ABOUT

St Moritz in Switzerland is the queen of European ski resorts. Old-world Swiss charm meets high culture refinement in the world's most cosmopolitan resort town. St Moritz has been a premier holiday destination for centuries – renowned for its style, elegance and class. It's a place steeped in history: the birthplace of alpine winter holidays in 1864, and home to two Winter Olympic Games. But even before that, its healing springs had earned the resort its fame as a summer health resort, with its healing waters renowned for over 3000 years. Today, St Moritz is the world's ultimate mountain holiday experience.

In addition to its acclaimed fine-dining restaurants and exhilarating activities, such as snow polo tournaments and ice driving courses, it's a mecca of grand accommodations, ski lodges with fireplaces and hot tubs available to relax in after a long day on the slopes. All in all, St Moritz is a destination that should not be missed. Each square inch of St Moritz pays homage to an unmatched tradition of excellence and fine living. The charms of St Moritz – the "miniature city" of the Alps – are second to none. Far more than a holiday resort, this gorgeous town in the Engadin valley laid the groundwork for alpine tourism, its UNESCO-recognized beauty offering the backdrop to two Winter Olympic games. A bastion of elite living since the 19th century, St Moritz has woven itself gradually into the cultural zeitgeist from the films of James Bond to Alfred Hitchcock.

- London – St Moritz ~ 1h 9 min

SILVAPLANA

Situated in the vibrant heart of the majestic Upper Engadine lake landscape, Silvaplana radiates with life. Home to majestic mountains such as the Piz Julier, Piz Surlej, and the local Corvatsch, the waterfront paradise offers a variety of thrilling sports activities in its three districts – Silvaplana, Champfèr, and Surlej. Immersed in the picturesque lake landscape, Silvaplana is now a popular international destination for watersport lovers in summer and freestylers in winter. In 2018, Piazza dal Güglia was opened, and since then, it has been the site of festivities, theatrical performances, markets and concerts. An inviting, car-free environment, it's a wonderful place to congregate and it certainly brings something special to the village. To truly appreciate its beauty and charm, however, one must witness it firsthand.

SILS

Gazing across the boundless Silser plain and the azure lake, one will comprehend Hermann Hesse's vision, for he referred to this tranquil place as the "paradise I dreamed of." Perched between Lake Sils and Lake Silvaplana, the picturesque village serves as a gateway to the Fex Valley, which is embellished with flower-strewn meadows and is utterly enchanting when explored via horse-drawn carriage. Unsurprisingly, this stunning landscape inspired many creatives, from writers like Nietzsche, Dürrenmatt, and Kästner to artists such as Beuys and Chagall and musicians like Strauss, Honegger, and David Bowie. As a result of these creative minds, Sils has earned its place in the world as an Engadine cultural center.

St Moritz-DORF

St Moritz Dorf, perched high with panoramic views, is the epitome of glitz and glamour, known for its high-end boutiques, gourmet restaurants, and prestigious hotels. It's where the world's elite gather to enjoy the finer things in life, set against a backdrop of stunning mountain scenery. A cable car connects St Moritz-Bad to St Moritz-Dorf, making traveling between the two villages easy.

St Moritz-BAD

St Moritz-Bad is situated at a lower altitude than St Moritz-Dorf and is often considered to be more vibrant. It is known for the Engadiner Museum, several shopping arcades, and the Hanselmann toboggan run. St Moritz Bad, located at a lower elevation near the lake's edge, offers a more relaxed atmosphere with direct access to health and wellness facilities, including the famous thermal baths. It's a haven for those seeking restorative experiences in nature, yet still within reach of St Moritz's exclusive charm.

SAMEDAN

Perched at an elevation of 1720 m above sea level, the sun-drenched La Plaiv valley is home to Samedan – an idyllic hub that has attracted many from near and far. When considering Samedan, an array of appealing traits come to mind instantly: sun-kissed, positioned atop the highest airport in Europe, steeped in history, vibrant with sporty activities, and, of course, the Romansh word center. A hike in the region encapsulates its captivating contrasts, featuring gentle peaks and lush meadows alongside mighty glaciers, snow-capped peaks, dense forests, and glimmering lakes – an adventure that will leave visitors in awe of the Engadin's amazing diversity.

PONTRESINA

Perched atop the picturesque Bernina massif, 1800 meters high, Pontresina welcomes those seeking peaceful reprieve, connoisseurs and adventurers alike. This mountain village, steeped in history, boasts delightful hotel buildings from the Belle Epoque era and quaint Engadine houses adorned with 17th and 18th-century sgraffito. Immerse yourself in the wondrous mountain and glacial landscape and discover a plethora of outdoor activities to keep you entertained, from the challenging climb to Piz Bernina's 4049 meters to sunny strolls on warm days.

CELERINA

Nestled just a stone's throw from St Moritz, the idyllic village of Celerina basks in the sunlight, having even more hours of glorious sunshine than its more renowned neighbor. What makes this picturesque place truly shine is its stunningly preserved village center, coupled with a vast array of activities like skiing, tobogganing, cross-country skiing, winter hiking, bobsledding and the Cresta Run – all waiting to be enjoyed in the snow!

BEVER

Descending into the Val Bever side valley, Bever reveals its tranquil charm. Here, close to the action yet far enough away to relax, you can find the delightful Engadine houses and appreciate the beauty of the Beverin River. In summer and autumn, its cerulean waters contrast with the warm seasonal colors that adorn the area, creating an idyllic atmosphere. A journey to Bever on the Albula train route, which is part of the UNESCO World Heritage, is a delight in itself.

LA PUNT-CHAMUES-CH

The village spreads across the Engadin valley floor amid wild peaks, fragrant mountain pine forests, and the Albula slope. Delightfully picturesque and kissed by the sun, the village beckons with its impressive patrician houses from the 16th and 17th centuries, providing a glimpse into its past as a bustling trading center along the historic Albula Line. The unique Engadin sgraffito and Romanesque sayings adorning the facades of La Punt Chamues-ch's striking, historic houses grant it an undeniable charm. Its location at the foot of the Albula Pass made it a strategic hub for transportation and trading, attracting the attention of many affluent families who built their opulent residences here as a testament to their power.

THE CORVIGLIA

St Moritz's closest mountain is Corviglia. It is the birthplace of Alpine winter sports and was responsible for the start of winter tourism over 150 years ago. This region has always had a unique and luxurious ambiance, so Coco Chanel, Jacques Cartier, Conte Rossi, and Philippe de Rothschild established the Corviglia Ski Club in the 1930s. A haven for all-season sporting, relaxation, and rejuvenation with style, St Moritz's embodiment of the ultimate luxury retreat precedes itself. The Corviglia Ski Area, at an altitude of 2,450 meters, is considered one of Switzerland's top skiing destinations. It is a piste skiers paradise directly above St Moritz. Accessed by four different points in the valley, its 155 km of sunny south-facing slopes are wonderful for fast turns and long lunches. Access to the ski area is from the villages of Celerina, St Moritz Bad (as in 'spa'), the center of St Moritz and Suvretta. It offers challenging pistes for advanced skiers, snowboarders, and beginner runs that everyone can enjoy. With over 40 kilometers of slopes, there is something for every level of skier or boarder.

CORVATSCH

This is another luxury ski destination that should not be overlooked. It features a total of 80 km of slopes with spectacular views and luxury amenities to ensure an unforgettable skiing experience. Whether you are looking for direct access to the mountain and its luxury restaurants or an adrenaline-charged black run. The ski area has something to offer everyone who visits. The area is equipped with state-of-the-art luxury facilities, including high-end restaurants, luxury ski lodges, and lavish snow parks. a north-facing behemoth up to 3303m and includes 120 km of piste and a glacier in its terrain. The polar opposite of Corviglia (it is shaded and colder). Excellent snow quality. More terrain diversity than in Corviglia. Superb mountain eateries and Phenomenal vistas.

THE DIAVOLEZZA

Diavolezza Ski Resort is perched 3,000 meters above sea level, providing an awe-inspiring view of the surrounding mountains. This family-friendly ski destination offers slopes and runs suitable for all skill levels, as well as a terrain park with ramps and rails for snowboarders. If you're looking for a unique high alpine, freeride experience with limited intermediate piste trails and no real beginner terrain, St Moritz, Switzerland's Diavolezza Ski Resort is the perfect place for you. Diavolezza-Lagalb is set above 2000m elevation — this incredible terrain offers quality snow, sensational off-piste and freeride opportunities, as well as an exhilarating 10 km+ long valley run that feels like a heli-ski experience. Not to mention the breathtaking views!

NIETZSCHE HOUSE

For seven consecutive summers starting in 1881, Friedrich Nietzsche spent an immensely inspiring and productive period in the picturesque town of Sils Maria, residing in a humble abode belonging to the Durisch family. His health-conscious nature rejoiced in the dry, sunny climate of the Engadin, which provided relief for his regular bouts of debilitating migraine-like headaches. The house in which he stayed has been turned into an eclectic exhibition space featuring an extensive array of photos and documents, manuscripts, and letters from the Sils era, a comprehensive collection of works published by Nietzsche himself during his lifetime, including rare dedication copies. Moreover, visitors can explore documentation on the forgeries by Nietzsche's sister and his time as a professor in Basel (Basler's room with original furniture and documents from the Basel period 1869–79).

SEGANTINI MUSEUM

Giovanni Segantini (1858–1899) The world-renowned Segantini Museum, built in 1908 by Engadine architect Nicolaus Hartmann (1880–1956) to honor the great painter Giovanni Segantini (1858–1899), who significantly changed the artistic aesthetics of the mountain landscape with his Symbolist and Divisionism paintings, has been expanded three times since. Today, St Moritz is home to the most comprehensive and important collection of Segantini's masterpieces, celebrating his remarkable Realistic Symbolism and reformations of Alpine painting at the turn of the century. Tragically, Segantini passed away while working on his monumental triptych "Werden–Sein–Vergehen" (Becoming–Being–Passing) atop Schafberg in Pontresina.

ENGADINE MUSEUM

The Museum Engiadina is proudly showcases its 21 exhibition rooms, where historical interiors from five centuries come alive; paneled rooms from the Engadine and neighboring regions, a stateroom from Valtellina, a grand kitchen and a bedroom, all lovingly placed together. All this was made possible by the renowned architect N. Hartmann (1880–1956), who designed the structure with the traditional Engadine house in mind, specifically for this remarkable collection. Thanks to the renovation in 2016, the museum was able to set up additional collections and host a permanent exhibition on the Romansh language.

ICE ST MORITZ

For decades, Polo matches and Horse-Racing have been held on the icy lake of St Moritz, and in the mid-eighties, it became clear that adding a motor car event to the winter activities was a natural choice. After much effort and time, ICE St Moritz was born – a place for drivers, spectators, and admirers to enjoy some of the most exhilarating cars in the world, all against the picturesque backdrop of snow-covered Alpine peaks.

WHITE TURF | INTERNATIONAL HORSE RACES

Renowned jockeys and their majestic thoroughbreds put on a stunning display of galloping and trotting races, plus the globally unique skijoring event on the grand racetrack. At least 30,000 people flock to the stunning Engadine mountains yearly to witness the once-in-a-lifetime horse races on the majestic frozen Lake St Moritz. Three Sundays in February come alive as international professional jockeys take charge of their brave racehorses, creating a buzzing atmosphere with the roar of their pounding hooves. However, the highlight of the day is definitely the Skikjöring, an unmissable event exclusive to St Moritz, where daring riders are towed by galloping horses at speeds of up to 31 m/ph, while gliding on their skis along the 1.7-mile track.

SNOW POLO WORLD CUP

Experience the traditional British sport of Polo played along the frozen waters of St Moritz for an athletic spectacle unlike any other. This equine ice tournament is one of the world's most unique annual events, held at the end of January each year since 1985. Stunning natural surroundings cradle a one-of-a-kind sporting event that must be experienced. The Snow Polo World Cup is imbued with prestige and international cachet, consolidating St Moritz's status as a bastion of fine living. The competition is accompanied by a slew of elite social events spearheaded by the town's roster of first-class hotels.

ENGADIN SKI MARATHON

An annual tradition since 1969, the beloved Engadin Skimarathon has become an indelible part of St Moritz's robust skiing heritage. Revered internationally, this is the second-largest cross-country skiing event in the world, with thousands of participants making the pilgrimage from Maloga to S-chang each March. Up to 14000 cross-country fans hailing from over 60 nations await the starting pistol, with a winding 26-mile route navigating frozen lakes, traditional Engadin villages, and gorgeous winter landscapes.

SUNICE MUSIC FESTIVAL

The SunIce Music Festival is one of Europe's premier EDM and Techno events. Mark the end of the winter season with style to the infectious beats of the world's best DJs. Far more than a music festival, SunIce presents a one-of-a-kind lifestyle experience fusing four nights of rambunctious raves with art, fashion, and winter sports. At the forefront of youth culture, this acclaimed event at the world's top delivers unbridled euphoria and a positive atmosphere offering a new and exciting cultural touchstone for the modern era.

ST MORITZ RUNNING FESTIVAL

Experience the thrill of the St Moritz Running Festival, the ultimate destination for running enthusiasts seeking a summer challenge amidst the stunning Swiss Alps. Since its arrival in St Moritz in 2021, this exhilarating event caters to all levels of runners with five diverse categories, ranging from competitive sprints to a family-friendly fun run and a special race just for kids. Lace up your sneakers and join us for an unforgettable celebration of fitness, nature, and community in the breath-taking landscapes of St Moritz.
