SKI AREAS

FRONT SIDE

The Front Side of Vail Mountain is the primary skiing area and serves as the resort's iconic face. It's the first area that visitors encounter upon arriving at the base of Vail Village. This region offers a diverse range of terrain for skiers and snowboarders of all levels, from beginners to experts. The Front Side is characterized by meticulously groomed runs, tree-lined trails, and stunning mountain vistas. Skiers can enjoy wide-open cruisers, well-maintained slopes, and a variety of chairlifts for easy access.

The Front Side features a mix of beginner, intermediate, and advanced runs. Notable trails include "Riva Ridge," a long and challenging run, and "Born Free," a popular intermediate trail. Beginners can take advantage of the gentle slopes near the base area. Visitors can find a range of amenities at the base of the Front Side, including ski schools, dining options, ski shops, and equipment rental facilities. It's also the central hub for various events, après-ski activities, and cultural attractions in Vail Village.

LVH

BACK BOWLS

Vail's Back Bowls are legendary and are considered one of the most iconic skiing experiences in North America. This expansive area is located on the western side of Vail Mountain and is known for its wide-open, ungroomed terrain, offering a sense of untouched wilderness. The Back Bowls are a paradise for powder hounds, featuring deep powder skiing and breathtaking scenery. They provide a true backcountry experience within the bounds of the resort.

The Back Bowls offer a vast expanse of challenging and expert terrain. Skiers and snowboarders can explore the likes of "China Bowl," "Siberia Bowl," and "Sun Down Bowl." These areas are ideal for those seeking powder-filled adventures and open spaces to carve turns. While the Back Bowls themselves lack the amenities found in the base villages, skiers can access them via lifts from the Front Side and return to the base for dining, shopping, and après-ski activities. It's essential to be prepared with backcountry safety gear and knowledge when exploring the Back Bowls.

BLUE SKY BASIN

Blue Sky Basin is a hidden gem on the southern side of Vail Mountain, offering a quieter and more remote skiing experience compared to the Front Side. This area is known for its pristine glades, rolling meadows, and exceptional tree skiing. It provides a sense of seclusion and backcountry adventure without leaving the resort boundaries.

Blue Sky Basin features intermediate to expert terrain, with trails like "Big Rock Park," "Grand Review," and "Steep and Deep." The gladed areas are especially popular among experienced skiers and snowboarders, offering excellent tree skiing. Blue Sky Basin has a warming hut where skiers can take a break and enjoy the rustic charm. However, there are limited dining and shopping options in this area, so visitors often return to the base villages for a wider variety of amenities.
