ABOUT

Canada's most famous mountain resort, Whistler, is nestled at the feet of two gargantuan mountains – the Whistler and Blackcomb – in the Whistler Valley, north of Vancouver, British Columbia. These impressive peaks form the most significant and upscale winter sports area in North America, and the always bustling Whistler Village provides immediate access to some of the best skiing. If you're a skier, then you certainly would have heard of Whistler if you haven't already traversed its sensational slopes or, at the very least, fantasized about it. Whistler's international appeal existed before it co-hosted the 2010 Winter Olympics. Still, the games only amplified the mountain resort's fame as a vacation hotspot.

Only one main road, Highway 99, also known as the Sea-to-Sky Highway, connects the area's attractions and communities, a scenic drive that rates as one of Canada's most spectacular road trips. This alpine wilderness is your year-round playground, just a scenic two-hour drive or short helicopter flight north of Vancouver. Whistler Village Stroll is lined with countless opportunities for memorable experiences, from fine dining to luxury boutique shopping, art galleries, and apres ski venues. On the other hand, just beyond the comforts of elegant and extravagant accommodations, the trails and ancient forests of British Columbia's wilderness call to casual adventurers and outdoor purists alike.

A short way past Rainbow is the residential neighborhood of Emerald Estates, named after the jeweled color of Green Lake, with some villas having waterfront access.

Characterized by the beautiful Alta Lake and surrounding parks, Whistler Centre is a part of the village's original history as a fishing resort, well before any dreams of skiing. Set close to the village, this area is incredibly desirable. Many properties in Whistler Center are situated above the valley floor, offering beautiful panoramas of Whistler, Blackcomb Mountains, and the valley or the golf course. There are many exclusive neighborhoods within Whistler Center. Just south of the village, you will find Brio, with the exclusive ski-in/ski-out Sunridge Plateau development. North of Brio, perched alongside the Whistler Golf Course, is Blueberry Hill, one of the resort's first luxury home subdivisions. South of Brio, hugging the shores of Alta Lake and neighboring Wayside Park, is Alta Vista.

It's not just the mountains that make Whistler an incredible place. The village boasts hundreds of shops, world-class restaurants, bars, multiplex cinemas, concert venues, and much more. Fully pedestrianized, you are free to explore wherever you want on foot. The cobblestone pedestrian-only village is known for internationally ranked cuisine, a famous apres ski and nightclub scene, high-end spas, and all the retail therapy an avid shopper could want. There are stunning views no matter where you turn, and it was meticulously conceived to exist in harmony with its beautiful natural surroundings.

So many travelers just wait for the snow to fly and temperatures to plummet so they can get to those places where they can enjoy their favorite winter activities like skiing, heli-skiing, snowboarding, skating, tobogganing, or snowmobiling. We'd be remiss if we didn't mention cuddling up under a blanket in a sleigh being pulled by beautiful horses while the moon lights the way. Imagine sitting in front of a roaring fire with a mug of hot cocoa embellished by coffee liqueur and whipped cream. It may be cold outside, but winter can be a real heart warmer when it comes to special times.

SKIING AND SNOWBOARDING

Whistler is a skier and rider’s paradise. With more than 8,170 acres of skiable terrain between Whistler and Blackcomb Mountains and 200 counting runs, 16 alpine bowls and three glaciers, every powder hound will find a line, no matter the skill level. As Canada’s biggest ski area and a perennial award-winning best ski resort in North America, Whistler brings the ski experience to another level. The two mountains offer slightly different skiing and riding experiences for winter enthusiasts. Whistler Mountain offers more green runs, wide open bowls, and family-friendly terrain, while Blackcomb Mountain attracts more intermediate and advanced skiers and riders, as well as those interested in double blacks and high alpine chutes.

CAT SKIING

Cat skiing is rarely mentioned outside North America. So here is a short explanation of what it is and how it works. Beginning in Canada more than 30 years ago, two bright sparks had the idea of using snowcats, or piste bashers as they're often known, to transport skiers uphill, allowing them to access terrain beyond the confines of a resort. So rather than flatten the powder into easily manageable groomed highways, the cats get you to the top of deep, untouched runs. Led by a guide, you'll ski the pitch before being collected at the bottom and head off for the next run. And you can do that all day long. Put yourself in an environment where the powder is deep and the mountains quiet. But there is something magical about being up in the mountains with only a handful of friends.

Take your game to new heights, 2,000 meters to be exact, with an exclusive heli-golf service. Whether you're looking to crush a wooden ball into oblivion or see the Pemberton Valley from above, you'll get to do both. Grab a friend and come to the "19th hole." These 30 minutes at the top of Mt. Currie can be after a round at one of Whistler or Pemberton's many spectacular golf courses or enjoyed as a singular activity. Eco-friendly wooden golf balls designed to be minimally invasive on the habitats below provide for a unique "tee time" experience.

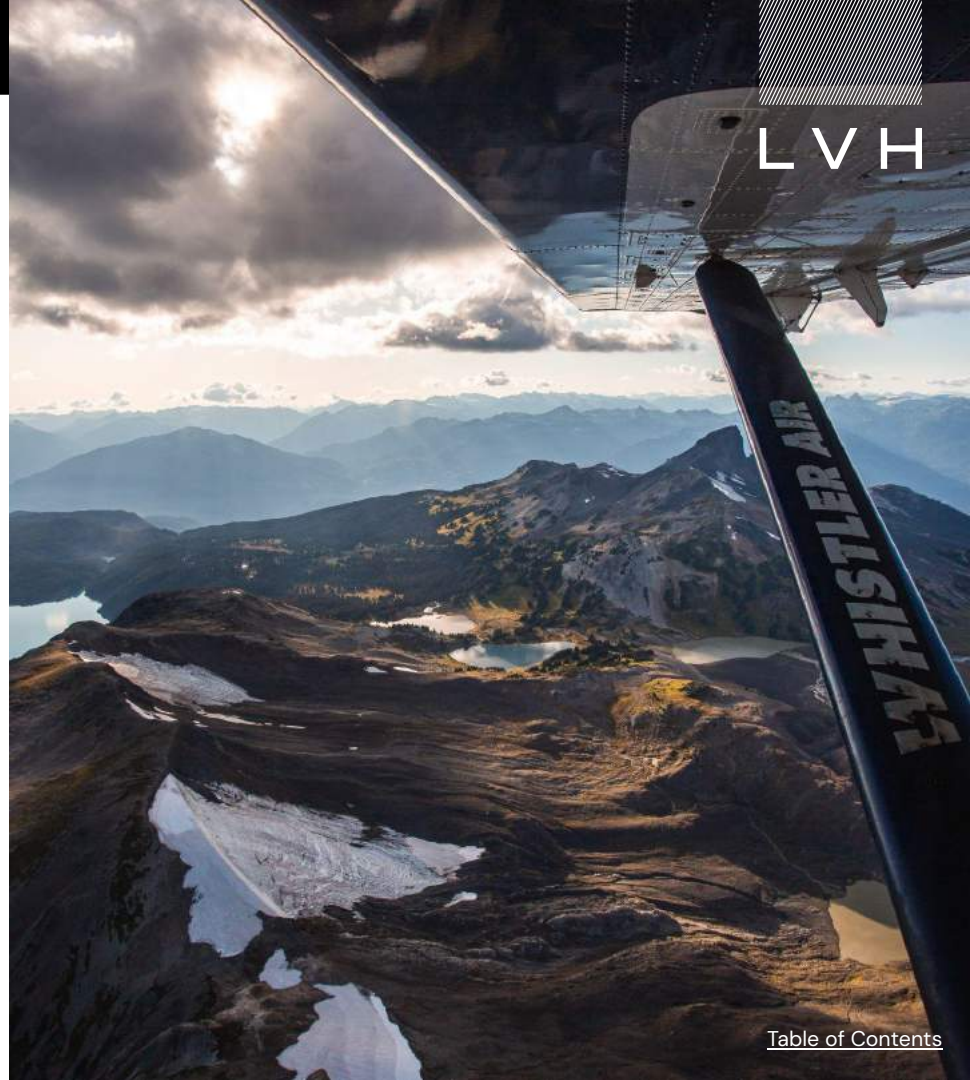

HELI-BIKING

You can now book your heli-biking adventure for the summer. The ultimate BC heli-bike experience out of the heart of Sea to Sky in the mountain biking mecca, Squamish, is there for you. If you're tired of trails and trying to avoid the "lift lines," take on the next level in mountain biking. Nicknamed by riders Disneyland, the 5,500-foot descent to the ocean is a full day (six-seven-hour) ride offering scenic views, challenging terrain, and an adventurous trail. If you prefer, you can make it a multi-day escape with an afternoon drop, overnight stay, and full day ride.

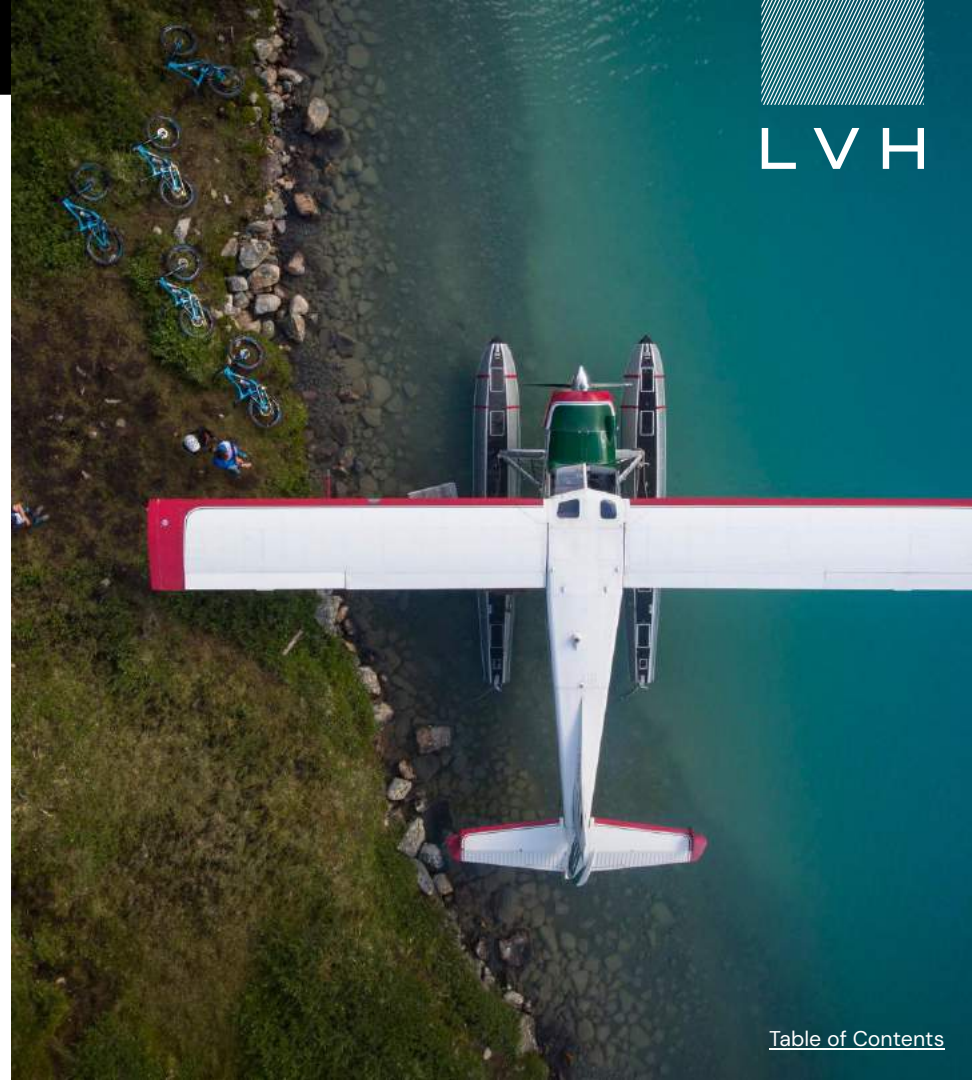

WHISTLER BACKCOUNTRY AIR SAFARI

The Sea To Sky's mountainous region was formed during the last ice age – a time when active volcanoes erupted into the vast icefields that once dominated the landscape. This tour is an ideal way to kick off your trip to Whistler. It's here where mountains were forged, among fire and ice, as far back as 230 million years ago. Photographers, hikers, walkers, and geologists will be equally amazed as the flight takes them shoulder-to-shoulder with magnificent landmarks, including Garibaldi Lake and Black Tusk. Remember your camera, as this scenic flight is one of the most extraordinary things to do in Whistler.

PANORAMIC SEAPLANE TOUR

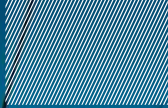

Spectacular tours the entire family can enjoy, the Coastal Mountain ranges of British Columbia have magnificent glaciers and high alpine lakes, which can only be appreciated from the air. Enjoy a bird's-eye view of the supernatural beauty of Garibaldi Provincial Park. This spectacular experience will have you soaring over the majestic glaciers, rugged mountain peaks, unique volcanic formations, and lush alpine meadows surrounding the turquoise waters of Garibaldi Lake. And be sure to keep an eye out: it is not uncommon to see wandering black bears searching for wild berries or mountain goats looking for salt licks.

WHISTLER BUNGEE

Often voted by Whistler locals as the most extreme activity in Whistler, Whistler bungee provides an exhilarating, adrenaline-filled rush no other activity can compare to. Whistler bungee gives thrill seekers an unforgettable experience by jumping 160 feet (50 meters) over the glacial-fed Cheakamus River. In one of the most unique settings for bungee jumping, surrounded by basalt column cliffs and old-growth forest, combined with the breathtaking peak of Black Tusk in the background, you will see why Whistler bungee is regarded as one of the most scenic bungee jumping sites in the world.

SUPERFLY SUMMER ZIPLINE

One of the best custom-built adventures in the world – side-by-side ziplines in the stunning mountain wilderness. The tour features a newly engineered and revolutionary braking system, west coast-inspired architecture, and a network of paths and platforms designed to immerse you in the peace, quiet, and freedom of the forest. Superfly zipline presents two of Canada’s longest lines – a kilometer long, 500 feet high, and reaching speeds of 100 km/h.

BY CAR

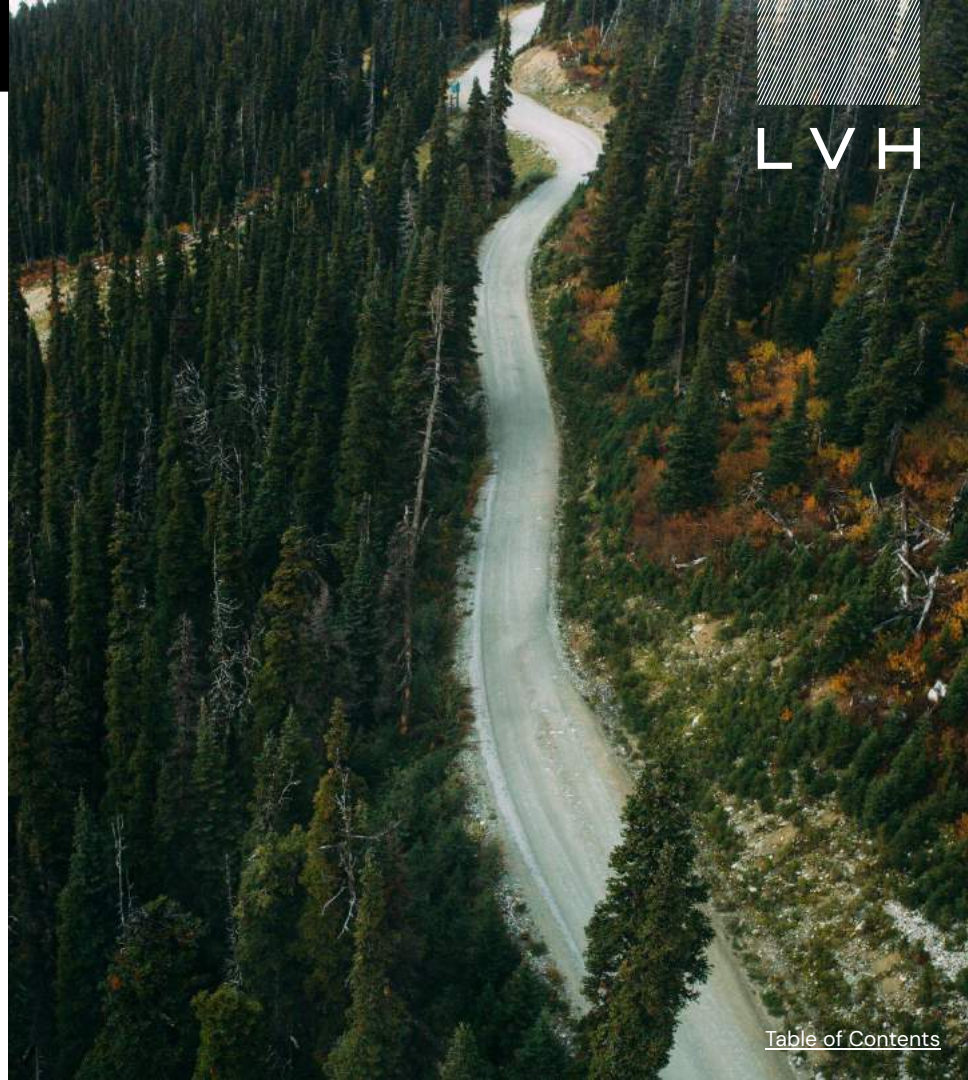

The legendary resort town is just a two-hour drive from Vancouver along the awe-inspiring Sea to Sky Highway. There's only one road leading to Whistler – Highway 99 also known as the Sea to Sky Highway – and the views are pretty spectacular whether you drive from Vancouver or Lillooet.

- Driving From Vancouver

Driving to Whistler from Vancouver is simple – take Highway 99 and drive north through Squamish. On a clear day you'll get views of Vancouver, the mighty waters of Howe Sound and glimpses of Mount Garibaldi, Black Tusk and the Tantalus Range. If it's your first drive, it's definitely worth taking extra time to stop at viewpoints, waterfalls and culturally significant spots along the way.

- Driving From Lillooet/The Interior

For the adventurous, you can also take a longer loop from Vancouver into the interior and drive south to Whistler via Pemberton. This route comes over the Duffey Lake Road past popular hiking spots such as Joffre Lakes. This road is spectacular – it's also smaller, slower and has a significant mountain pass to ascend and descend.
