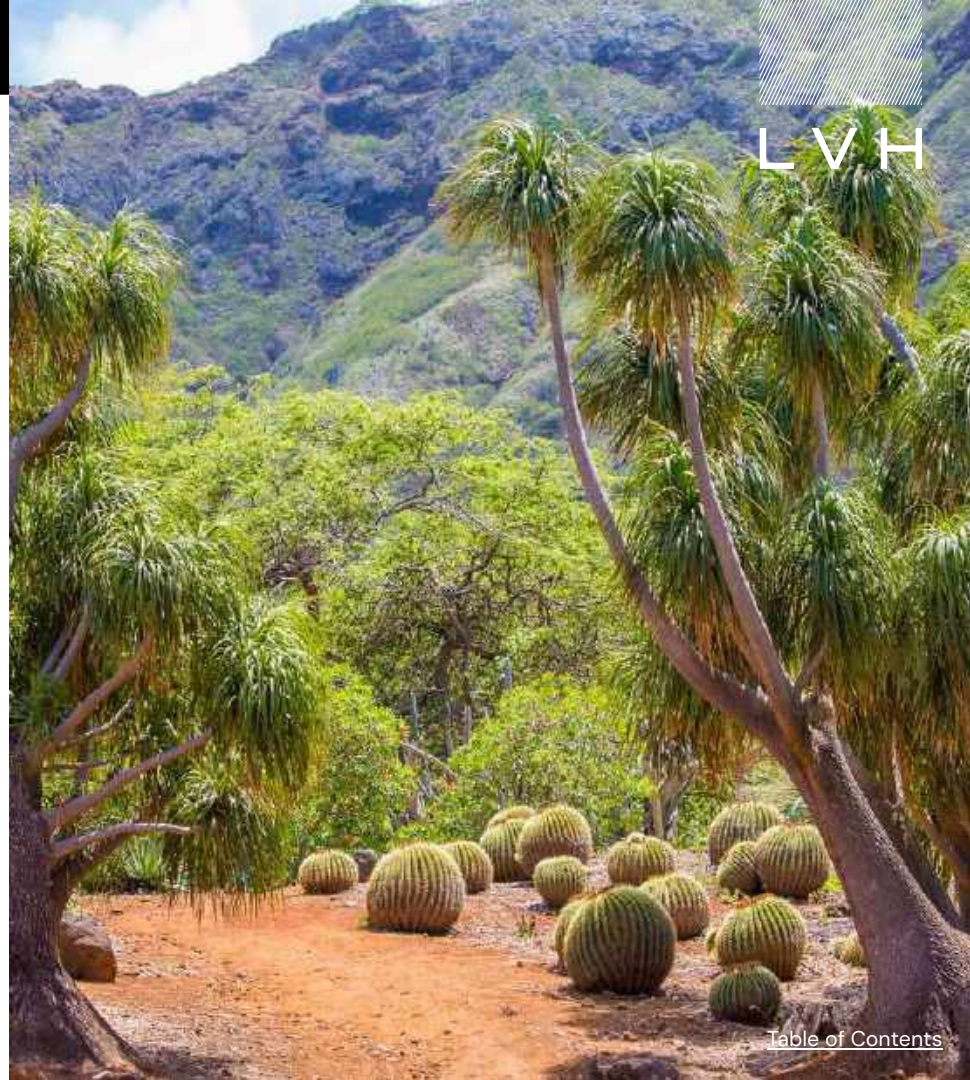

JURASSIC ATV TOUR

Jump in a multi-passenger off-road ATV that accommodates up to five passengers, venture across the iconic Jurassic Valley and visit the movie's famous film locations. ATV-ing across this rugged terrain is one of the more adventurous things to do in Oahu.

KOKO CRATER BOTANICAL GARDEN

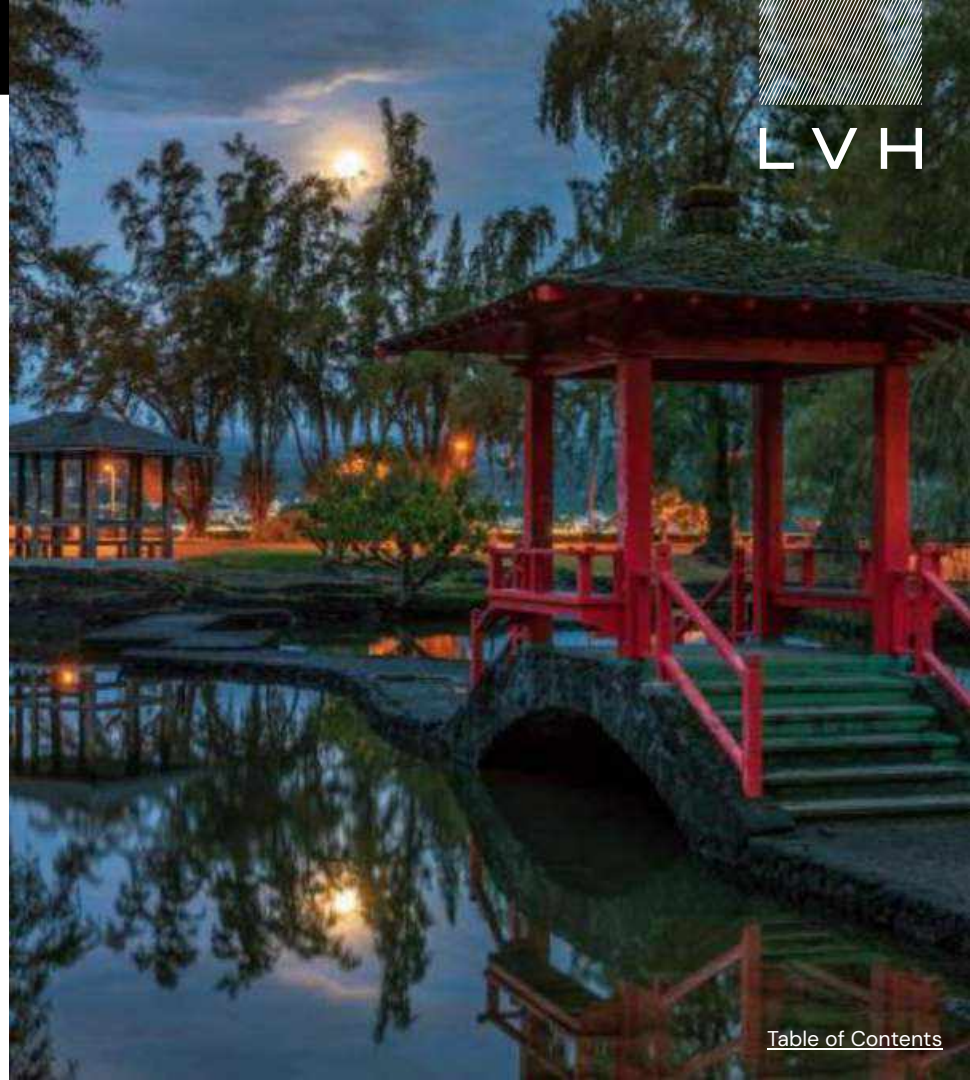

In 1958, Koko Crater was earmarked for development into a botanical garden. Plant collections now occupy 60 acres of the inner slopes and basin of this 200-acre crater. The garden focuses on the cultivation of rare and endangered dryland plants.

LIL'UOKALINI PARK

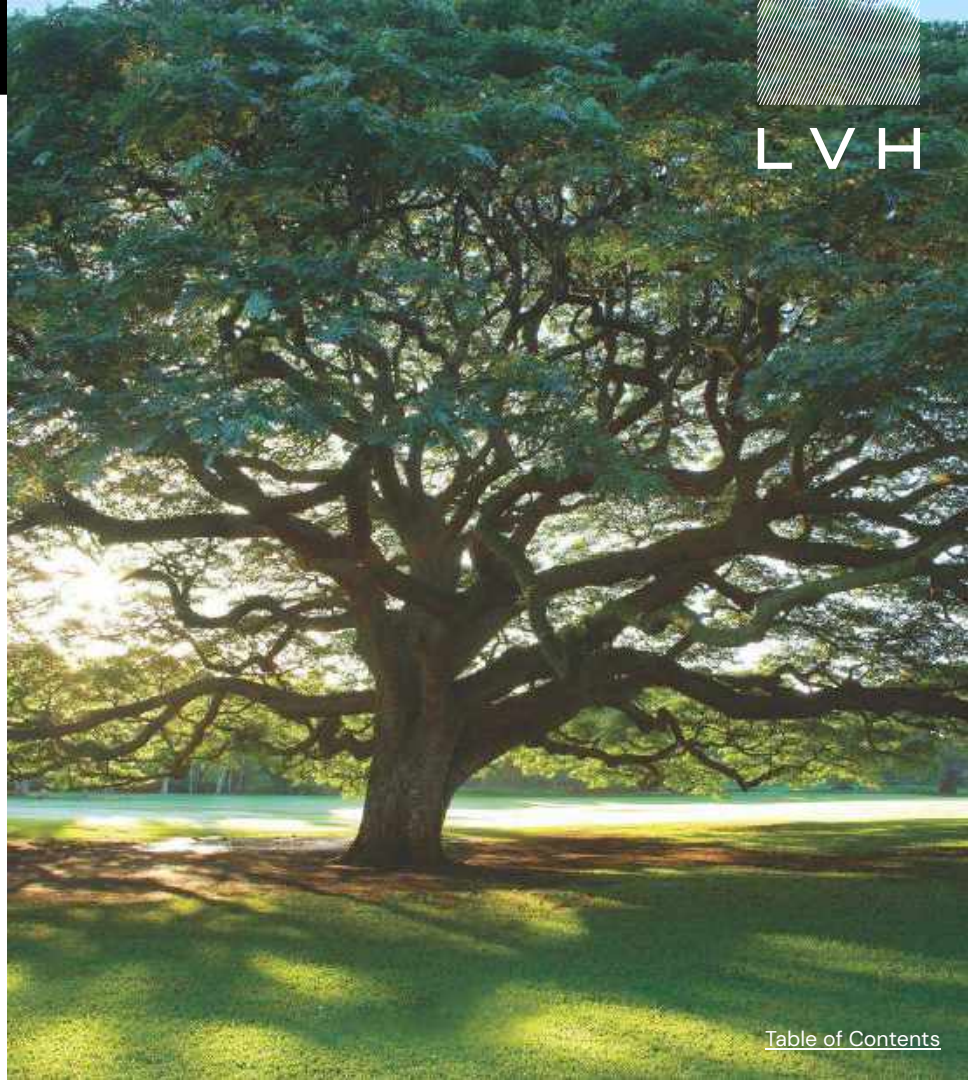

Portions of this garden park were once the property and favorite picnic grounds of Queen Lili'uokalani, the last reigning Hawaiian monarch. She later donated the land to the city and county of Honolulu to be used for the public's enjoyment. This constantly developing garden is devoted to native Hawaiian flora and fauna.

MOANALUA VALLEY PARK

The trail begins at the end of Moanalua Valley at Moanalua Valley Park. It starts as a road barred by a green gate which eventually turns into an unimproved route and later to a narrow trail. The trail to the top of the Haiku Stairs (Stairway to Heaven) is about two miles past the trailhead.

MAKAPU'U POINT LIGHTHOUSE TRAIL

Makapu'u Point Lighthouse Trail is nearly three miles long and features a wide selection of beautiful and unique plants. This year-round trail can accommodate all skill levels and is primarily used for hiking.

SEGWAY TOUR

Guided Segway tours lets you experience natural Hawaiian beauty, history, and culture in quiet and with zero emissions. The segway ride in Kailua provides pure exhilaration and miles of smiles. Saves you tiring your legs with all that walking.

LVH

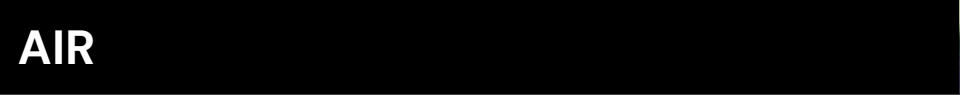

AIR

Up, up and away is often the best way of seeing the beauty of a vacation destination. Whether you're in a helicopter, private plane, paragliding, parachuting or in a hot air balloon, getting a bird's eye view will take your perceptions of an area to new heights! So don't stay grounded, take flight for a thrilling adventure!

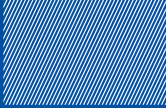

HELICOPTER FLIGHT

A helicopter tour over is likely to be among your most cherished memories of this island paradise. Soar over majestic waterfalls, volcanic craters, Waikiki and some of the world’s best beaches. Take it all in and snap some magazine-worthy photos. For a boost of adrenaline choose the “doors-off” airborne experience.

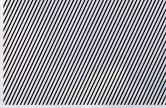

LVH

SKYDIVING

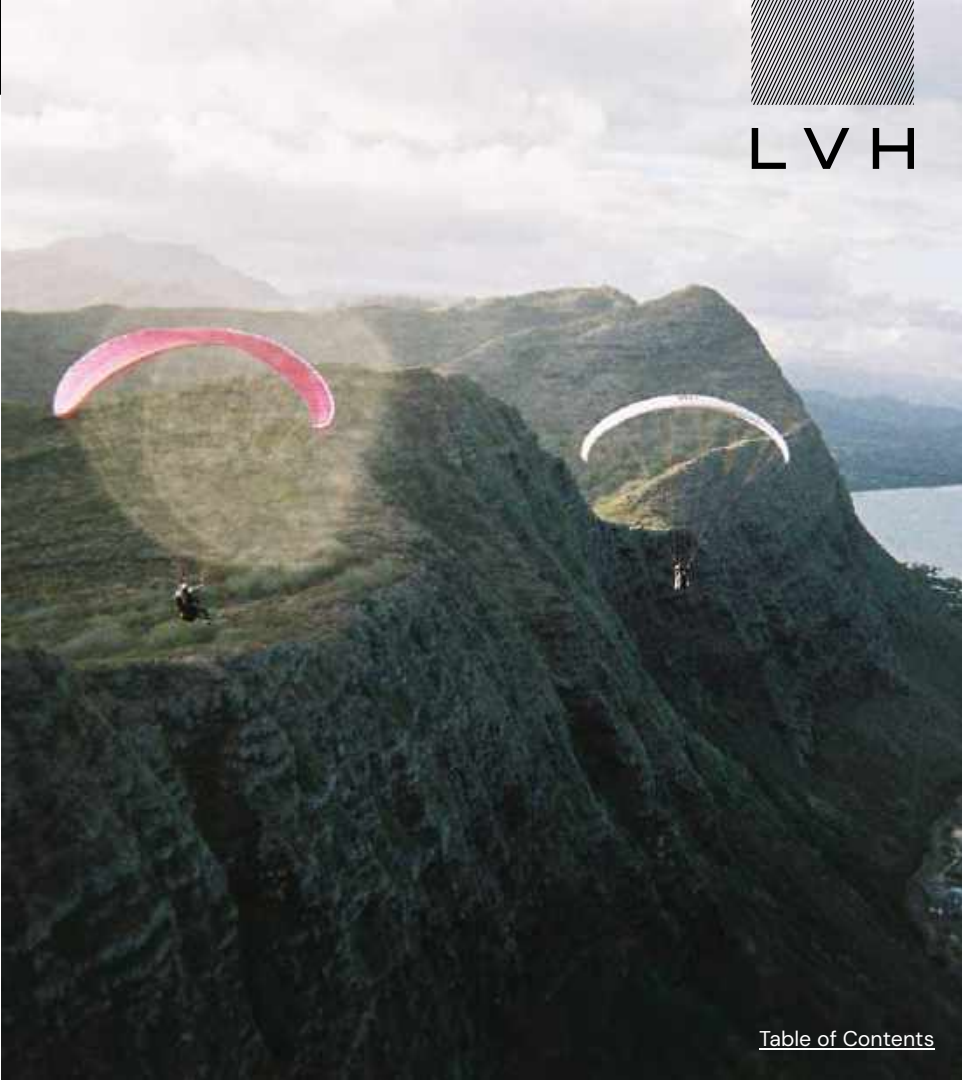

Brave souls and adrenaline junkies can experience skydiving on the North Shore of Oahu. Doing the “freefall” over Oahu, and taking it all in, the landscape and color, induces your endorphins and makes it worthwhile.

PARAGLIDING

Paragliding is a skydiving alternative that's more mellow (no free fall) but still offers a rush of adrenaline. You and an instructor will "fly" off the side of a mountain and float to the ground using a parachute (controlled by your instructor). Jumping off the side of the mountain – can be scary, however the overall experience is very gentle and peaceful as you glide through the air.

SCENIC GLIDER FLIGHTS

Glider Tours are a must on Oahu. These aircraft are without an engine. They are pulled up into the air by another aircraft and released, at about 3,000 feet, so that they could “glide” through the air for a peaceful, scenic flight and descent.
