WELLNESS

Palm Springs was put on the map in the 1930s by the most popular movies stars of the day. Only about an hour and 50-minute drive from LA, it is a fun, laid-back destination for those looking to enjoy a posh desert getaway. Palm Springs is the perfect marriage of nature and refinement, with just the right dash of quirkiness. Luxury travelers who want to experience the uncommon landscape of the desert along with a vibrant arts scene and gorgeous golf courses will want to check into this arid wonderland.

AREAS

Table of Contents

The checkerboard-like neighborhoods of the Greater Palm Springs area are nestled between mountain ranges, stretching all the way south to the mythical Salton Sea. This enclosed valley is responsible for the coveted microclimate that has seen hordes of health tourists flock to the area since the early 1900s. Today, Palm Springs is a desert city with a blossoming cultural hub, a “good life” epicenter in some of the nation's most inhospitable terrain! The city's neighborhoods act as a mosaic, witnessing the region's illustrious history, from its golden-era Hollywood roots and its enduring mid-modern century architectural legacy. Each area abounds with a distinct character, offering a new dimension of experiences to the city.

COACHELLA

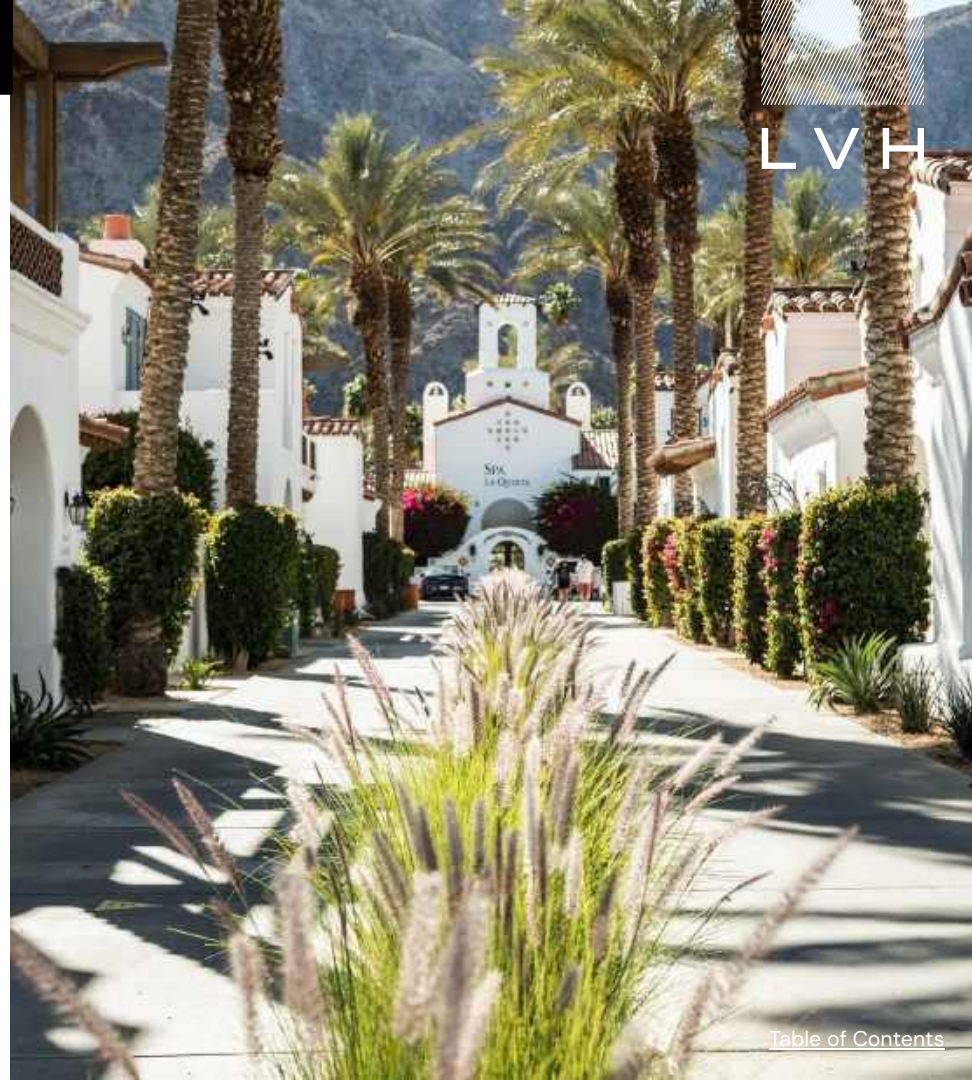

Between the San Jacinto and Santa Rosa mountains lies the incredibly beautiful Coachella Valley. It's like no other place on earth with its magical, serene vibe. If you want to immerse yourself in tranquil energy, you would do well to visit the Coachella Valley.

LVH

LA QUINTA

Visitors can spend some time meandering down the cobblestone sidewalks of La Quinta's main street, and shop in boutiques located in a storybook setting. After a day of exploring, and purchasing one or more of the unique works of many local artists, consider dining alfresco in one of the many fine restaurants.

INDIO

Just 23 miles east of Palm Springs, Indio is out of the hustle and bustle, but close enough to drive to things like the Living Desert and a beautiful botanical park. It's also just a bike ride away from the Coachella Music Festival. Golf enthusiasts will enjoy playing the 18 at the exemplary Plantation Golf Course.

PALM DESERT

Palm Desert is in the heart of Great Palm Springs and has turned into a shopping, dining, entertainment, and recreation mecca. The El Paseo Shopping District is a tree-lined boulevard in Palm Desert boasting upscale stores, boutiques, and many fine dining establishments.

RANCHO MIRAGE

A luxurious lifestyle meets a lovely landscape in Rancho Mirage. It's a playful area with a host of things for children and adults to see and do such as the Children's Museum of the Desert and Palm Springs' only waterfront shopping and entertainment center, The River.

PALM CANYON

Palm Canyon is one of the greatest areas of natural beauty in Western North America. Majestic palm trees are mesmerizing contrasts to the area's stark rocky gorges and desert lands. Palm Canyon is ideal for a picnic near a stream, meditation, exploring, hiking and horseback riding.

INDIAN CANYONS

Indian Canyons was built in the 1960s with mid-century-modern homes designed by notable architects such as Dan Palmer, William Krisel, and Stan Sackley. Including the architecture, the neighborhood is best known for its close proximity to the mountains, Indian Canyon Park, many golf courses, and the largest grove of wild palm trees in the world.

EL MIRADOR

This beautiful area was developed in the 1920s by the same man who built the famous El Mirador Hotel, P.T. Stevens. There once was a resort called the Desert Inn here which was a popular cavorting area of the Hollywood elite. You can still see the resort's tower. El Mirador is an eclectic and interesting neighborhood worth seeing.

AREAS

THE MOVIE COLONY

This neighborhood is named after the many movie stars who owned homes in the area between the 1930s and 1960s. The Movie Colony (TMC) is within walking distance to the downtown area and many fine restaurants, boutiques and live entertainment. It is only three miles from Palm Springs International Airport.

LVH

RESTAURANTS

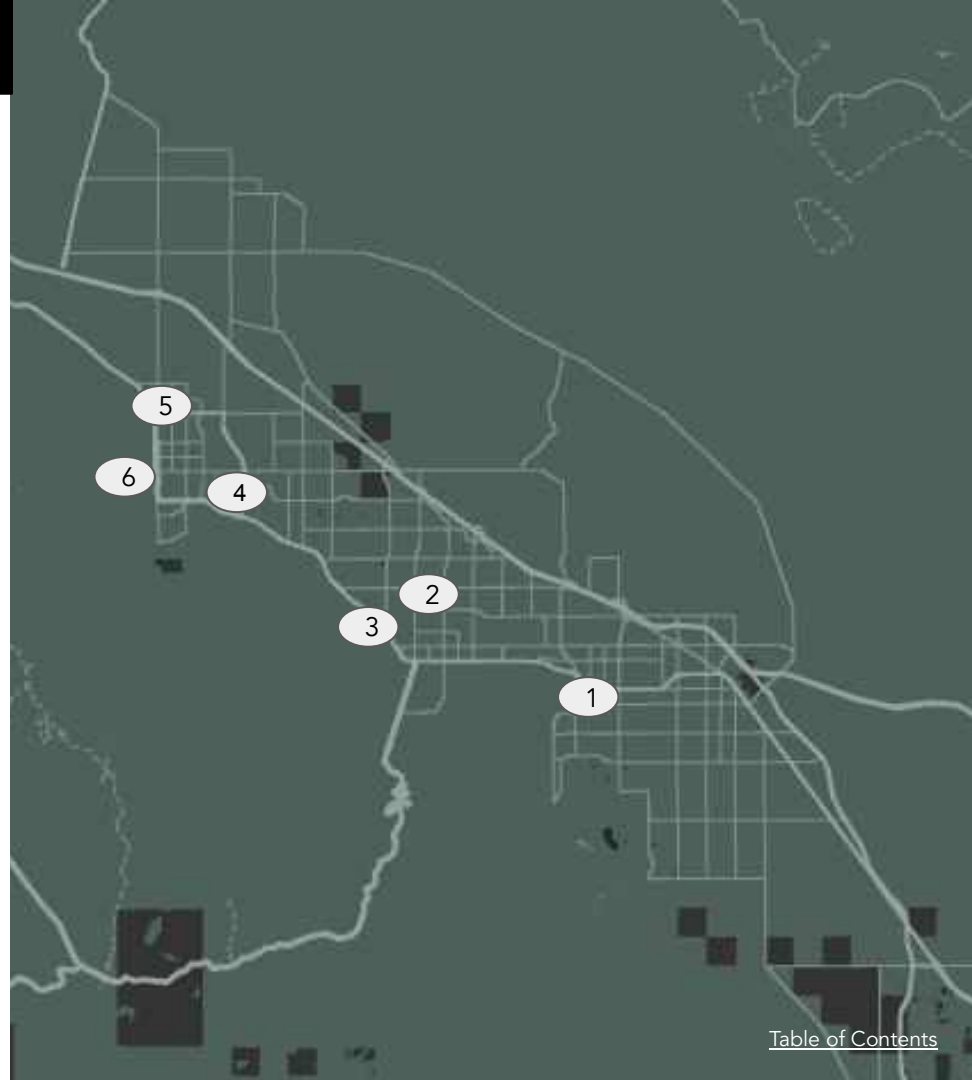

RESTAURANTS

The laid-back and glamorous spirit of Palm Springs is well reflected through its vibrant cuisine. As a favorite desert getaway for the Hollywood elite for more than a century, it is fitting that the dishes be as well put together as the patrons. Food journalists have remarked on a chef-oriented culinary scene motivated by inventive, unique concepts, reflecting the tastes of the region's most discerning visitors. Local California cuisine concentrates on fusion menus using local ingredients, while there is no shortage of Thai, Cuban, Chinese, Indian, Mexican and French options. Simultaneously avant-garde and inventive, with a distinct retro-modern streak, Palm Springs' culinary scene is unlike any other.

RESTAURANTS

LVH

CORK TREE RESTAURANT | CALIFORNIAN

Cork Tree creates a fine dining experience with its upscale and wholesome cuisine, comprehensive wine list, and intimate dining areas. Locally sourced products are used for dishes like duck breast and smoked mushroom risotto and hibiscus braised short ribs. Private rooms are also available at the Cork Tree for guests looking for more intimate dining.

Table of Contents

RESTAURANTS

WALLY'S DESERT TURTLE | CONTEMPORARY

In spite of or perhaps due to it's unusual name, Wally's Desert Turtle is one of the most awarded restaurants in the desert. A classically French menu presents some unforgettable takes on roasted pheasant breast, seared venison strip loin, escargot, and lobster ravioli. Prepare for an impeccable dining ambiance among murals, a mirrored ceiling, and ancient Peruvian artifacts.

RESTAURANTS

MISTER PARKER'S | FRENCH

Housed within the famed Parker Hotel in South Palm Canyon, Mister Parker's stands as one of the most impressively decorated eateries. Dinners here are always impressive. You can expect upscale bistro dishes with a stylish twist. Look out for the Osso Bucco with saffron risotto, pistachio-crusted rack of lamb, and duck confit with truffled potatoes.

RESTAURANTS

COPLEY'S ON PALM CANYON | FUSION

American cuisine infused with the tastes of the tropics and Europe is served at the award-winning Copley's On Palm Canyon. Dine on the patio surrounded by stunning mountain vistas or in the inviting indoors. Chef Andrew Copley is known for innovative dishes like miso-glazed Scottish salmon or saffron-scented seafood spaghetti. After dinner, try the black ice martini made with dark rum, Irish cream, Frangelico, and a shot of espresso.

LVH

RESTAURANTS

SPENCER'S RESTAURANT | AMERICAN

Locals, tourists, and celebrities are dazzled by Spencer's. An award-winning meal of particular repute is the pan-fried Dover sole, served with asparagus, lemon caper brown butter, bearnaise sauce, and gratin potatoes. Dine alfresco with a breathtaking setting against Mount San Jacinto in a restaurant that hits all the right notes.

L V H

NIGHTLIFE

Palm Springs' nightlife maintains the nocturnal allure of its Hollywood past. The streets of this famous desert playground have witnessed the night time exploits of everyone from Frank Sinatra, and JFK to Marilyn Monroe. With the setting of the sun behind the San Jacinto mountains, another city is unveiled – one studded with classy speakeasies, hip hotels with poolside DJs, and sleepless casinos. As the locals will tell you, the foreboding evening desert landscapes are best soaked in from behind a martini glass.

ESCENA LOUNGE & GRILL

Stunning sunsets and majestic mountain views overlooking a million-dollar fairway aren't hard to take in at Escena Lounge & Grill. The architecture of the building is sprawling; the décor, grand; and the ambiance, gracious. Sit at the circular bar with a delicious cocktail with the serene sound of water flowing into the pond below.

MELVYN'S RESTAURANT & LOUNGE

Melvyn's was Frank Sinatra's hangout when he was in Palm Springs, booth #53 to be exact, so Melvyn's has cool written all over it. The place still has that rat pack vibe. The air is filled nearly every night with the dulcet tones of local musicians. Opulent chandeliers still give the joint the feeling of the sexy 60s.

LVH

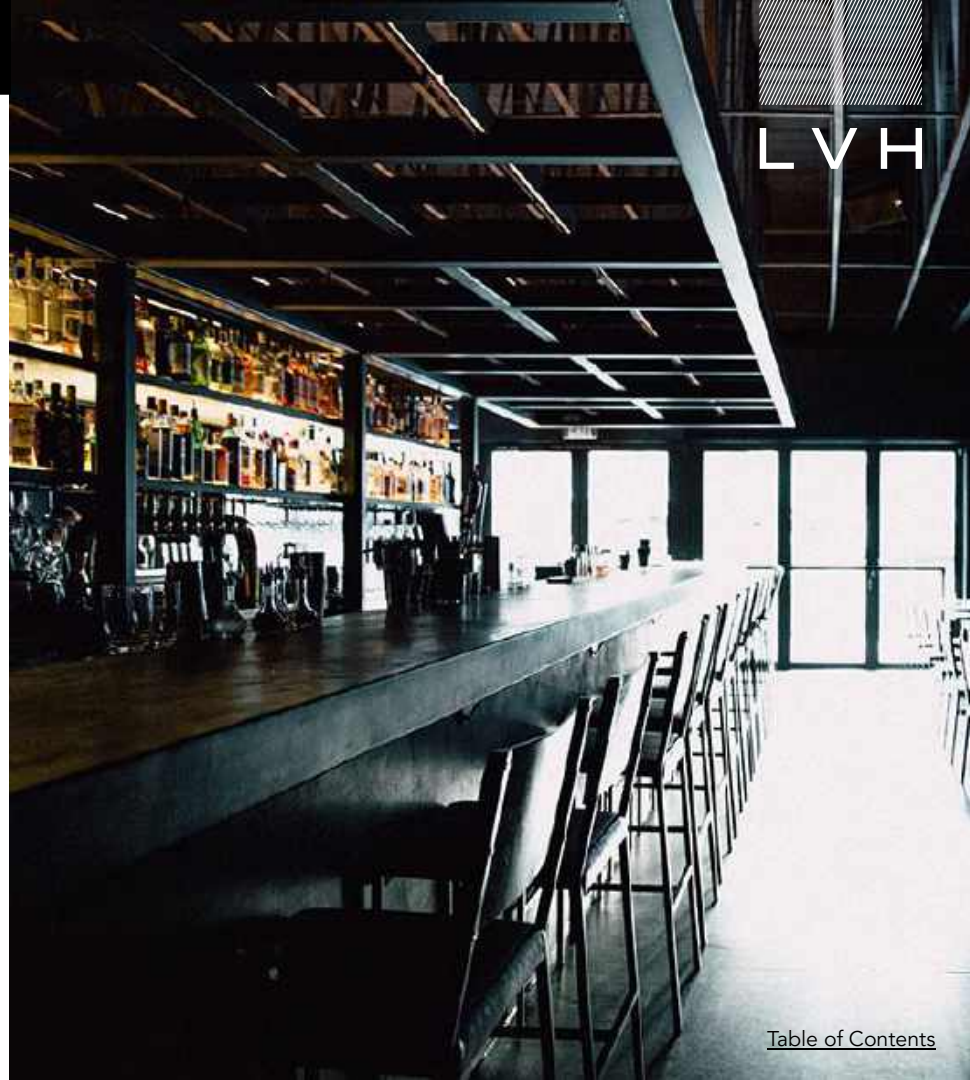

SEYMOUR'S

This classy place is a hidden Palm Springs gem. Its décor is plush, inviting, and the lighting is dim. It's the perfect, dusky, romantic place ideal for spending time with that special someone. Swanky craft cocktails sit on charming tables. You'll feel like you've walked into the very dreamy past.

TRUSS & TWINE

Opened in 2017, Truus & Wine is one of Palm Springs' best places for cocktails. The sleek industrial space is a fun place to gather with friends. The cocktail menu playfully takes guests through five eras of libations: the Golden Age, Prohibition, Tiki, the Dark Ages, and Originals. While the drinks are a true delight, you'd be remiss to overlook the "bar bites" menu. The smoked trout rillettes and uni deviled eggs are divine.

AMIGO

The Amigo Room features a dark and romantic atmosphere with an extensive draft selection, comprised entirely of craft beer. Maintaining strong relationships with local breweries the Amigo Room is a staple of the community. Cocktails are positively inspired, with fresh juices, local spirits and bright flavors..

MUSEUMS

Table of Contents

Palm Springs' exquisitely barren desert terrain acts as a blank canvas for creative impulses, becoming a lightning rod for artists and architects. The city at the edge of the desert has offered no shortage of inspiration, particularly in the fields of architecture and design. The enduring legacies of Albert Frey's "desert modernism" or Donald Wexler's innovative steel homes have imbued the region with a penchant for the novel and uncanny. This reputation is fully intact today, with Palm Springs' impressive range of modern museums, public art installations, and galleries remaining at the forefront of current trends.

PALM SPRING AIR MUSEUM

Home to one of the World's largest collections of flyable WWII aircraft, in addition to some Korea and Vietnam era planes. It's an interactive museum, and even offers the option to fly in one of four warbird aircraft, the C-47 Skytrain, P-51D Mustang, T-28B Trojan, T-33 Shooting Star Jet.

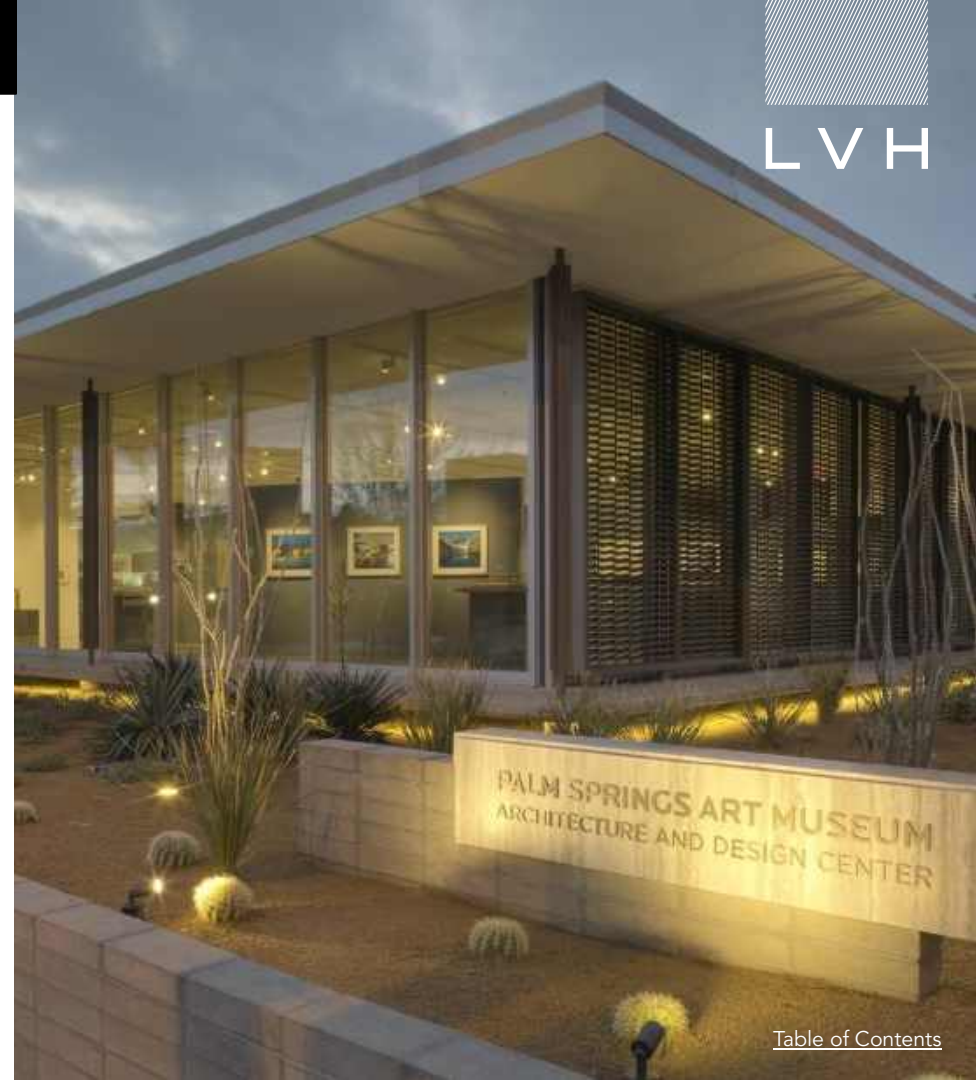

PALM SPRING ART MUSEUM

Founded in 1938, the Palm Springs Art Museum serves many communities in the Coachella Valley through compelling art exhibitions and an extensive range of community programming. Located in downtown Palm Springs, the museum's extensive permanent collection includes significant works by western, contemporary and glass artists, and features temporary exhibitions from internationally acclaimed artists.

PSAM ARCHITECTURE & DESIGN CENTER

Exploring a pivotal part of Palm Springs' identity, the architecture and design center is devoted to maintaining the works and legacies of the world's most illustrious architects. A former bank refurbished in the region's trademark "desert modernist" tradition, this revered center is a hub of workshops, education, exhibitions, and lectures.

LVH

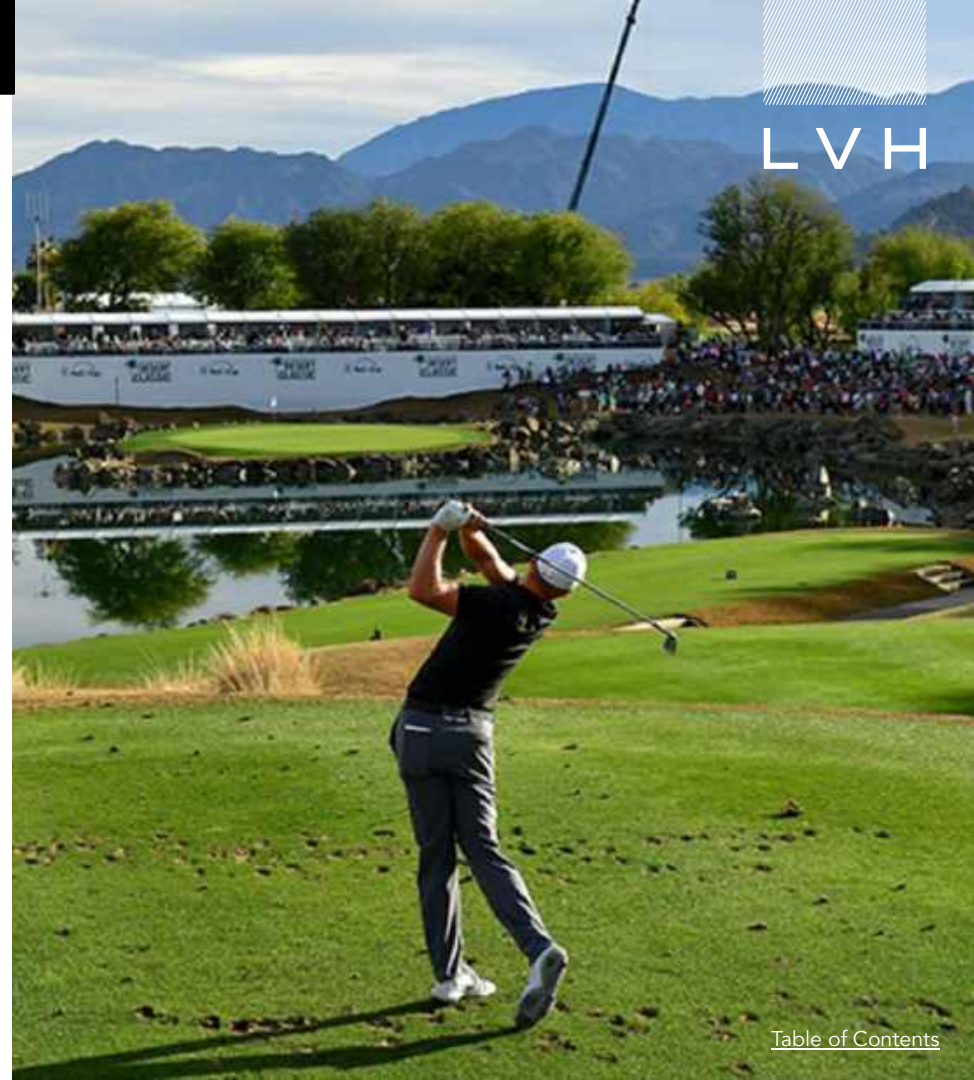

EVENTS

The vast expanse of the desert has been pregnant with promise since the discovery of the Western frontier, and today it remains so. Palm Springs, a beacon for the most talented musicians and athletes, has become an international meeting place. Indescribable pastel desert sunsets have become the ultimate backdrop for professional golf and tennis competitions to the Coachella Music Festival.

AMERICAN EXPRESS PGA GOLF TOUR

Every January, the best golfers in the world descend on Palm Springs for four days for the American Express PGA Tour. Prime ticket holders don't sit on the sidelines but have seating that gets them close to the green, privy to food and drinks alongside pre and post-live concerts.

COACHELLA VALLEY MUSIC AND ARTS FESTIVAL

This festival is not to be missed by music and art lovers. The event showcases both established and emerging artists. Hundreds of thousands of people attend the festival known for its stacked, star-studded lineups and fashion trends. The festival has developed into an infectious culture well beyond the city limits. There are various VIP packages available to get up close and personal with the action.

BNP PARIBAS OPEN

The BNP Paribas Open is the largest combined ATP Tour Masters 1000 and WTA 1000 tennis event in the world. For the ultimate in luxury, you can book a private suite – an ideal way to soak up all the courtside action.

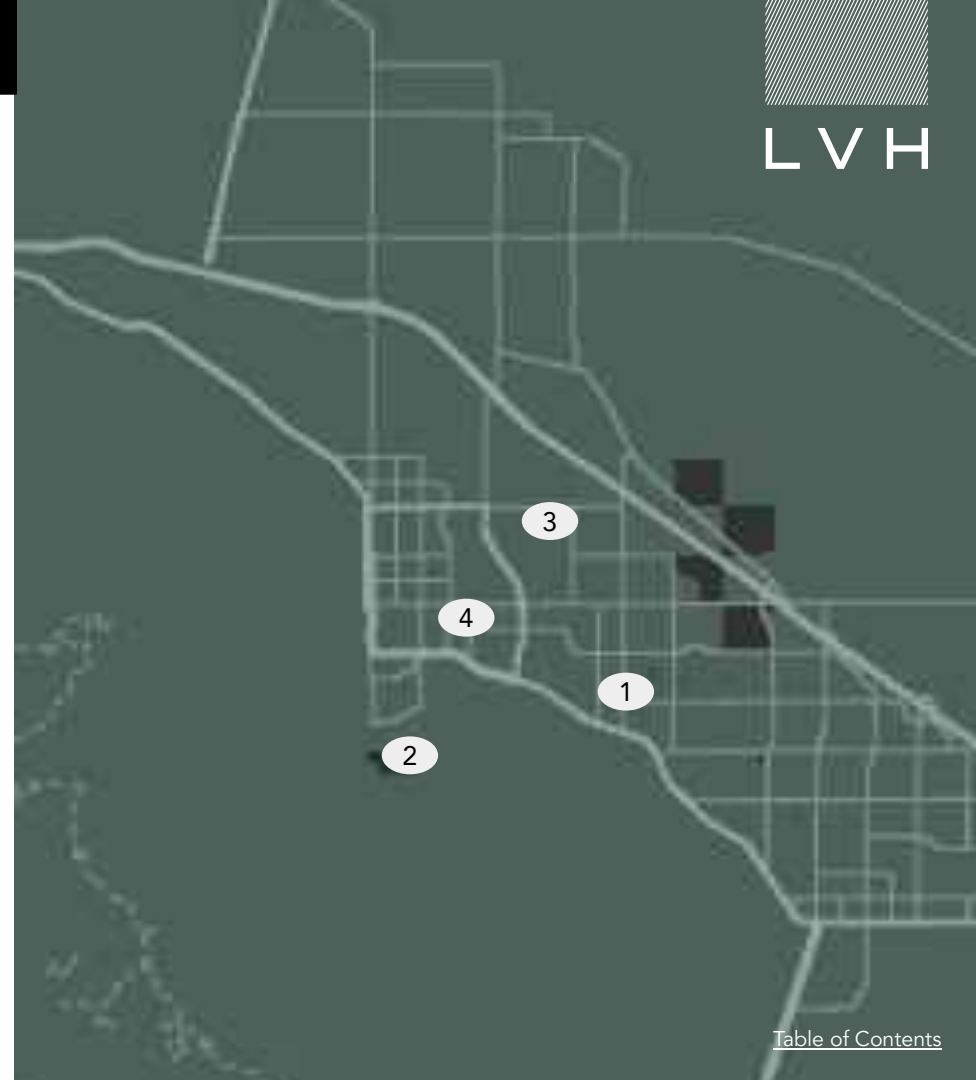

LVH

TEE TIME

Between 300 days of sunshine and dramatic mountain backdrops, it is clear why Palm Springs is regarded as one of the world golf capitals. With more than 100 renowned golf courses, the area features greens designed by legendary course architects from Pete Dye to Jack Nicklaus. Prepare to set foot on some of the world's most immaculately kept courses. Palm Springs' golf facilities are excellent for having the most demanding greens, and are ideal for all levels of players. The PGA and the LPGA bless this golf oasis location with a tournament annually.

1. Tahquitz Creek Golf
2. Indian Canyon Golf Resort
3. Escena Golf Club
4. Mesquite Golf & Country Club

TAHQUITZ CREEK GOLF RESORT

Tahquitz Creek is one of the premier public golf resorts in Palm Springs. The resort offers two challenging championship courses. Golf Digest recently rated Tahquitz Creek as being “one of the best places to play.”

INDIAN CANYONS GOLF RESORT

The views at Indian Canyons Golf Resort are stunning. The course is circled on three sides by beautiful mountain views, which also shelter it from the wind. Here too, golfers have a choice of two different courses; the lake-rich south course or the more traditional north course rimmed by mid-century modern homes.

ESCENA GOLF CLUB

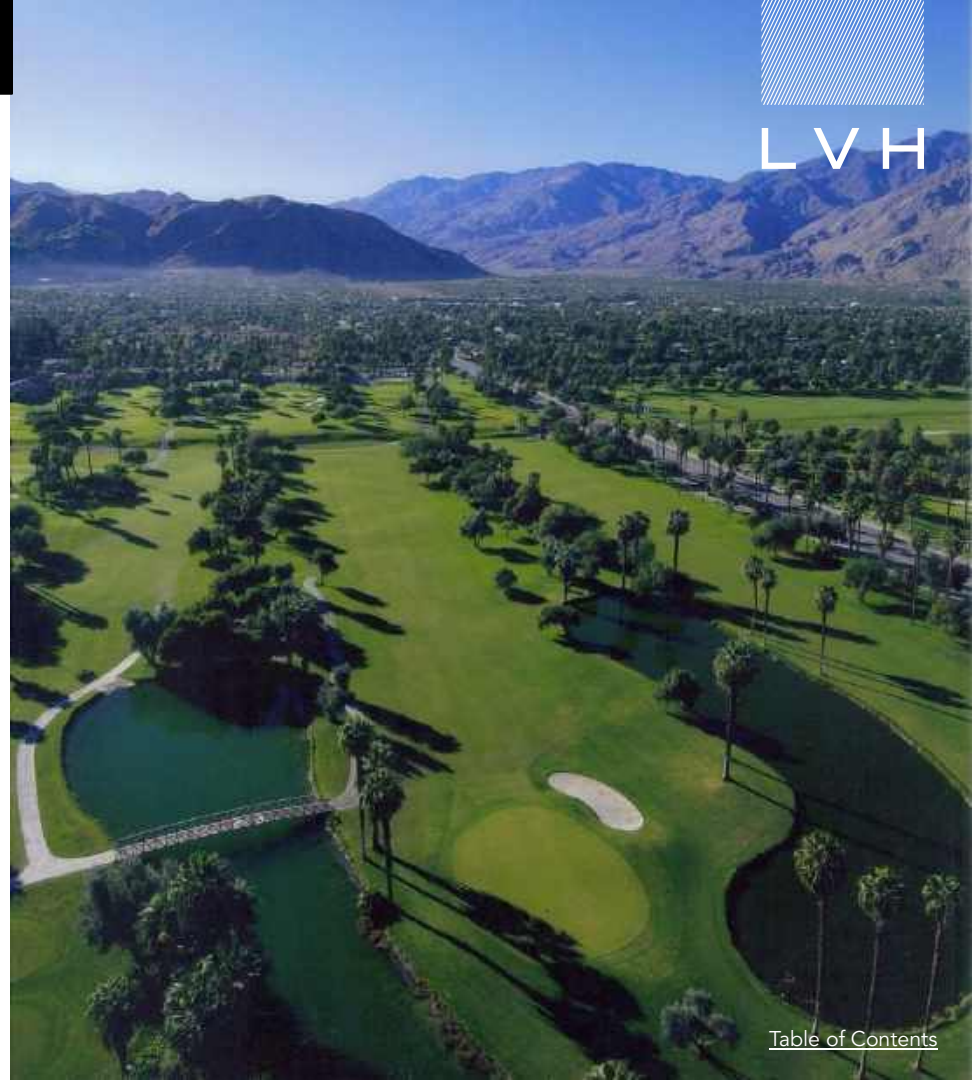

Golfers who want top-notch golf head to Escena Golf Club which has been ranked in the top six public courses in California. Wide open spaces provide clear views, and generous driving corridors. The minimalist design will help you to keep your focus on the game. Located next to Palm Springs International Airport, Escena is a popular first or last stop for visiting golfers.

MESQUITE GOLF & COUNTRY CLUB

Mature trees, lakes and breathtaking mountain views make Mesquite Country Club a lush course golfers keep coming back to. Nestled along a stream bed, this course is a traditional and mature 18-hole championship layout designed by Bert Stamps in 1985. Mesquite Golf & Country Club also provides a large grass practice facility and driving range, and a sprawling Spanish style clubhouse.

LVH

KIDS

The famed adult playground is no less enticing for children. Palm Springs' sun-drenched canyons, beautiful palm oases, and immersive trails are sure to nourish a child's budding imagination. From the sense of wonder that may come from stargazing, or interacting up close with a giraffe at the Living Desert, there is no end in sight for kids' entertainment.

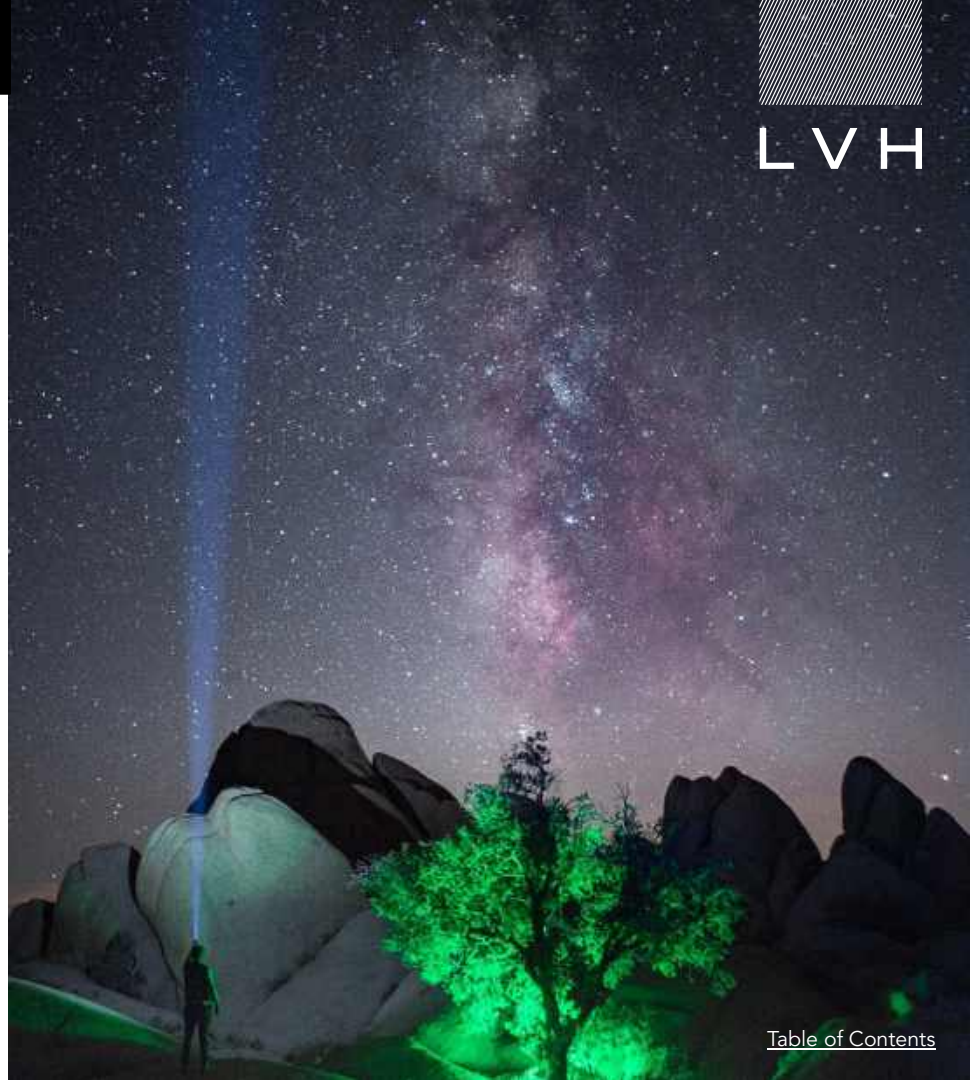

CABAZON DINOSAURS THEME PARK

A delightful outing for the little ones, Cabazon Dinosaurs Theme Park is a welcome afternoon pitstop. The park is smattered with countless lifelike dinosaur models, including two centerpiece enormous beasts sure to get the kids' attention. From trails to fossil digs, there are countless prehistoric themed activities to choose from.

STARGAZING

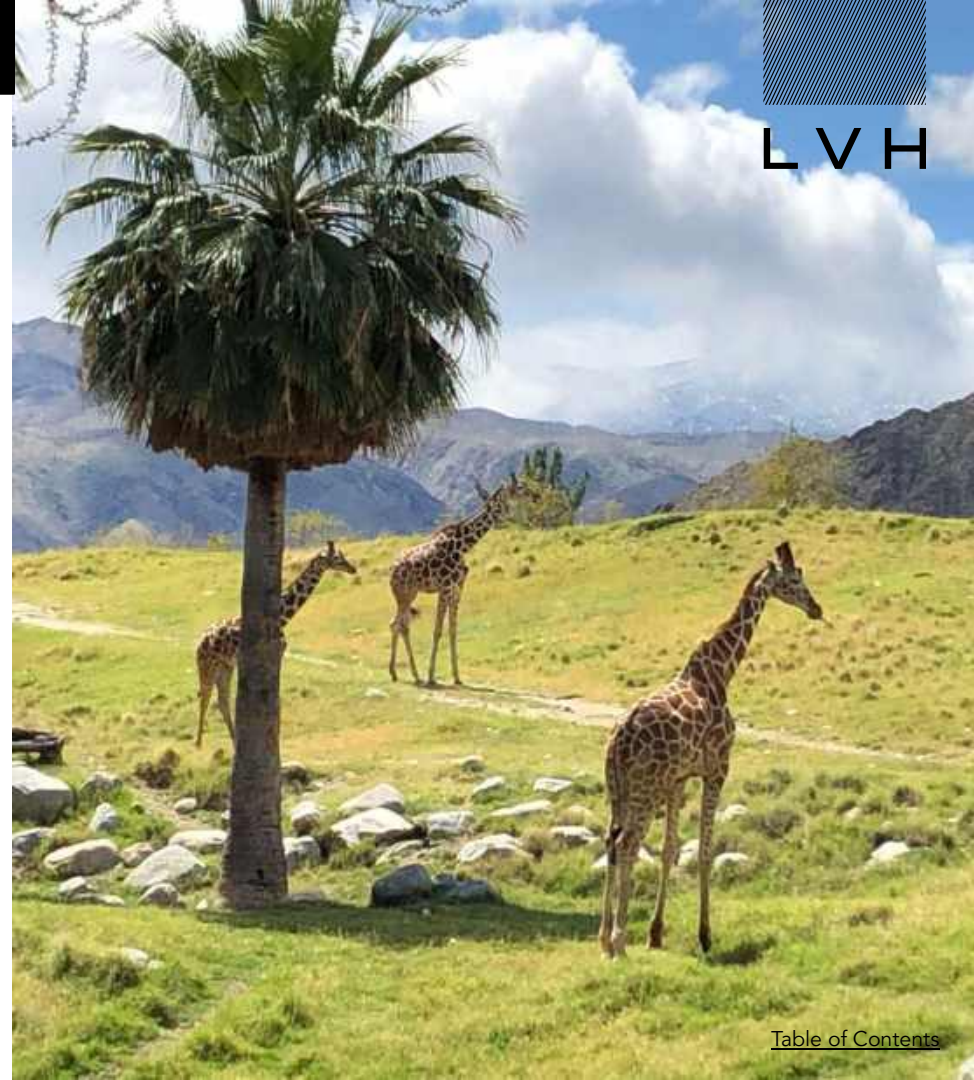

Since the 1920s, Greater Palm Springs has been a favorite escape for some of Hollywood's biggest stars, but it's also a stellar setting for stargazing of another kind. With minimal light pollution, share a special moment with the children dazzled by the Palm Springs night sky.

LIVING DESERT

The Living Desert is a great attraction blending the best aspects of a zoo, with all the things we love about gardens. Stroll the wide and curving pathways to see gorgeous statuesque cacti, flowering bushes, majestic trees, and sprinkled among it all, fascinating desert animals.

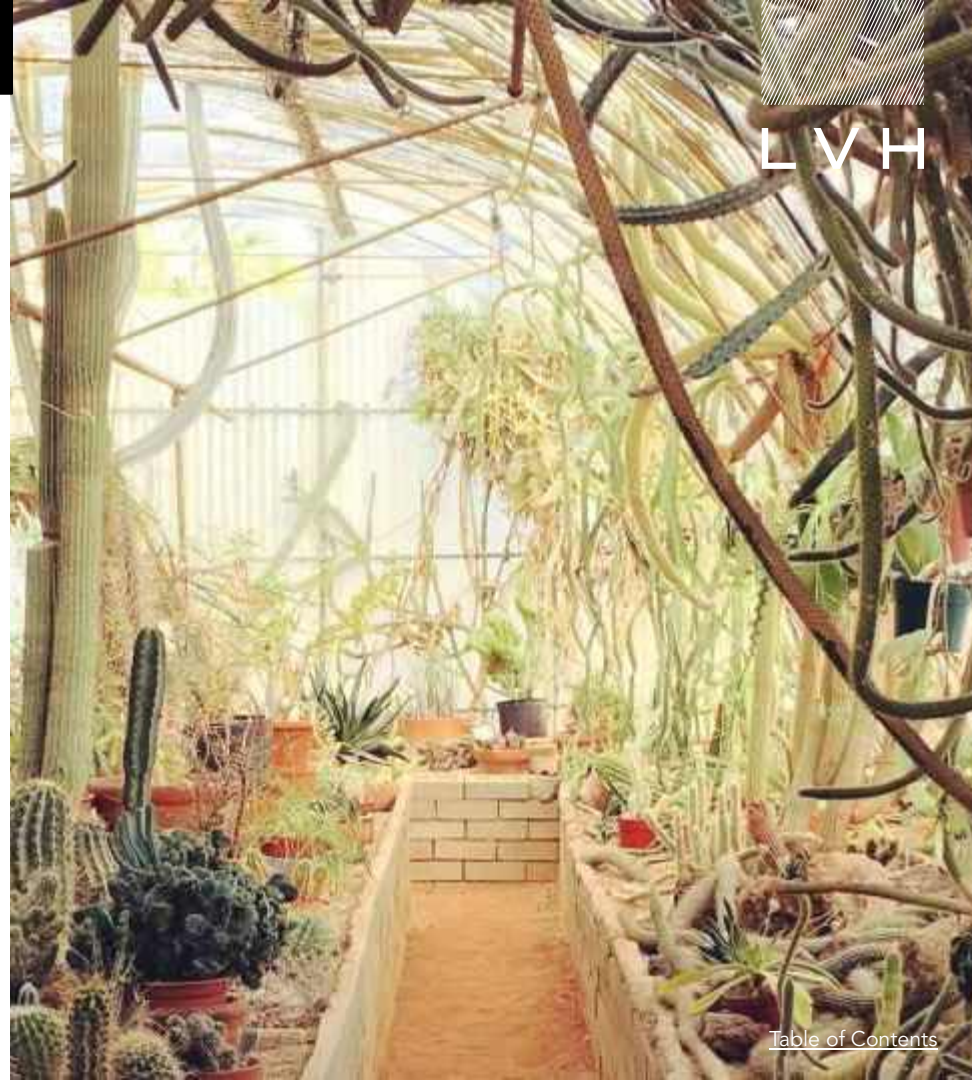

AERIAL TRAMWAY

Palm Springs is home to the world's largest rotating tram car. Cars make the journey along the fascinating Chino Canyon Cliffs from Valley Station to Mountain Station in about 10 minutes. The ride is worth the views from the top where you'll find the Peaks Restaurant, a charming café, gift shop, theaters, nature exhibits and more than 50 miles of trails to hike.

MOORTEN BOTANICAL GARDENS

This historic landmark has been around since 1938, and has been a favorite of everyone who visits it. The converted home features 3,000 varieties of plants and the "The World's First Cactarium," loaded with cacti and succulents. This is an ideal place to immerse children in the wonders of the desert ecosystem.

KIDS ARCHERY LESSONS

Unique to the region, Palm Springs is home to an indoor archery range for children of all ages. The attentive staff ensures all abilities are catered to. This exciting activity supports your children's social development, teamwork and hand-eye coordination.

TRAILS

There are few hikers out there who have exhausted the trails offered by the Greater Palm Springs Area. Hitting all the high notes, hiking here offers tranquility, endless beauty as well as physical and mental well-being. Crisscross between vast sandy spaces smattered with cacti to grand twisted canyons sculpted by the elements. Navigate fantastic rock formations, and discover crystal trickling streams shielded by wild Palm tree groves. Venture up to the peaks of the Santa Rosa and Jacinto Mountains, and meander through lush meadows blanketed by wildflowers on the way down. There is no better way to experience the majesty of the area than with a favorite set of boots.

ANDREAS CANYON TRAIL

The casual, two-mile hike amid Palm Springs' historic Agua Caliente Band of Cahuilla Indians tribal grounds counts among the most unique in the region. Part of the Indian Canyons' 60 miles of hiking trails, Andreas Canyon's adjoining stream gives rise to bountiful vegetation which starkly contrasts the texture of the canyon's rocky routing.

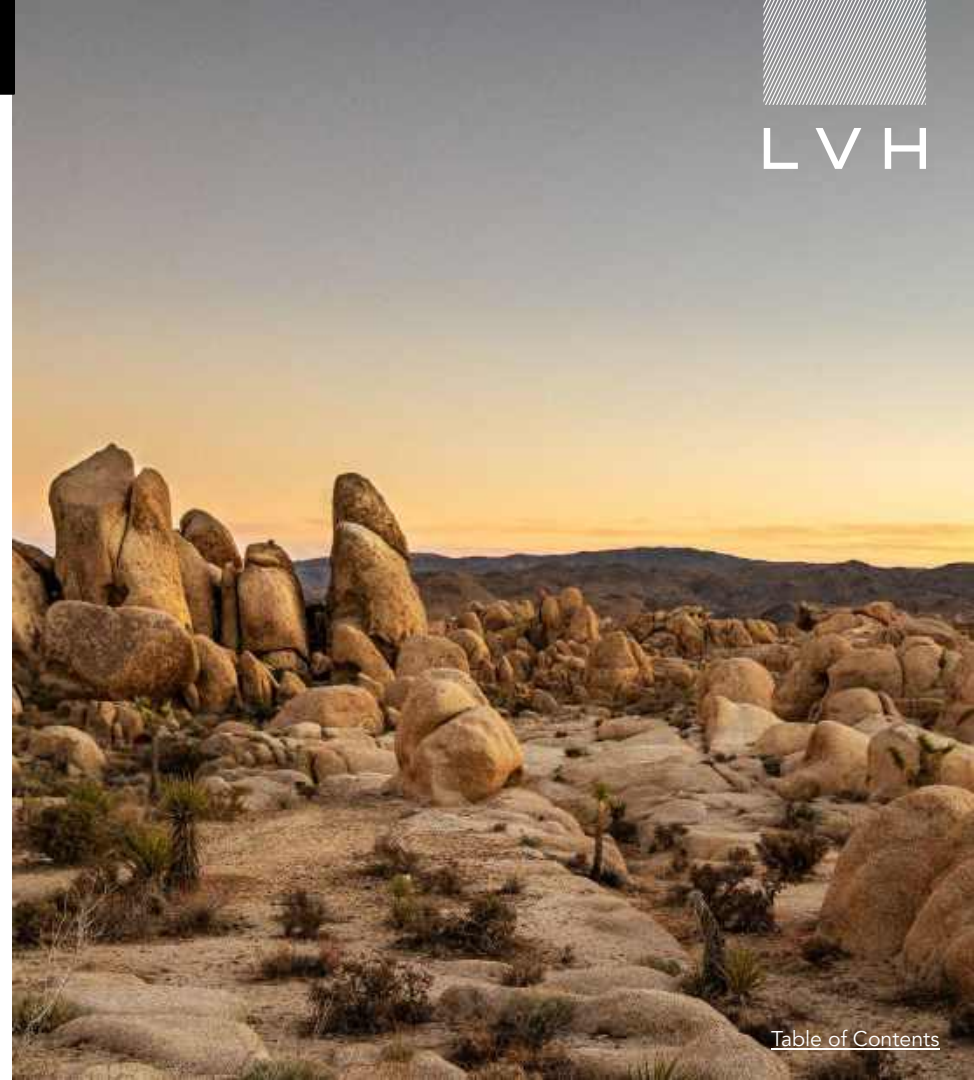

BIG MORONGO CANYON PRESERVE

Located off Highway 62 in Morongo Valley, these 31,000 preserved acres present a host of incredible hiking opportunities ranging from three-tenths of a mile to an 11-mile round-tripper through Big Morongo Canyon. Diverse plant life is abundant, as are more than 240 species of birds.

JOSHUA TREE NATIONAL PARK

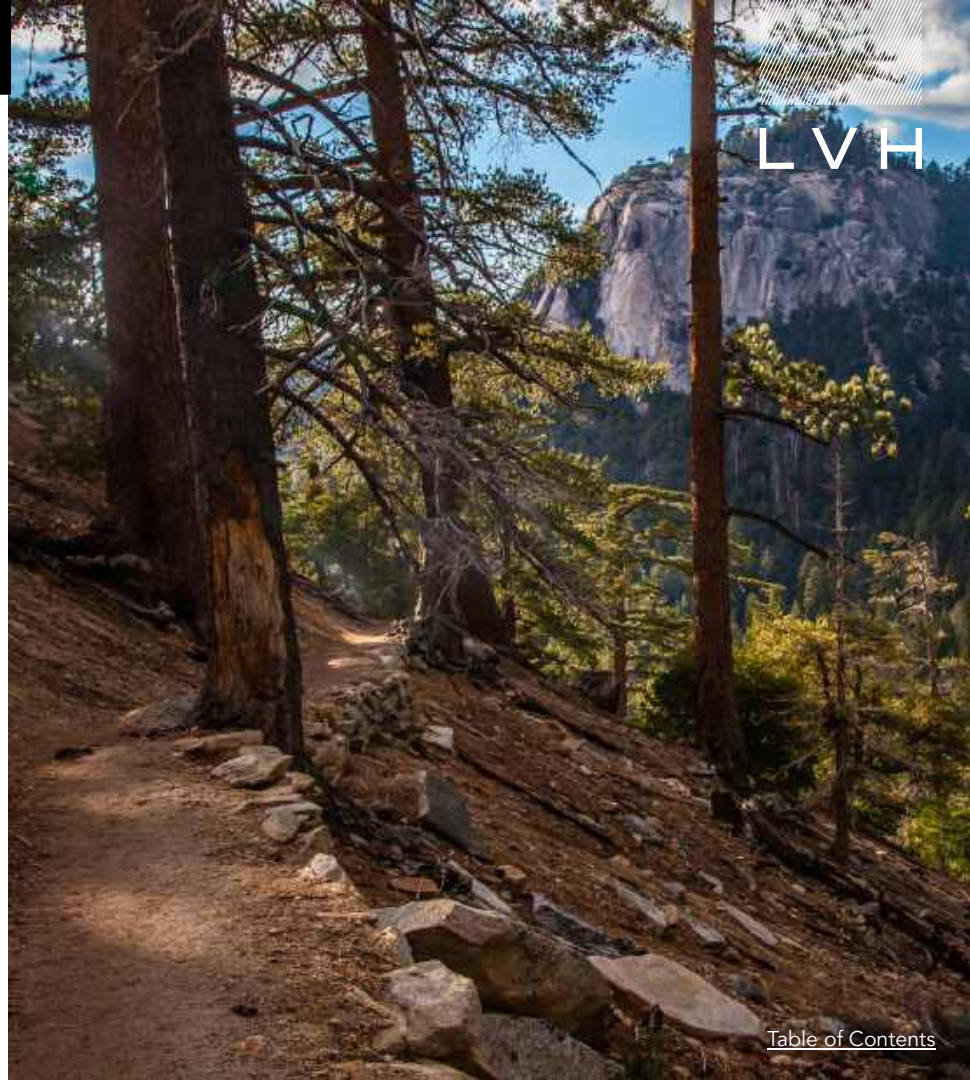

A sweeping array of nature and fitness treks greets guests across the 1,250-square-mile breadth of space, which makes Joshua Tree among the most popular hiking, camping and rock climbing attractions both nationally and internationally. For leisurely hikes, check out the three-mile 49 Palms Oasis hike or the four-mile Lost Horse Mine & Mountain hike.

TAHQUITZ

PEAK

Tahquitz Peak is a granite, 8,846-foot-tall rock formation on the high western slope of the San Jacinto Mountain range in Riverside County above the mountain town of Idyllwild. Tahquitz is a steep approach hike, leading to about a 1,000-foot face.
