ABOUT

Val d'Isère, a picturesque alpine village in the heart of the Tarentaise valley. An athlete's haven, this fairytale village has been at the forefront of winter sports for over a century, regularly hosting international events and the Tour de France. The dramatic slopes of Aiguille du Dôme and La Face de Belvedere provide a breathtaking backdrop to the village's charming traditional alpine buildings. At the same time, the 17th-century steeple of Chapel Saint Bernard punctuates its quintessential mountain architecture.

Val d'Isère epitomizes the purest essence of mountain exhilaration, boasting impeccably groomed lift-accessed slopes and exhilarating off-piste terrain that is among the finest in the world.

The village enjoys a favorable climate, with cold winters and mild summers, making it an ideal destination for winter sports enthusiasts and summer adventurers. Val d'Isère presents an unforgettable fusion of old-world enchantment and contemporary amenities—from delectable fine dining to high-end retail, bustling apres-ski haunts, and more.

AREAS

LA DAILLE

Welcoming you at the entrance of the Val d'Isère resort, Le Daille presents a culmination of modern high-rise apartment buildings and classic chalets that embody the vintage French charm. The hub sits at the base of the "Espace Killy" ski slopes, so it serves as a convenient access point for all the skiing amenities, given that most visitors are interested in experiencing the rush of the French mountain peaks. And suppose you decide to visit during the summertime. In that case, you can still enjoy summer skiing on the glacier or participate in mountain biking or mountain region through the various hiking routes and trails dotted over the illustrious rugged landscape.

AREAS

LE CRÊT

Le Crêt is a rustic, traditional village within Val d'Isère township, burrowed into the hillside among the towering mountain peaks. Offering splendid panoramas of Val d'Isère, this enclave is characterized by its impeccably refurbished historic farmhouses, which enhance its timeless appeal and rustic ambiance. Situated right next to the center, La Daille and Le Crêt have a calmer and quieter feel than the other hamlets and the lively center of Val d'Isère. Get the best of both worlds while enjoying the serenity of the snowy covered fields only a stone's throw away from boutiques, restaurants and bars.

LVH

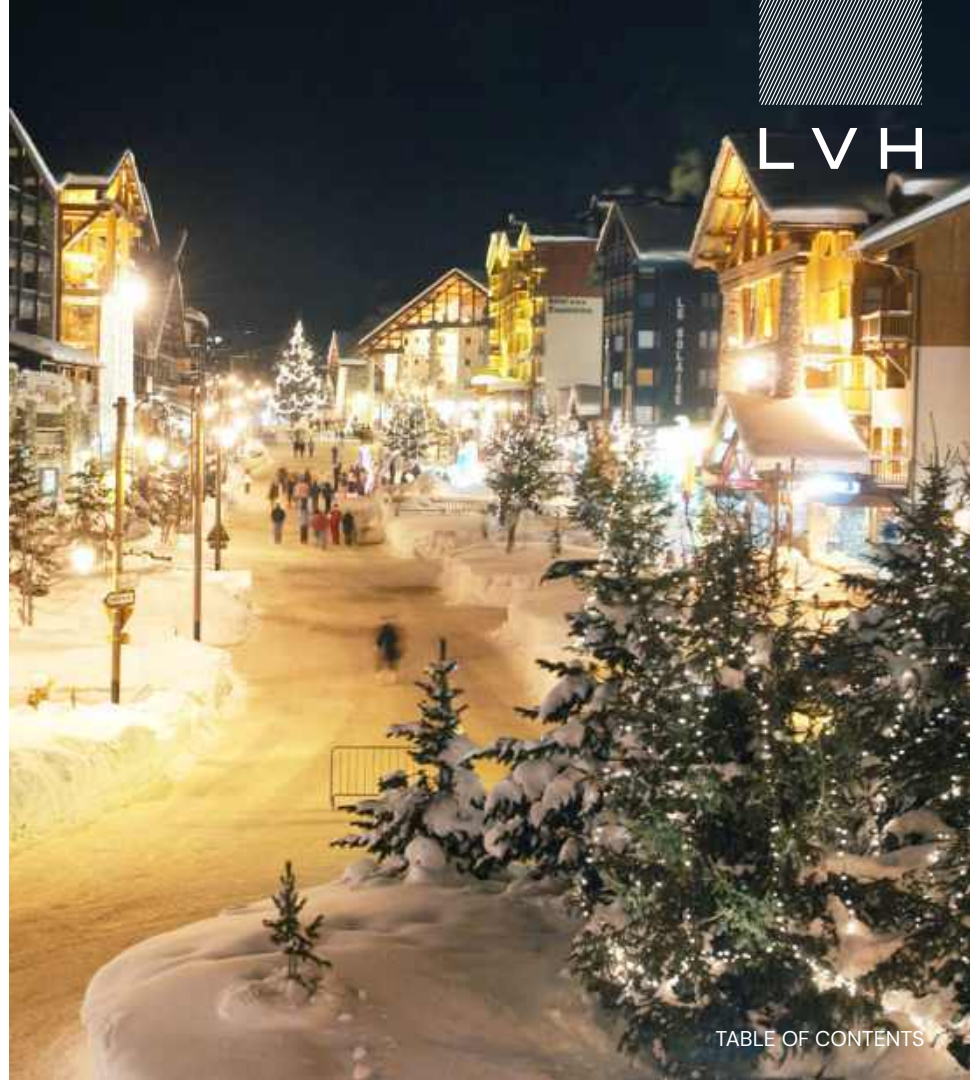

TABLE OF CONTENTS

AREAS

VAL D'ISERE CENTER

When you go to the village center, you'll step inside a living postcard in the Val d'Isere. The classic chalet-style hotels and wooden and stone buildings that you'll find here inspired the late Chanel designer Karl Lagerfeld for one of his ultimate collections with the luxury house.

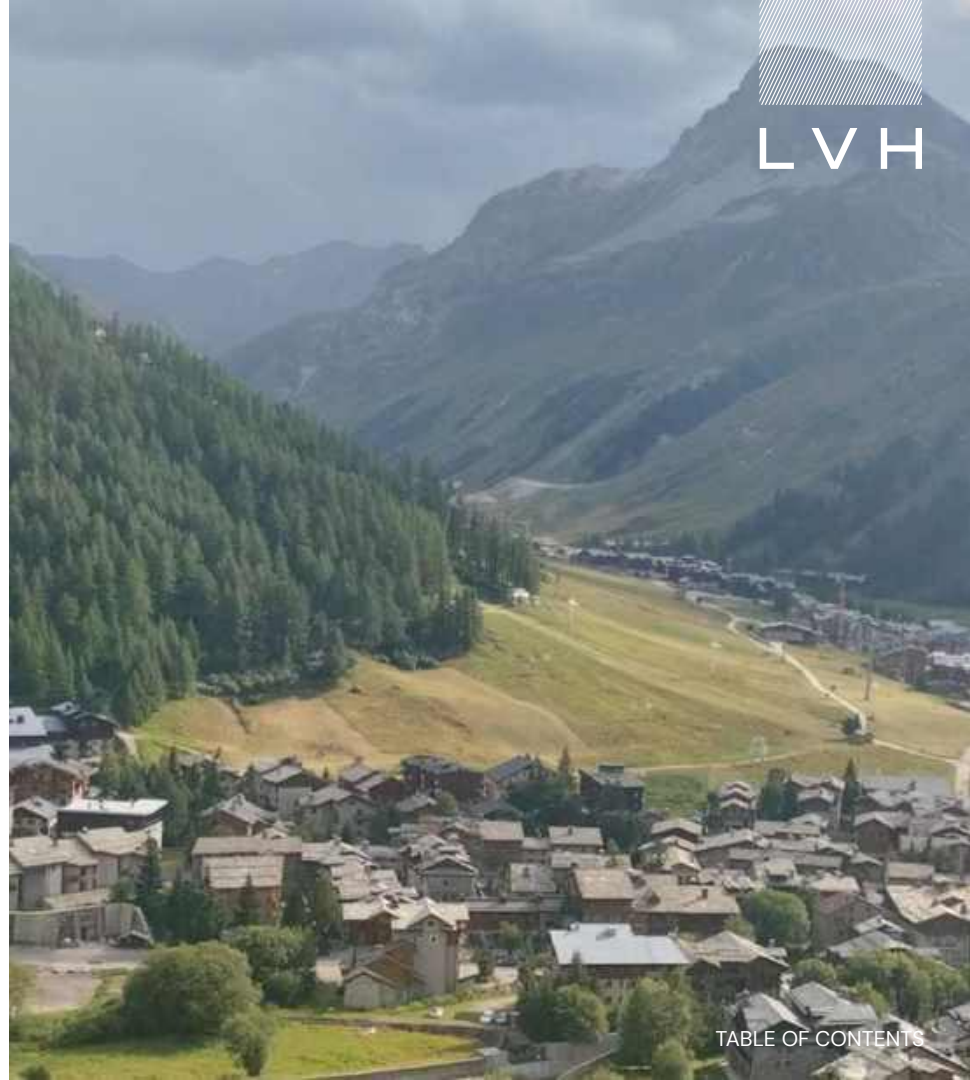

You'll feel as though you are strutting the Chanel runway while you luxuriate in an array of high-end shops, restaurants, chalets, and all the other necessities you'll need during your snowy alpine getaway. The charming village center is situated in a valley with mesmerizing views of the French Alps.

AREAS

LE JOSERAY

As you journey through the tunnel from the center of Val d'Isère village, you'll discover the charming, secluded enclave of Le Joseray, where chapels, hotels and apartments line its quaint cobblestone streets. While this area offers a more serene ambiance than other parts of the village, it is no less beautiful—overflowing with natural splendor. With a mix of outdoor and indoor activities and a selection of cozy establishments, Le Joseray provides a welcoming atmosphere, whether during the icy winters or the refreshing summers in the southeast of France.

AREAS

LE CHATELARD

Tucked away in the French Alps, away from the lively towns, lies an isolated oasis adorned with breathtaking natural vistas and many outdoor activities that will surely get you to move your body. The hidden gems of this alpine region include lakes, waterfalls, rock formations, biking, and hiking trails, just to name a few. Discover a different side of the French Alps with your eyes and palette, as the area is also renowned for delicacies made from locally sourced meat and yield.

AREAS

LA LEGGETTAZ

Delight in the picturesque charm and the snow-capped embrace of the French Alps amidst the soaring peaks of the nearby mountain ranges and untamed wilderness of the La Legettaz area. Savor the authentic flare of French cuisine and partake in a symphony of outdoor pursuits, from making your way down the adrenaline-inducing skiing slopes and snowboarding to serene hiking and mountain biking. With its timeless allure and captivating beauty, La Legettaz defines alpine magnificence, calling all connoisseurs of luxury to experience the pinnacle of mountain grandeur.

AREAS

LE FORNET

Just a five-minute scenic drive from the center of Val d'Isère, along the route to Col de l'Iseran, Le Fornet combines the charm of classic chalets with contemporary luxury design amidst meticulously rejuvenated alpine terrain. Thanks to its substantial snowfall, Le Fornet serves as both a picturesque mountain village and a premier skiing destination, often considered superior to even the renowned slopes of Tignes and Val d'Isère.

The picturesque village, adorned with chalets built in the classic Savoyard wood and stone style, presents visitors with a notably more tranquil ambiance than the bustling Val d'Isère center, owing to its location outside the center of the luxurious resort.
